

The profits arising from the sale of the whole will be given towards the promotion of preaching, total abstinence meetings, and Sabbath schools, in a most destitute part, where drunkenness prevails to a great extent, and where the protestant population, at present, have not an opportunity of hearing the Gospel more than once in three months.