To these Bills the Royal Assent was pronounced by the Clerk of the Senate in the words following:—

“In Her Majesty’s name, His Excellency the Governor General doth assent to these Bills.”

Then the Honourable the Speaker of the House of Commons addressed His Excellency the Governor General as follows:—

“MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY :

“The Commons of Canada have voted the supplies required to enable the Government to defray the expenses of the Public Service.

“In the name of the Commons, I present to Your Excellency the following Bill:—

‘An Act for granting to Her Majesty certain sums of money required for defraying certain expenses of the Public Service, for the financial year ending the 30th June, 1893, and for other purposes relating to the Public Service;’
 to which Bill I humbly request Your Excellency’s assent.”

To this Bill the Clerk of this House, by His Excellency’s command, did thereupon say:—

“In Her Majesty’s name, His Excellency the Governor General thanks Her Loyal Subjects, accepts their benevolence, and assents to this Bill.”

His Excellency the Governor General was then pleased to deliver the following speech:—

Honourable Gentlemen of the Senate, Gentlemen of the House of Commons :

In relieving you from further attendance in Parliament I congratulate you on the useful legislation which has resulted from your deliberations during this long and arduous Session.

The adoption of the Code of Criminal Law will confer a great benefit on all the classes who are concerned in the administration of that branch of jurisprudence and is an achievement which will reflect credit on the Parliament of Canada.

The difficult task of readjusting the representation of the people in the House of Commons, in accordance with the Census Returns, has been accomplished with comparatively little disturbance of existing electoral divisions and in a manner that I hope will prove to be satisfactory in its operation.

The legislation relating to the North-West Territories, Dominion Lands, Railways, Patents, and to the Inspection of Provisions, and to the various other measures which have been completed, are calculated to benefit the industrial and commercial interests of the country, and to promote its general welfare.

You have been doubtless gratified by the announcement that the Government of Newfoundland is likely to hold a friendly conference with my Government upon the
