

Q. C. by the Ear of Derby, 1893. While Presdt. of McGill Univ. Literary Soc., he read some able papers before that body. He obtained a 1st class cert. from the V. Bd., and commanded a co. in the 5th Royal Scots, 1881-84. Politically, he is a Lib. In religious faith, a Presb. His bro., Geo. H. Cross, was elected a State senator for Wyoming, U.S., 1894.—151 Côte des Neiges Rd., Montreal: St. James's Club.

CROSSBY, Peter Alfred, business manager, is the s. of Wm. Ewbank Crossby, of Sunderland, Eng., by his wife, Marguerite Fraser, of Montreal. B. in Montreal, Feb. 23, 1842, he was ed. at Beauharnois, and soon after leaving sch., entered a printing office. He became asst. ed. of the Montreal Transcript, and later, of the Montreal Daily News. In 1873 he edited Lovell's "Gazetteer of Brit. North America" (new ed., 1895); and in May, 1879, he was apptd. Mangr. of the Dom. Type Founding Co. Mr. C. served in the V. M. during the Fenian troubles, 1866-67. He holds high rank in the Masonic order, being a P. D. D. G. M. He is also Grand Representative in the Grand Lodge of Quebec, of the Grand Lodge of the Indian territory. He is V. P. of the Internal Typograph. Union, and Sec. Treas. of the Lorne Fish and Game Club. He belonged formerly to the R. C. Ch., but in 1856 joined the Ch. of Eng. In politics he is a Con., and a firm upholder of British connection. He m. 1st, June, 1883, Miss Ellen W. Carruthers (she d. Jan., 1888); 2ndly, June, 1894, Emma, eld. dau. of Wm. Harvey.—40 Hutchison St., Montreal.

CROSSLEY, Rev. Hugh Thomas (Meth.), is of Eng. and Irish origin, and was b. in the Co. York, Ont., Nov. 19, 1850. Ed. at the local schs., he afterwards attended the Toronto Normal Sch., from which he obtained a 1st class cert. After teaching sch. for a time, he entered Victoria Univ., Cobourg, to prepare for the ministry, and was ordained, 1880. He spent 10 yrs. in pastoral work, then volunteering for duty as an Evangelist. Becoming associated in this work with the Rev. J. E. Hunter, they have, together, held revival services in many portions of the Dom. and in some portions of the U. S. Mr. C., in addition to being a good speaker, possesses excellent gifts as a singer, and, in this way, lends peculiar attraction to the revival efforts of Crossley and Hunter. He is the author, among other works, of "Practical Talks on Important Themes" (Tor., 1895). Unm.—St. Thomas, Ont.

CROTHERS, Rev. William John (Meth.) is the s. of Thos. C. Crothers, and was b. at Philipsburg, P. Q. Ed. at the local sch. and at McGill Univ. (B.A., with honours in Logic, Mental and Moral Phil., 1872; M.A., 1875), he entered the ministry, 1872, and was received into full connexion and ordained, 1876. From that time up to June, 1892, he was a mem. of the Montreal Conf., filling several important appts. with success. In the last-named year he accepted a call to Port Hope, where he remained until 1897, when he was apptd. to Napanee. He was a mem. of the Meth. Genl. Conf., in 1890 and 1894, and has held various offices in the gift of the Ch. He is also a gov. of the Wesl. Theol. Coll., Montreal, from which he received the degree of D.D., 1896—Napanee, Ont.

CROZIER, John Beattie, M.D., author, is the s. of the late John Crozier, by his wife Agnes Beattie, both natives of Liddesdale, Roxburghshire, Scot. B. in Galt, Ont., Apl. 23, 1849, he received his ed. at the Galt (Tassie's) Coll. Inst., and subsequently followed for a time the Arts course in the Univ. of Toronto, where he had taken a scholarship. After graduating in Med. at the same institution, 1872, he went to Eng., was admitted to the Royal Coll. of Phys., and commenced practice in London. Dr. C. early manifested a strong bent towards philosophical literature. His first work was called "God or Force." This