NO RECORD OF MEN WHO SOLD HIM HORSES

New Yorker Who Bought
Horses for War Purposes
on the Stand at Inquiry at Kentville, N. S.

Kentville, N. S., Aug. 24.—Todd C. Woodworth, New York, a remount buyer for the Militia Department last August, and whose deals the Davidson war supplies commission has been investigating, took the witness stand this morning, and was examined by John Thompson, K. C. When asked if he was the official who was instructed to buy horses for the government, Mr. Woodworth said Mr. Thompson could determine that by referring to the recommendation of him by Lt. Col. Neal of the remount department. Sir Charles Davidson, the commissioner, remarked: "You will give evidence, and not give instructions." Woodworth said he was the man who had been referred to at the sessions of the commission.

Sir Charles Davidson spoke sharply to the witness several times for not answering questions, and once for answering a question not asked him.

Woodworth burst out after one reprimand from Sir Charles: "I am afraid I have been discredited in your eyes, since you did not place credence even in my telegram about my inability to get here before. You were biased, sir, towards a man not in your jurisdiction and whom you have never seen."

You will please be silent, sir, and give your evidence," answered Sir Charles, turning to Mr. Thompson, and motioning him to proceed.

There was considerable excitement in the court, which was filled with friends of Woodworth, who was a native of Kings county, during his exchanges with the commissioner.

After his outburst, Woodworth settled down and was questioned by counsel as to questions drawn, payable to his order, for horses. Thirteen checks were so drawn to the value of $21,784, and were payment for 125 horses, bought in Halifax, New Glasgow and Truro. The average cost per horse was $168. He did not give the names of all the vendors, but had kept data relative to horses bought on tags. He had also kept his averages and the totals of checks for horses, so that he did not exceed the amount of the check drawn in a small book, but he tore that up after the sales. The average cost to which he was allowed to go by Col. Neal was $170 to $172. His final average was $168. After he had worked out his buying deals from the tags he gave them to A. Dewitt Foster, M. P., about two months ago, at New York. He could see that this was a very important matter now to the commission, but it was a small matter with him, as the buying had happened a year ago, and he had been very busy since.

The examination of Mr. Woodworth occupied almost all of the morning and afternoon sessions. This witness told how he purchased horses at Halifax, Truro and New Glasgow, told how he kept his accounts, and told that he had no record where he could tell the names of the vendors of the one hundred and twenty-nine horses bought by him. Some of the tags which were issued on the purchase of each horse were taken away by Woodworth when he left Nova Scotia and were afterwards handed by him to Foster. Some of the tags were Woodworth's and some were Foster's.

After the purchases had been made, Mr. Woodworth destroyed some data relating to these purchases. He was not, he said, in this business permanently, and his stewardship ended when he accounted to A. Dewitt Foster, the government paymaster, for those purchases.

The commissioner told Mr. Woodworth at the completion of his testimony that in fairness to the witness he ought to tell him that evidence of interest to him relating to the Halifax, Truro and New Glasgow purchases would be taken. So far as Mr. Woodworth's own evidence was concerned, he was discharged. Mr. Woodworth said that he would be ready to again attend the commission's sittings should he be notified of the advisability of his attendance.

The commissioner in referring to the absence of Mr. Keever, another remount buyer, residing in the United States, said that the evidence of discrepancy in his accounts was quite serious.

The average price paid by Mr. Woodworth was $168 per horse of those for which checks were issued in block, and $168.70 per horse of those paid for individual checks.

On Friday last word was received here by Mr. Charles Covey of the death at Knowlesville, N. B., of his sister, Mrs. Miller, Deceased was well known here and much sympathy is expressed by all for those bereft.

Town Planning.

A map of the town planning area prepared by City Engineer Wm. Murdoch was on Monday hung on the wall in the office of the Common Clerk at City Hall. The boundaries of the area include the parish of Lancaster as far as Taylor's Island, thence to Acamac, thence to Green Head, thence to Boar's Head, thence up the Kennebecasis to a point above Drury's Cove and then around the Glen Falls property to Anthony's Cove, and thence around the shore to the city. The area does not include the area which is already built upon, but only the tract where probable development will be made.
