THE VERDICT OF THE RIGHTFUL JUDGES—THE PEOPLE.

That the remarkable resolution—forced through the Legislature in 1903 by a meagre majority of four by a Government which was not only in a minority of 9,000 votes in the Province, but had completely lost the confidence of the people of Ontario, almost irrespective of party, censuring Mr. R. R. Gamay and complimenting two members of the Canadian judiciary who consented to sacrifice the honor of their position by descending to assist in a political intrigue—was on Wednesday rescinded and expunged from the journals of the House, will meet with commendation and endorsement from a people who have already passed emphatically on the matter. That Mr. McCoig has definitely ranged himself with the Strattonites, the Sullivanites and the methods he condemned as "corrupt and rotten" will be noted with interest by the people of West Kent. They have good memories.

The serious phase to which attention is again turned, however, was the conduct of the judges who allowed themselves to be used for political purposes. Mr. Harcourt put himself in a ridiculous position when he pleaded for the protection of the judiciary after having, in spite of the protest of the representatives of a large majority of the Province, dragged them into the mire. What, he declares, if Sir John Boyd should resign as a result of the motion? There is little danger, but there is no doubt that any such action by the Chancellor would not be greatly bewailed by the people. Canadians desire to maintain the dignity and integrity of the bench, but they can only do so when the ennoblements of judicial positions co-operate themselves. A huge majority of the people of this Province have rejected the finding of these men who came down off the bench and submitted a "judgment" that has been pointed out to have been at variance with the facts revealed in evidence, calculated to assist a tottering administration which had furnished themselves and their families with several comfortably remunerative berths.

Judges are public servants; they are paid by the people's money—and they must be required to maintain that honorable position which the Canadian people and the British people demand of their judiciary.

The verdict of these judges, now formally wiped from the records, matters little. It was emphatically reversed by the great tribunal of the people in January last. But it is gratifying to have Premier Whitney's assurance that no more shall members of the judiciary be permitted to drag down the good name of the Canadian bench and traffic politically on its prestige.

A HUSTLER

Fred W. Tobey of Battleford N. W. T. Shows What Enterprise Can do in the North West

Two years ago when Edwin Moore and Fred W. Tobey, two of Chatham's bright young men, left for the Northwest to establish homesteads they drove 100 miles from Saskatoon to Battleford, where they established homesteads 100 miles from any railway. People at that time thought they were foolish for going so far away from railway connection. At that time there were only 30 homesteads in Battleford. The next year, in 1904, Wilton Ball, son of Wm. Ball, of this city, went up to Battleford and during that year 140 people took up homesteads in that district. This year 550 families have settled down in Battleford and the place is growing every day with every prospect that it will be a second Edmonton. In spite of the fact that it is so far away from the railroad it stands second in all of the Northwest as the best growing place.

The following from a despatch from Winnipeg will be of interest in this connection:

"C. N. R. track-layers are now within four days of Battleford, 572 miles west of here, and the train service will be inaugurated this week, which means much for that district. Passenger service opens June 4th. The immediate result is a great reduction in freight rates on the C. N. R. to Saskatoon from Montreal and Toronto, as a means of competition."

Battleford has a great future before it and is favored with excellent climate and location. There will no doubt be a rapid advance in the price of land this summer.

The reason that Battleford has grown so rapidly is undoubtedly due to the hustler and enterprise of Fred W. Tobey, who was one of the early settlers. Through his letters to English, Scottish and Canadian papers he has succeeded admirably in getting people interested in his district until now, when the railroad goes through, Battleford will be one of the most important places in the Northwest.

ASPHALT BLOCKS

Since the recent visit of the Stratford delegation to Chatham to examine the different pavements, the City Council has realized just how far it was behind the Maple Leaf City in the matter of good streets, and a second deputation was appointed last week to visit May, Cleveland and Canton, Ohio, on the same mission. This week's Stratford "Herald" contains a report of the delegation, and it corroborates the report of Messrs. Flook, Campbell and Martin in giving preference to the asphalt block as in their opinion the most suitable pavement for city purposes.

THE STAGE

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

At the Grand—
Macbeth—May 16.

Mr. A. R. Saunders, representative of that eminent tragedian, Mr. John Griffith, is in town and has just completed arrangements for appearance here of Mr. Griffith and his company in a stupendous revival of Shakespeare's immortal play, "Macbeth," for next Tuesday evening at the Grand Opera House.

The theatre-goers of Chatham will remember with pleasure the wonderful performance of Mr. Griffith in Faust here a few years ago.

Mr. Griffith is a Canadian born citizen, his home being Hamilton, Canada, and this is our first opportunity of seeing him in five years. Mr. Griffith has toured the principal cities of the States in this production and has been proclaimed the legitimate successor of the late Edwin Booth and Edwin Forrest in this famous role of Macbeth.

Mr. Griffith carries all his own scenic and electrical effects for the proper presentation of the play, besides having a cast of actors who are favorably known as the leaders in their class.

Seldom has Chatham the opportunity of seeing so notable a production and a capacity house should greet Mr. Griffith—our native son—on his evening's engagement here.

LOUISE RIPLEY AS LADY MACBETH.

In the engagement of John Griffith in "Macbeth," which is announced here for Tuesday, May 16th, the public will have an opportunity to see an actress play Lady Macbeth who will give to the character its fullest force and meaning, and who will more than compare favorably with the greatest exponent of this grandest of all dramatic roles. Old within the past fifty years great successes were achieved as Lady Macbeth by Madame Ponzi, Ristori, Januschke, Charlotte Cushman and Mojeska—but these ladies were all a trifle past the prime of life, while Miss Ripley has all the advantages of youth and beauty, coupled to a dramatic instinct and delivery that leave no doubt as to her ultimate triumph and position in the dramatic world. Louise Ripley is the coming tragedienne and ere long will be one of the real leaders in her line of commendable effort. In addition to Miss Ripley, Mr. Griffith's company contains others of remarkable ability, and in its entirety the organization cannot be equalled by any of the companies of recent years who have attempted the immortal tragedies of William Shakespeare.

Seats go on sale to-day.

Learn Dr. Smalke in Two Weeks

Wanted! Ladies, to learn dress and mantle cutting in two weeks. Why spend from 6 to 9 months learning dressmaking in a shop, and then not know anything about cutting, when I can teach you everything from measuring to finish in the making of ladies' and children's garments in two weeks! I have taught over 500 girls in this way, and offer $25 to any one who, after having taken a course with me, can show me an article in dressmaking they can't cut, fit and put together, not only the lining, but all the outer goods in coats, skirts, waists, wraps, sleeves, in fact everything in dressmaking, and you may rest assured it is reliable, for you don't pay unless you are perfectly satisfied you know all. Charge for full course is now only $10, including one of the most perfect fitting systems in use, which I give free.

I will teach in Chatham from May 16th to May 29th. Hours from 8.30 to 6.

All wishing to learn, or for full particulars, be sure to see me in the upstairs parlor of the Garner Hotel on SATURDAY, MAY 14th, between 10 and 5 o'clock or MONDAY, MAY 15th, between 9 and 12 a.m.
