Interest Grows in Special Prize Contest

Many Women Not Listed See Good Chance to Enter Contest Now and Secure a Prize--The Standard and New Star Invite All Eligible to Enter at Once.

A dozen friends who would gladly give them a subscription if it would result in their winning a $75.00 diamond ring and a trip to New York City and the Bermuda Islands besides. Think this over if you are considering entering the contest, or if you have not even considered it, get out and ask a few of your friends if they will enter by you to the end in case you enter. You will find any number who will be glad to help you and you can then figure on the high vote in your district, and you will see how easy it will be for you to take the lead from the very start. Many people are watching the vote exhibit every day and the lady who has pluck enough to start in the contest now, will get the support of many people who, have been wondering why So and So did not enter at the start of the contest. They have been waiting to see your name. Why don't you send it in today? The contest manager is ready and willing to help any lady to get started, and will be pleased to talk the plan over with you, even if you do not decide to enter. Just write or phone to the contest manager at The Standard and New Star office and he will call on you and explain how easy it is to get subscription votes, and will also get you started. There is no reason why you should not get familiar with the plan of the contest, even though you may not enter. There may be something which you might have thought all along would be difficult to overcome, and that may be the reason you have not entered before. All of these little things can be made clear if you will only have a talk with the contest manager. His time is yours if you will but call upon him. Before you do another thing, start thinking, and also look over the vote in your district. Figure on enough friends to put you in the lead in your district, then call the contest manager at once.

The air is laden with talk of The Standard and New Star's great special prize offer. It has become the key-note of conversation in the homes of New Brunswick generally. It can be heard commented on in the street cars and the rural candidates are the subject of discussion as to their respective chances for the valuable prizes, also the final outcome in the tour to New York City and Bermuda.

The steady work of the various contestants is showing wonderful results day by day, and a great vote will close the prize period on Saturday evening September 24th, at 10 o'clock.

Anyone's Race So Far.

It is anybody's race so far. The lineup of the leaders in the several districts is so close that the amount of work done during the next 18 days will alter the decision for or against you.

In our experience of many contests there has never been a prettier race for first honors and none where the candidates, generally speaking, were so close together. The amount of hustling you do these next 18 days will decide whether you win a prize or not.

It is also highly probable that the work done during the next few days will decide who gets the trip. Let no stone remain unturned this week. Get 'em all, get repeaters, get new ones. They all count votes, and that is what you will need from now to the finish to get under the wire a winner.

Are you winning or slipping to the rear in the great race for the special prizes and a vacation trip? GET YOUR PARENTS AND FRIENDS TO SUBSCRIBE FOR TWO YEARS.

ARTISTIC SILK NEGLIGE POPULAR

The craze for black and white is still on. Not only are new hats and gowns in black and white, but veils, gloves, stockings, petticoats and negliges are made of this popular combination.

The photograph shows a charming three-quarter length sacque of soft black silk trimmed with wide white German val insertion and lace. The long points in front and the large sailor collar are striking features of this pretty garment.

RELATES STORY OF HUDSON TRIP

Professor Brock Gives Interesting Account of Earl Grey's Journeys in the Far North--One Accident.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—The secretary of state has received from Prof. R. W. Brock, who was with Earl Grey's party to the far north, an official mailed report giving a further account of the trip. More attention is paid to that part of the trip from Winnipeg to Norway House. There is a description of the St. Andrew's locks and of Old Fort Garry, which his excellency suggests should be presented by the nation as an historical monument.

Mr. Brock's landing at the outlet of Lake Winnipeg was reached on August 6 and the run to Norway House began. The weather was rainy and the launch broke down and bobbed about helplessly for an hour in wind and rain. Norway House was reached at 3, and there an appropriate welcome was extended. On Monday after lunch Countess Grey and party left party embarked for the north.

for Winnipeg and at 3 his excellency's party, Mr. Brock, and party, left for the north. The most important portion of the report deals with the trip out from Churchill. The harbor is described as a natural one, shut in by prehistoric rocky points. The run to the straits was without incident. Monday, August 27, the party left Hurwell and steamed out into the Atlantic. On the Labrador coast stops were made at Okkak and Indian Harbor, one of the Grenfell missions. Prof. Brock concludes:

There seems to be no inherent difficulties in the way of again utilizing if necessary the back door of Canada through which until the advent of the railways, the trade of the west was conducted. It should be feasible to ship the cattle of the west in modern steamships over the route which in tiny sail boats of the 18th century the court ladies of Louis XIV. could travel on a pleasure excursion."

HORSE RAN AWAY TWICE IN ONE DAY

Miss Ewing Injured at Gagetown in Runaway--Her Horse Bolted on Facing Scene of First Scare.

Gagetown, Sept. 14.—A runaway accident occurred here today. Miss Ewing, matron of the Cossar farm, was driving into the village, when her horse became frightened at an auto, and made a bolt for the ditch, throwing the young lady out and fracturing her arm badly. The wagon was wrecked. Strange to say, after getting another wagon to go home, her horse balked at the place where the accident happened and ran away, demolishing the wagon which was borrowed.

The auto party did not stop to render any assistance. Mr. and Mrs. Fred DeVeber, of St. John, are here spending their vacation at Mr. John Law's.

Greta Rubins, youngest daughter of Mrs. Rubins, of the Grey Gables, sailed Saturday night on the Gov. Dingley for Boston on a visit.

Mr. John Fox of Gagetown, is moving to Queenstown, having purchased a house from Mr. A. Fox of that place.

Mr. Fox is looking for a farm to buy having sold his own to Mr. Cossar in the spring.

Mr. E. S. Brodie is starting to put in his new plate glass front in his store. He expects to have it complete by the end of the month.

Rev. Albert Smith, rector of Gagetown, is spending a couple of days in Fredericton.

So far as anybody knows, planked steak sprung into popularity not more than four or five years ago. Planked steak is a young cousin of planked shad, and where that began nobody can tell but there are savory reminiscences of it from along the coast of old Virginia, where the darlings used to nail the fresh caught fish to a hard wooden plank and cook it before a fire on the shore. Such fish, those who ate it declared, there never had been, but it remained for a hotel man to develop the idea.

Now not only are many kinds of fish planked, but steaks as well. Planked steak is a delicacy that is superseding the finest broil. So popular is it that a plank for broiling has become a household necessity east and west.

The plank is a piece of hard wood an inch or an inch and a half thick, smoothly oiled to any size. The steak or fish is laid on this and placed in the oven to broil. It may be turned or not, as the cook pleases. When it is done mashed potato is built all around the edge and the whole is returned to the oven to brown. Then it is buttered if it is steak, or garnished with lemon and parsley if it is fish, the plank is placed on platter and the food is served. The more the plank is used the better the flavor. A steak plank should never be used for fish, nor a fish plank for steak.

HARVEY NEWS.

Harvey Station, Sept. 13.—Harvesting is more than half completed in this vicinity and the prospects for favorable returns are good. Potatoes and root crops are not likely to be up to a very high average.

The home of Mr. Thomas Moffatt, Harvey, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday last when his daughter, Lizzie Jane, was united in marriage to Stanley Winslow Harris, of McAdam. Melvin Grieve acted as groomsmen and the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Moffatt. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. J. Macpherson, D. D., in the presence of a large number of relatives and guests, at 3 p. m. A large number sat down to a splendid repast all of good things to whet the appetite. Many guests came from Ruskomag, Tower Hill, St. Stephen and Boston. Wedding gifts were numerous and valuable, testifying to the high esteem in which the bride and groom were held.
