

Sackville

Sackville, Sept. 12.—Miss Lillian Hart, who has been spending two weeks in Sackville, the guest of her parents, Rev. Thomas H. and Mrs. Hart, left Wednesday for Wolfville, N. S., where she will resume her duties as superintendent of Westwood Hospital.

Miss Margaret Black of Greenham, Sask., arrived in town on Saturday, and is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. J. Indoe. She will attend Mount Allison Ladies' College during the winter.

Mr. A. D. Borden of Wolfville, N. S., spent a few days in town this week, with his sister, Miss Gertrude Borden.

Mr. Laurie Black, who has been spending his holidays in town with his parents, Col. and Mrs. F. B. Black, left this week for Kingston, Ont., where he is attending Military College there.

Miss Beale McLeod and her mother, Mrs. McLeod, who have been spending their summer in Point de Bute, returned to town on Monday. Miss McLeod will resume her duties as teacher at Mount Allison.

Miss Maud Robson, R. N., of Falmouth, Mass., arrived in town Saturday and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robson. She was accompanied by her friend, Miss D. Dufany, R. N., who will be the guest of Miss Robson for a few weeks.

Miss Alice Hart, who has been spending a week in Central Lodge, P. E. Island, as the guest of Miss L. L. Hurman, returned to her home here today.

Mount Allison Ladies' College reopened Monday with an unusually large enrollment. Several changes have been made on the staff and additional teachers have been added on account of increased attendance.

Mrs. Groulx is an accomplished and highly educated lady. In a new addition to the Literary staff, Prof. Robert Chadwick, a distinguished graduate of Syracuse University, will have charge of the organ department. Miss Burdell, the former head of that branch, resigned the position last term.

The Household Science Department will be in the hands of two new teachers. Miss Hunter of Kingston, Ontario, and Miss Ethel Roach of Windsor, both graduates of American Colleges, Miss Gladys Borden, who did so much to popularize that work, takes a position in Edmonton.

Miss Briggs, who held the position of Physical Director for two years, will be succeeded by Miss Lillian S. Raymond, of St. John, pupil of Boston School of Physical Education.

Miss Stephen's place will be taken by Miss Mildred Gurney of Brockton, Mass. Miss Gurney is said to possess a very superior soprano voice. Her testimonials indicate that she will be an invaluable acquisition to the vocal department of the institution.

Dr. Sangster, Miss H. Sangster and Miss Marion Fowler, returned recently from a trip to Halifax, Truro and Windsor.

Mrs. Amelia Seaman of River Herbert, N. S., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. B. Trower.

Miss Vivian Snowdon, who has been in a Boston Hospital, training for a nurse, is spending her holidays in town, guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Snowdon.

Miss Hilda Wry, who has been spending the holidays in town, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wry, returned on Monday to Acadia Seminary, Wolfville, N. S.

Lieut. Col. Anderson was in Sackville Monday and met a number of friends, while here. He was on his way to his old home in Port Elgin.

Miss Beattie Wright of Dorchester, N. B., spent the week-end in town, guest of Miss Helen Wry.

The Misses St. John and Lillian Snowdon arrived home last week from Boston, where they have been spending a few weeks.

Mrs. Araminta Cook, formerly Miss Araminta Beach of Point de Bute, but now residing in West Philadelphia, has been visiting in Sackville, and will, after an absence of forty-two years, she has returned to her home, much pleased with her visit.

Mr. M. G. Fox, who was principal of the Sackville High School for several years, is in charge of the Dorchester High School for the ensuing year. Mr. Charles O'Leary formerly principal of the Salem school, Sackville, is in charge of the school here.

Miss Kathleen (Pat) Robinson of Winnipeg, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Percy Fairweather, and returns with Mr. and Mrs. Fairweather and family a few days ago from Gordon Island, where they spent the summer.

