

appropriated, allow the expenses and disbursements which any of their Members appointed to visit any or all of the subordinate Agricultural Societies in their respective Districts, once a year, for the purpose of aiding or assisting in the formation or arrangement of such Societies, or taking information to or from the same, may incur in the performance of that service; but that no compensation or allowance of any kind shall be made from or out of the said Monies to any Member or Officer of any such District Society, for any other expenses incurred and disbursed, or for any other services performed under any pretext whatever, than those above-mentioned, by any Member or Officer of any such District Society or Subordinate Society as aforesaid.

Allowance for certain expenses of the said Societies &c.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said several District Agricultural Societies may, from and out of the Monies hereby appropriated, expend for the purposes following, that is to say, for the expenses of the management, publication, correspondence and accounting of the Society, a sum not exceeding or equal in amount to the sum raised by the said Society by voluntary contribution for and towards those purposes.

The Members of the Legislature and Clergy to be honorary Members of the said Societies &c.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Members of the Legislature and the resident Clergy shall be Honorary Members of the District Agricultural Society, for the District within which they respectively reside, but shall in the said Societies have a deliberative voice only, and they shall in like manner be Honorary Members of the Subordinate or County Societies of the County wherein they may respectively reside, and shall as such be notified in writing of the time and place of the meeting of such Societies: Provided always that nothing herein contained, shall be construed to prevent any such Member of the Legislature or resident Clergyman from becoming an Honorary Member if he shall so think proper.
