THE BORDER TOWNS.

St. Stephen, June 3.—The handsome residence of Dr. and Mrs. William McKay Deinstadt was the scene of brilliant festivity this afternoon when their eldest daughter, Miss Edith Muriel, was united in marriage to Mr. Cecil Killam, a prominent lawyer, in the presence of a large number of guests. Rev. Thomas J. Deinstadt, of Fairville, uncle of the bride, was the officiating clergyman, assisted by Rev. George M. Young, of the Methodist church. Promptly at 3.30 o'clock the soft strains of the wedding march sounded through the house, when the groom, accompanied by his groomsman, Mr. Laurence Killam, entered the drawing room and stood in the bay window awaiting the coming of his bride. In a few minutes the little ribbon bearers, Misses Marion White and Ruth Young, appeared to mark off the way for the bridal party. First came the maid of honor, Miss Grace Deinstadt, sister of the bride, looking most attractive in a dainty gown of white satin striped marquisette over white taffeta, carrying a bouquet of La France roses. Then came the lovely young bride leaning on the arm of her father. She was attired in a beautiful bridal costume of princess lace, over white chiffon and taffeta silk. She wore a veil of tulle, fastened to her train with sprays of lily of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses, and looked most charming and graceful. During the ceremony the bridal party stood under a marriage bell of white roses and carnations. The drawing rooms and hall were beautiful with roses, palms, ferns and rare foliage artistically arranged. The flowers in the dining room were all pink and white roses with garlands of smilax which was used in profusion. After the ceremony a reception was held, lasting two hours. At 5.30 o'clock the bride changed her bridal dress for a handsome travelling costume of navy blue broadcloth with hat to match, and amid thousands of good wishes, showers of rice and gayety the happy young pair drove to the C. P. R. station and left in the train for St. John, en route to Yarmouth (N. S.), where they will visit relatives of the groom. They will also visit Montreal, Ottawa and other Canadian cities, and will return to St. Stephen for a brief stay of a day before leaving for Vancouver, thier future home. The wedding gifts are extremely handsome and are sterling sliver, cut glass, pictures and rare bric-a-brac and a check from her father for a substantial sum. The groom's gift to his bride was an elegant ring, set with diamonds and pearls. To the maid of honor he presented a signet ring, to the groomsman a pearl scarf pin and to the ribbon bearers, each pearl pins. The out of town guests were Mrs. Frank Killam, Mrs. Fletcher Pickles, Yarmouth, N. S., Mrs. G. Osborne Hannah, Misses Ethel and Gertrude Hannah, St. John, Miss Janette Deinstadt, Fairville, and Miss Morrison, St. Andrews.

A very pretty wedding took place this morning in the Presbyterian church at the early hour of 7 o'clock, when Miss Sara Irvine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Irvine, was united in marriage to Mr. Livingstone Strange, by Rev. Leonard Gibson, pastor of the church. The bride looked very pretty and attractive in a stylish costume of navy blue broadcloth, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of roses. After the ceremony the happy young pair drove to the Washington County depot and left in the train for Eastport en route to Lubec, their future home. The wedding gifts were very handsome, including several checks from the bride's relatives and a case of silver from the mother of the groom.

The handkerchief shower given by Mrs. George Wilson and Miss Ethel Teed for Miss Edith Deinstadt at the home of Miss Almon I. Teed, last Thursday afternoon, was one of the most delightful social events given here for some time. The shower with the many happy incidents was a complete surprise to Miss Deinstadt, making it more enjoyable to the guest of honor as well as to those who planned it. The hostesses were assisted in entertaining their guests by Mrs. J. Edwin Ganong, who poured tea, and the Misses Mabel Algar and Constance O'Donnell, who most gracefully served ices and other dainties in the dining room.

Mrs. Augustus Cameron gave a delightful tea at her pretty home on Saturday afternoon from four until six o'clock for the pleasure of Miss Edith Muriel Deinstadt and Miss Sarah McVey, the brides-elect. The day being bright and warm the toilettes of the ladies were very handsome and stylish, many of them worn for the first time. Mrs. Cameron looked extremely well in a dainty gown of white batiste profusely trimmed with lace. Miss Deinstadt wore a lovely gown of pale blue rajah silk and Miss McVey looked most attractive in a dress of black silk with white trimmings. Mrs. Cameron was assisted in entertaining her guests by Mrs. N. Marks Mills, Mrs. Frank V. Lee and Misses Margaret Black and Grace Deinstadt.

The United Baptists of the North Shore will hold their annual meeting at Doaktown, June 23 and 24.

SALISBURY

Salisbury, June 5.—One of the wildest storms ever witnessed here at this season of the year prevailed for about an hour yesterday afternoon. It embraced the stormy elements of snow, hail, rain, thunder and lightning, accompanied by a strong northwest gale. The ground was covered to the depth of probably an inch with hail and snow. The storm appeared to be purely local as railway men working two miles west of this village reported that while they witnessed the storm it did not reach them and they worked all the afternoon with their coats off.

BLISSVILLE

Blissville, Sunbury Co., June 4.—the unexpected has happened and J. A. Gregory's lumber drive from the South Branch Lake will be in safe waters today. It was thought that the drive would be hung up, but the recent rains have had the effect of raising the stream.

The Oromocto Lumber Company have started their mill at Central Blissville, and will probably manufacture about 3,000,000 feet this summer.

Farmers in this vicinity are feeling much encouraged by the prospects for a bumper crop. The fine weather during the first weeks of May enabled the farmers to get their cropping well under way and the frequent rains of the last two weeks will have the effect of bringing the growth on early. A great many potatoes are now above the ground and the root crop promises to be above the average. A bumper hay crop is also promised, as there was no winter kill and the grass is now waving in the fields.

As last year was the off year for the apple crop, 1908 would naturally be a productive year and the weather conditions have helped along the prospects for a heavy fruit yield.

Rev. Dr. Campbell has organized a branch of the Canadian Bible Society here. The following officers were elected: J. S. Hayward, president; W. D. Smith, secretary and A. R. Hoyt, treasurer.