In honor of Miss Annette Holly's birthday a few of her girl friends with her guests at luncheon on Tuesday. Yellow snapdragons, pretty arranged decorated the table and covers were laid for eight being Misses Annette Holly, Alice and Margaret Tiley, Catherine Lambord, Helen Allison, Kathleen Blanchet, Florence Puddington and Ruth Robinson.

Mrs. W. H. Barnaby, Mrs. T. E. Ryder and Mrs. J. H. Allingham of St. John, were on Tuesday luncheon guests of Mrs. John K. Schofield, Rothery Park.

Miss Mildred Wilson of Fair Vale, is spending this week in St. John, with Miss Faith Henderson.

Miss Helen Wilson of St. John, is here visiting Misses Annie and Mary Armstrong.

Every 10c Packet of WILSON'S FLY PADS

WILL KILL MORE FLIES THAN $8 WORTH OF ANY STICKY FLY CATCHER

Clean to handle. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and General Stores

ville, is in charge of grades five and six. The schools in Sackville opened last week with the following teachers in charge: High School, principal, Mr. H. Y. Collette; grade eight, Miss Muriel Sealey; grade seven, Miss Beatrice Miller; grades five and six, Miss Brotherton; grade four, Miss Philomena; grade three, Miss Jennie Miller; grade two, Miss Jennie Miller; grade one, Miss Gladys Brooks; manual training teacher, Miss Kirkpatrick; Sales school, Miss Irene Miller and Miss Marjorie Carter; Upper school, Miss McKel and Miss Morton; York street school, Miss Edna James.

Miss Muriel Harper of Middle Sackville, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fawcett, Tidnish Bridge, has returned home.

Miss Edna Smith of Halifax, N. S., and Miss Freda Freeman of Amherst, were in town Tuesday, the guests of Mrs. Carey Robinson at the Ford Hotel.

Prof. Edgar Allen, Ph.D. M. A., of Edgewood, R. I., has been appointed professor of Biology at Mount Allison University. Prof. Allen is a graduate and post-graduate of Brown University, having taken the degree of Ph.D. in 1915 and the degree of M. A. in 1916. He subsequently took a post-graduate course of two years completing the requirements for Ph.D., except the thesis in June, 1917, when he was elected to the United States Army. He served as lieutenant in the Sanitary Corps in the Central Medical Laboratory in France.

Another addition to the Mount Allison staff has been made by the appointment of James King, M. A., Ph.D., as professor of religious education. Dr. King is splendidly equipped for his position and should prove a valuable member of the Mount Allison University Faculty. In his college course his major work was philosophy; in the university it was religious education and philosophy. In his post-graduate work it was religious psychology and philosophy. In addition to teaching at Mount Allison Dr. King will devote some of his time to Young People's and Sabbath School work in the Maritime Provinces.

Miss C. Hickey of Fall River, Mass., is visiting in town, the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. Hamilton.

Mrs. Walter Wells and daughter, Jean, who have been visiting relatives at Point de Bute the past two months, left recently for their home in New York. Mr. Wells who arrived a few days ago accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred L. Clarke of Pawtucket, R. I., and Miss Florence A. White of Central Falls, R. I., were visitors in town on Thursday. They were enroute to Prince Edward Island where they proposed staying for a few days before returning to their home.

Miss M. Adams of Ottawa, who has been spending a week in Middle Sackville, guest of Mrs. J. W. S. Black, has returned to that city.

Mr. P. J. Burns left Saturday for Fredericton, where he will spend his vacation at his former home. Mrs. Burns and children have been in Fredericton for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cowan of St. John, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Akerley and Mrs. Akerley of Southampton, who were in an auto tour through Annapolis, Carleton and York counties were in Woodstock on Friday afternoon on their way to Southampton.

The friends of Miss Jean Tiley gave her a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Elva Vanwart, Broadview, on Saturday evening. Miss Tiley will be one of the principals in an interesting event in the near future.

Miss Dorothy Omsstead, one of Mrs. Akerley's pupils, from Perth, spent a few days in town, the guest of Mrs. Akerley.

