Carries Campaign to Australia
London, Jan. 7.—The Right Rev. Patrick Joseph Cullen, Bishop of Perth, Australia, who has been making a tour of the continent for a number of years, today left for Australia by way of Paris. The bishop recently stated that he was anxious to have Bishop Cullen remain here to continue the negotiations, which broke down, as far as the bishop was concerned on January 1.

Who Invented "President"
London, Jan. 7.—Samuel de la Motte, "President of the Irish Republic" is reported to have been invited to come to London to confer with the premier, David Lloyd George, says the Westminster Gazette today.

Father Michael O'Hanrahan, vice-president of the Irish Republic, is expected to arrive here today, and his coming is said to be in connection with the new peace discussions. Viscount French, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, returned to London last night after a visit to the Irish Republic, and today conferred at length with Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland.

President reports are in circulation that a meeting of the Irish Republic in London is imminent. All the foregoing reports are being largely featured by the afternoon newspapers, which speculate on the possibility of an early peace settlement.

Took His Pants So Prisoner In Court Clad In Overcoat

For Last Two Weeks 'Brooks' Being Examined for Evidence in Christmas Crime.

Moncton, Jan. 7.—Having to go without trousers for two weeks and to appear in court in a similar condition was the unhappy fate of Albert Brooks, who appeared before Judge Lacombe this morning in the court, charged with appropriating ten thousand dollars worth of negotiable securities from the American Funding Company on Christmas Day, as a present of that portion of his wearing apparel being needed for evidence.

Were Overcoat Only
It is stated that these trousers have on them certain marks which are of the utmost importance in the case, so for this reason the prisoner was removed from the court immediately after his arrest and has been minus the "pants" ever since. For modesty's sake the court provided the unfortunate man with an overcoat.

The case was postponed from a visit to Halifax, N. B. Messrs. H. H. Armstrong, C. D. Manney, F. J. Desmond and Charles Sargent were the trustees of a fund for the purchase of a new overcoat for Brooks.
