Ayer's Hair Vigor, For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color. which is at healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous.

Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the forma-tion of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and inju-rious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume. Prepared by Dr. J. C. A BACHELOR'S CONSOLATION. A Romance of the Needle.

In a snug little cot, not a thousand miles off, Lived a lonely, contented old "bach," Who cooked his own grub and dined by himse. And had no one to sew on a patch. With his cat, and his dog, and his little pet Our hero, 'twas said, wanted nothing: But needles were sharp, and would fr

So he oft went with holes in his clothing. There no doubt were misses and maids quit who, would fly to relieve his distresses.

But he oft had declared he could never abide
The appearance of hoopskirts and dresses.

Now, this lucky old backelor heard by a friend, Or read in his morning journal. Of the wonderful stitching of sewing machines, And considered the matter nocturnal.

For some thought the "Wheeler & Wilson" the best,
And others the "Wilcox & Gibbs,"
While others affirmed that the agents of both
Were too much inclined to tell fibs.

And a few for the "Florence" were ready to fight While mest liked the "New Family Singer;' Another one swore the "Osborne" was best, The last one, I think, was a shaker.

Then down to the agent of "Florence" he wen and told him the part that was slack, So the "Florence" a certain advantage happined By the feed that could make it sew back. But our Bachelor friend was dissatisfied still. For the "Florence" so complicate seemed. He feared the minutie might "get out of fix," And could never be wholly redeemed.

Then they told him another advantage they had
Over other machines in the West,
That four different stitches with it they could make,
And from four he might sure get the best.

our hero replied, "What's the use of the our I If one of the stitches is best, Why that is the right one to use all the time, I And what will you do with the rest?" The "Howe" and the "Wilson" both vainly he tried,

But the "Howe" was too heavy, the "Wilson too light, And the "Osborne" broke down on a fell. he "Finkle & Lyon" or "Victor" he tried, The "Ætna," "Blees," "Leavitt" and "Weed," ill worried and vexed with his fruitless research, He scarce hoped in the end to succeed.

Mr. A. Lawson: Dear Sir,—It affords me great pleasure to state that your Liniment was the means of curing a severe attack of rheumausin, two or three applications having removed the soreness completely. I am therefore enabled to speak highly of its merits. Yours truly, LEVIH, YOUNG. Having proved the efficacy of your medicine while suffering from Bronchitis, in April last, I am only too glad to append my sincere appreciation of your Liniment as a family medicine.

I have not since been troubled with Rheumatism, and I consider your medicine superior to anything extant for cases of this kind.

N. B.—I had previously used three or four different kinds of Liniment, neither of which gave any relief.