Among the automobile parties passing through town on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Poore was Miss Nellie Gardiner, who for several years lived here with her aunt, Miss McLeod.

Miss Marion B. Dibble of Boston, Mass., is making a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Alfred C. Dibble of Gratton. Miss Dibble has recently been appointed educational director of the San Francisco City Hospital (820 Broadway). Training School, and will assume her new duties October 1st.

A bronze table in memory of Capt. Robert Bailey Campbell will be unveiled in the Presbyterian Church, Richmond, on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock service. Rev. Frank Baird of Woodstock and Rev. M. H. Manuel of Fredericton, are expected to take part in the service.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cowan of St. John, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Akerley and Mrs. Akerley of Southampton, who were in an auto tour through Annapolis, Carleton and York counties were in Woodstock on Friday afternoon on their way to Southampton.

The friends of Miss Jean Tiley gave her a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Elva Vanwart, Broadview, on Saturday evening. Miss Tiley will be one of the principals in an interesting event in the near future.

Miss Dorothy Omsstead, one of Mrs. Akerley's pupils, from Perth, spent a few days in town, the guest of Mrs. Akerley.

Among the automobile parties passing through town on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Poore was Miss Nellie Gardiner, who for several years lived here with her aunt, Miss McLeod.

Miss Marion B. Dibble of Boston, Mass., is making a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Alfred C. Dibble of Gratton. Miss Dibble has recently been appointed educational director of the San Francisco City Hospital (820 Broadway). Training School, and will assume her new duties October 1st.

A bronze table in memory of Capt. Robert Bailey Campbell will be unveiled in the Presbyterian Church, Richmond, on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock service. Rev. Frank Baird of Woodstock and Rev. M. H. Manuel of Fredericton, are expected to take part in the service.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cowan of St. John, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Akerley and Mrs. Akerley of Southampton, who were in an auto tour through Annapolis, Carleton and York counties were in Woodstock on Friday afternoon on their way to Southampton.

The friends of Miss Jean Tiley gave her a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Elva Vanwart, Broadview, on Saturday evening. Miss Tiley will be one of the principals in an interesting event in the near future.

Miss Dorothy Omsstead, one of Mrs. Akerley's pupils, from Perth, spent a few days in town, the guest of Mrs. Akerley.

Among the automobile parties passing through town on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Poore was Miss Nellie Gardiner, who for several years lived here with her aunt, Miss McLeod.

Miss Marion B. Dibble of Boston, Mass., is making a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Alfred C. Dibble of Gratton. Miss Dibble has recently been appointed educational director of the San Francisco City Hospital (820 Broadway). Training School, and will assume her new duties October 1st.

A bronze table in memory of Capt. Robert Bailey Campbell will be unveiled in the Presbyterian Church, Richmond, on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock service. Rev. Frank Baird of Woodstock and Rev. M. H. Manuel of Fredericton, are expected to take part in the service.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cowan of St. John, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Akerley and Mrs. Akerley of Southampton, who were in an auto tour through Annapolis, Carleton and York counties were in Woodstock on Friday afternoon on their way to Southampton.

The friends of Miss Jean Tiley gave her a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Elva Vanwart, Broadview, on Saturday evening. Miss Tiley will be one of the principals in an interesting event in the near future.

Miss Dorothy Omsstead, one of Mrs. Akerley's pupils, from Perth, spent a few days in town, the guest of Mrs. Akerley.

Among the automobile parties passing through town on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Poore was Miss Nellie Gardiner, who for several years lived here with her aunt, Miss McLeod.

Woodstock

Woodstock, Sept. 12.—Hon. W. P. Jones spent a few days in St. John this week.

Rev. F. H. Rieby is spending a week in Campbellville with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. White of Shediac, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. White.

Mrs. William Neale of St. John, who has been visiting Mrs. Thomas Neale, returned home last week.

