

INDEX TO CONTENTS—Continued.

	Page.
Are deceived by flatterers.....	21—22
Resources of the Province.....	23—24
Needs of its inhabitants.....	24
Effects of Haliburton's strictures.....	25
Nova Scotia indebted to Haliburton.....	25—26
His sketches of its social customs, climate, scenery and industries.....	26—31
Society in Halifax.....	31
Haliburton's comments upon Ireland.....	31—32
His love for his mother-country.....	33—34
Advocates a federation of the empire.....	34—37
His views on Canadian independence.....	37—38
Favors Confederation and an interoceanic railroad.....	38
Britain and her colonies should part peaceably, if at all.....	39
Hopes for a fraternal alliance between Britain and the United States.....	39—40
Comments on the institutions and people of the United States.....	40—43
Prophesies an American civil war.....	44
LITERARY TRAITS OF HALIBURTON :—.....	44—72
His aphorisms.....	44
His yarns.....	45—48
Affectation of ignorance.....	48
Punning propensity.....	48—49
Malapropisms.....	49
Plagiarisms from Haliburton.....	49—52
His satiric powers.....	52
They bring upon him a vote of censure.....	53
His partiality for dialogue.....	54
Occasionally inconsistent, discursive and careless.....	54—55
Unsuccessful in the House of Commons.....	55
His descriptive power.....	56
His delineations of character.....	56—70
Mr. Hopewell.....	58—59
Sam Slick, the Clockmaker.....	59—70
Slick's views often identical with Haliburton's.....	69
Concluding remarks.....	70—72
Chronological outline of Haliburton's life.....	73