Ottawa 13th October, 1905.

Sir,

With reference to the account which you forwarded in favour of Constable Rayner, I beg to say that it was, in accordance with the usual custom, submitted to the Department of Justice for taxation. The Department of Justice in returning the account has asked whether the constable was occupied in attending the Justices on the trial for more than four hours. If he was engaged for less than that time the fact should be stated. Kindly report. When your reply is received the matter of payment will receive attention.

Your obedient servant.

Secretary.