Mr. Arthur Moss of Montreal, who has been the guest of Mr. Raymond V. Jones, returned home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Coll, Miss Katherine Coll of Uniontown, Pa., are guests of Hon. W. P. Jones and Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. H. G. Noble and Miss Florence Noble, who were the guests of Mrs. A. W. Phillips, Bristol, have returned home.

Misses Violet and Marion Marston, who have been visiting Mrs. D. A. Munro and Mrs. George B. MacDonald at Sussex, have returned home.

The friends of Miss Jean Tiley gave her a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Elva Vanwart, Broadview, on Saturday evening. Miss Tiley will be one of the principals in an interesting event in the near future.

Miss Dorothy Omsstead, one of Mrs. Akerley's pupils, from Perth, spent a few days in town, the guest of Mrs. Akerley.

Among the automobile parties passing through town on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Poore was Miss Nellie Gardiner, who for several years lived here with her aunt, Miss McLeod.

Miss Marion B. Dibble of Boston, Mass., is making a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Alfred C. Dibble of Gratton. Miss Dibble has recently been appointed educational director of the San Francisco City Hospital (820 Broadway). Training School, and will assume her new duties October 1st.

A bronze table in memory of Capt. Robert Bailey Campbell will be unveiled in the Presbyterian Church, Richmond, on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock service. Rev. Frank Baird of Woodstock and Rev. M. H. Manuel of Fredericton, are expected to take part in the service.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cowan of St. John, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Akerley and Mrs. Akerley of Southampton, who were in an auto tour through Annapolis, Carleton and York counties were in Woodstock on Friday afternoon on their way to Southampton.

The friends of Miss Jean Tiley gave her a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Elva Vanwart, Broadview, on Saturday evening. Miss Tiley will be one of the principals in an interesting event in the near future.

Miss Dorothy Omsstead, one of Mrs. Akerley's pupils, from Perth, spent a few days in town, the guest of Mrs. Akerley.

Among the automobile parties passing through town on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Poore was Miss Nellie Gardiner, who for several years lived here with her aunt, Miss McLeod.

Miss Marion B. Dibble of Boston, Mass., is making a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Alfred C. Dibble of Gratton. Miss Dibble has recently been appointed educational director of the San Francisco City Hospital (820 Broadway). Training School, and will assume her new duties October 1st.

A bronze table in memory of Capt. Robert Bailey Campbell will be unveiled in the Presbyterian Church, Richmond, on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock service. Rev. Frank Baird of Woodstock and Rev. M. H. Manuel of Fredericton, are expected to take part in the service.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cowan of St. John, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Akerley and Mrs. Akerley of Southampton, who were in an auto tour through Annapolis, Carleton and York counties were in Woodstock on Friday afternoon on their way to Southampton.

The friends of Miss Jean Tiley gave her a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Elva Vanwart, Broadview, on Saturday evening. Miss Tiley will be one of the principals in an interesting event in the near future.

Miss Dorothy Omsstead, one of Mrs. Akerley's pupils, from Perth, spent a few days in town, the guest of Mrs. Akerley.

Among the automobile parties passing through town on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Poore was Miss Nellie Gardiner, who for several years lived here with her aunt, Miss McLeod.

Miss Marion B. Dibble of Boston, Mass., is making a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Alfred C. Dibble of Gratton. Miss Dibble has recently been appointed educational director of the San Francisco City Hospital (820 Broadway). Training School, and will assume her new duties October 1st.

A bronze table in memory of Capt. Robert Bailey Campbell will be unveiled in the Presbyterian Church, Richmond, on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock service. Rev. Frank Baird of Woodstock and Rev. M. H. Manuel of Fredericton, are expected to take part in the service.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cowan of St. John, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Akerley and Mrs. Akerley of Southampton, who were in an auto tour through Annapolis, Carleton and York counties were in Woodstock on Friday afternoon on their way to Southampton.

The friends of Miss Jean Tiley gave her a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Elva Vanwart, Broadview, on Saturday evening. Miss Tiley will be one of the principals in an interesting event in the near future.

Miss Dorothy Omsstead, one of Mrs. Akerley's pupils, from Perth, spent a few days in town, the guest of Mrs. Akerley.

Among the automobile parties passing through town on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Poore was Miss Nellie Gardiner, who for several years lived here with her aunt, Miss McLeod.

Opening of Beautiful Autumn Fashions Tuesday, 16, and Following Days

You are cordially invited to come and see these new models—whether or not you desire to purchase, it will be a pleasure for us to show them

THE SUIT REVEALS NEW STYLE TENDENCIES and according to Paris advice is to enjoy unusual popularity. Many are the smart versions in which it appears.

SEPARATE COATS Variety vies with fashion in enlisting the attention of women who insist upon the more advanced cost ideas of the skilled designers of reliable manufacturers. Here they are in models, fabrics and sizes aplenty.

DRESSES OF BEAUTY A splendid lot of Dresses, each presenting some new and fascinating whim of fashion. In models, materials, methods of trimming and pricing they leave nothing to be desired.

GOWNS For formal and semi-formal wear they are in this Fall opening exhibition many of the most beautiful gowns seen in seasons. An individuality in dress is assured as there are practically no duplicates in the entire group.

EXQUISITE BLOUSES Each is a creation to arouse desire in the heart of the lover of loveliness. We have never had so much variety or so much beauty at a season's beginning to offer you.

BECOMING SKIRTS From among the many in our first Autumn display of skirts it will be an easy matter to select one to your liking. Assortments are complete in every particular and prices are moderate.

WOMEN'S "APPAREL SHOP" DANIEL London House Head of King St.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Flewelling of Hampton, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Grace and Miss Kathleen, left for St. John on Saturday and were guests of Mrs. Melick.

Miss Beattie Holder is spending the month of September with Mrs. Le Lachour.

Miss Dorothy Jones was a guest on Monday and Tuesday, of Miss Helen Dunlop.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Moore spent a few days this week in Fredericton and Gagetown.

Miss Sarah Robbins was the guest of Miss Beattie Irvine on Thursday.

Mrs. George Reid of Vancouver, was the guest of Miss Alice Hawkins on Thursday.

Messrs. Ray Pendleton and Malcolm Somerville left this week on a canoeing trip on the St. John river.

Miss Ida Belyea left on Friday for Winnipeg and Calgary, where she will spend her vacation.

Miss Edna Belyea was the week-end guest of Miss Leola Dixon.

Mr. Catalow of Montreal, was the guest of Mrs. Belyea, "Liberty Lodge," on Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alben Mackenney were the guests of Mrs. Mackenney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Belyea.

Messrs. William and Eric Springer left Friday to resume their studies at Rothery College.

Mrs. Peter McIntyre, Mrs. Alex. McIntyre and Mrs. Stewart of Woburn, Mass., were the guests of Mrs. J. Stinson.

About twenty members of the Real Society of St. John, West, called at the home of the Rev. W. R. Robinson, Grand Bay, at being the eighteenth anniversary of their wedding, and presented to them a silver bread tray in honor of the event. A bountiful supper was served by the attending ladies and the presentations were made by the president, Mrs. C. E. Belyea.

After spending a very pleasant evening the visitors returned to the city on the suburban train.

Miss Nina Williamson is the guest of Miss Mowry for the week-end.

Grand Bay, Sept. 12.—Miss Elva Arthur of St. John, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. M. Ham for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wells and Mr. Smith of St. John, Mrs. H. P. Russell and daughter, Olive, Mrs. Wyman, Miss Maud Wyman and Mr. Frank Wyman of Boston, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Dunlop one day last week.

Miss Marion Flagler was the guest of Miss Mildred Barnes over the week-end.

Miss Geraldine Melick is spending this week in Hampton, the guest of her cousin, Miss Maud Melick.

Mr. Paul Daley is guest of Pamden friends this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McInnis leave today for Boston, where they will be guests of relatives for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Allaby of Fairville, were over Sunday guests of Mrs. Allaby's sister, Mrs. J. E. Stevens, Ingleside.

Miss Hetherington of Cady's, is a guest of Miss Marion Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Schofield and Mr. and Mrs. George Smith have moved in to St. John for the winter months.

Mr. Robson has moved into his new home recently purchased from Mr. W. J. Church.

Redvena Massie returned to Montreal on Thursday after a pleasant summer spent at Ononnetta.

Mr. E. L. Phlips of Halifax was a recent guest of his brother, Charles Phlips, Ononnetta.

Mrs. J. Willard Smith entertained the Ladies' Club on Sunday to a motor sail on the river and supper on the veranda.

Miss Lucy Barker was a recent guest of Mrs. Robert Smart.

Mr. Percy Rinkins was the weekend guest of his brother, Mr. Harold Rinkins.

Willie Sambols met with rather a serious accident on Tuesday night. He was riding on his bicycle and ran in front of a car owned by A. J. Killam. He was knocked down and the front wheel of the car passed over his leg.

Mr. Killam took him home and Dr. McAuley of St. John, was obliged to take several stitches in a cut in the head. On Wednesday morning it was found necessary to take him to the hospital in St. John and the latest report is that he was resting comfortably. No blame is attached to Mr. Killam, as his car was running at a moderate rate of speed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cox and family have returned from their summer home at Shediac, N. B.

Miss Marjorie Winn home and Dr. McAuley of St. John, was obliged to take several stitches in a cut in the head. On Wednesday morning it was found necessary to take him to the hospital in St. John and the latest report is that he was resting comfortably. No blame is attached to Mr. Killam, as his car was running at a moderate rate of speed.

Lieut.-Col. W. R. Brown of the 26th Battalion, Mrs. Brown and two daughters, Misses Brown, were guests of Major and Mrs. R. H. Arnold at "The Knoll."

Misses Alta Slipp, Julia Keith and Margaret Geldart left this week to attend Mount Allison, Sackville, the week-end with relatives here.

Rev. G. Leonard McCain of Bonning, N. J., and Robert McCain of Reading, Pa., were in Sussex this week attending the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Weldon Fenwick Fairville, Ingleside.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dryden and daughter, Evelyn, Montreal, spent the week-end with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dryden and daughter, Evelyn, Montreal, spent the week-end with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dryden and daughter, Evelyn, Montreal, spent the week-end with relatives here.

Sussex

Sussex, Sept. 12.—Professor G. N. Churchill and Mrs. Churchill, Yarmouth, N. S., have been guests of Mrs. N. D. Black this week.

Senator Fowler, Ottawa, is a guest at the Depot House.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cox and family have returned from their summer home at Shediac, N. B.

Miss Marjorie Winn home and Dr. McAuley of St. John, was obliged to take several stitches in a cut in the head. On Wednesday morning it was found necessary to take him to the hospital in St. John and the latest report is that he was resting comfortably. No blame is attached to Mr. Killam, as his car was running at a moderate rate of speed.

Lieut.-Col. W. R. Brown of the 26th Battalion, Mrs. Brown and two daughters, Misses Brown, were guests of Major and Mrs. R. H. Arnold at "The Knoll."

Misses Alta Slipp, Julia Keith and Margaret Geldart left this week to attend Mount Allison, Sackville, the week-end with relatives here.

Rev. G. Leonard McCain of Bonning, N. J., and Robert McCain of Reading, Pa., were in Sussex this week attending the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Weldon Fenwick Fairville, Ingleside.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dryden and daughter, Evelyn, Montreal, spent the week-end with relatives here.

RELIEF AT LAST

I want to help you if you are suffering from bleeding, itching, burning or itching Piles. I can tell you how, in your own home and without anyone's assistance, you can apply the best of all treatments.

PILES TREATED AT HOME

I promise to send you a FREE trial of the new absorption treatment, and references from your own locality if you will but write and ask. I assure you of immediate relief. Send no money, we'll tell others of this offer.

MRS. M. SUMMERS, Box 937 Windsor, Ont.