ARCHDIOCESE OF KINGSTON.

The Catholic portion of Smith's Falls were very busy on Sunday entertaining their Archbishop. Certainly the reception tendered the beloved prelate was a splendid testimony to the special place he holds in the hearts of his people. From the time of his arrival on Friday evening, when he was received with every demonstration of ioyalty and devotion, to the time of his leaving on Monday noon, there were continual evidences of rejoicing.

The Archbishop was met at the station by Father Kelly and the neighboring priests and after entering his carriage, the Chizan's Band led the torchlight procession through Beckwith and Main streets to the church. An immense crowd lined the route, and the procession was an inspiring spectacle. The church looked list best with its new electric lights and numberless tapers blazing on the altars, which were most tastefully adorned with an abundance of flowers, and plants. The choir assisted by a splendid orchestra, sang the church's chaut of welcome "Vicat Pastor bonus" etc., as the Archbishop, vested pontifically, with the attending clergy and preceded by the altar boys entered the church which was filed to its utmost capacity. The service was brief as the hour was late, and the Archbishop contended himself with a few words of thanks, and imparted the Episcopal blesing.

On Saturday morning at 10, o'clock His Grace examined the candidates for Confirmation, and expressed himself satisfied with the manner the children recited the Catholic forms of prayer, etc. In the evening the band came in on the church grounds and discoursed sweet music for an hour, to the great pleasure of the Archbishop and clergy and many of the people who formed an appreciative audience. The grounds were very beautifully decorated by Mr. James Lewis with torches, flags and miles faulthe "is hundred thousand welcomes."

On Suday morning the Archbishop celebrated an early Mass for communicants and

On Sunday morning the Archbishop celebrated an early Mass for communicants and presided at the High Mass. The choir was very effective, and received the highest praise from the Archbishop, who took occasion to give the members a special blessing during the course of his visit. When the Mass was over, the Archbishop confirmed about sixty persons, some of whom were adults. His Grace spoke very kindly to the children afterwards and gave them some excellent lessons to guide them through life.

The members of the church committee who were present then eame forward within the sanctuary and Mr. Halpin read the following congregational address:—

May it please Your Grace—On behalf of the congregation of St. Francis de Sales Church, we beg to tender Your Grace a most cordial welcome to Smith's Fails.

It is a very great pleasure to greet Your Grace on this most important occasion, when you come to enrich the hearts of our little ones with the treasures of the holy Sacrament of Confirmation; and to give us, the older parishoners, such counsel and paternal encouragement as will strengthen the bonds of union and charity amongst us.

Grace's first official visit to Smith's Falls, when you came amongst us to confer the sacred order of priesthood on Father Mea and Father Doyle. Since that auspicious visit in December, 1898, we have experienced some of the changes, incidental to the shifting scenes of human life. A new pastor has been given to us in succession to Father Stanton, whom Your Grace promoted to the pastoral charge of your own people of Brockville. We are happy to inform Your Grace that, under Father Kelly, our new pastor, everything is progressing in a spirit of harmony and good will, and with the lold time success.

our new passon, even and good will, and with the old time success.

We have made substantial improvements to our church without exceeding the limits of the loan which the parish effected in the summer of 1890 with the Standard Life Co npany. The difference that it makes to us is simply that we now defray the interest on the loan, which we need to be not suffered by the parishes to which we in turn had lent this money. At the same time, we have the benefit of the expenditure. We have new pows inline church. We have commodious Sacristy, suitably adapted for the Sanday Catechism classes and other necessary purposes; and will be used as a winter chapel when it shall have been blessed by Your Grace for public worship. We entertain the hope that Your Grace will be able to dedicate it during the course of this present visit. We have ulso a satisfactory heating system by steam, which makes the whole edifice confortable in the winter season.

also a satisfactory heating system by steam, which makes the whole edifice comfortable in the winter season. In this community good will and harmony subsist among all classes and all creeds. We are satisfied that this happy condition of things will prove agreeable to Your Grace, whose public official career is instinct with a characteristic spirit of peace and christian Charity. Praying that the Giver of all good gifts may youchsafe to bestow abundantly upon Your Grace every grace and help to enable you to fulfil prosperously your high and holy office, and earnestly beseching Your Grace's Episcopal blessing upon us and upon our children, we have the honor to subscribe ourselves Your Grace's devoted people of Smith's Falls. Signed on behalf of the congregation of St. Francis de Sales.

His Grace responded happily and thanked his people of Smith's Falls most heartily for their truly loyal and affectionate address. He adverted to the labors of the new priesthen and subsended them success in their future labors.

He congratuated the people on the substantial improvements they had made in the church, and wished them success in their future labors.

From the above reports all may see the good work done by these noble institutions. The CATHOLIC RECORD has only to say, what it has always maintained, that such institutions are a credit to the communities where they flourish and are sustained. When Our Lord came upon earth, He preferred to be born, as other men are born, of a human mother. He did so to put honor on all those earthly relations and connections which are our by nature; and to teach us that, though He has begun a new creation, He does not wish us to cast off the old creation, as far as it is not sinful. Hence it is our duty to love and honor our parents, to be affectionate to our brothers, sisters, friends, husbands, wives, not only not less, but even more, than it was man's duy before Our Lord came on earth.—Cardinal Newman.

CONFIRMATION IN LA SALETTE PARISH Pentecost Sunday was a gala day in the parish of La Salette, Norfolk Co. It was the occasion of the first visit of his Lordship the Right Rev. F. P. McEvay Bishop of London to Hight Rev. F. M. McEvay Bishop of Diddon to administer the sacrament of Confirmation.

His Loreship was met at the Grand Trunk station by the Rev. P. Corcoran, Pastor of the parish, and the Rev. G. R. Northgraves, editor of the Carlonal Revond, and conducted to the new parochial residence, which was completed least summer.

On Sunday morning early Mass was celebrated by Rev. G. R. Northgraves. Mass was next celebrated at 8 o'cleek by the Bishop, and at this Mass the candidates for Confirmation received Holy Communion.

At 19 o'clock the members of the C. M. B. A. marched in procession with the candidates for Confirmation from the Separate school house to the church and formed a guard of honor for his Lordship and the clergy, from the presbytery to the church.

At the door of the church His Lordship was met by Rev. P. Corcoran, pastor, and was presented with the holy water sprinkler, and in cesed; and all proceeded to the altar, where the usual prayers were recited in accordance with the rite for the reception of the Bishop on the occasion of his official visit to a parish Alter Mass the Rev. P. Corcoran addressed the Bishop as follows on behalf of himself and the congregation:

My Lord—On this occasion of your first visit to the parish of La Salette, I deem it a great pleasure in my own behalf and in behalf of the congregation, to extend to you a hearty welcome. We welcome you as a successor of the Apostles and first pastor and shepherd of the dioces deed first pastor and shepherd of the dioces on whom the solicitude of all the churches on whom the solicitude of all the churches on whom the solicitude of all the churches of Supreme Head of the Church, Loo XII. for appointing to the charge of the dioces a prelate of so high attainments and varied experience as Your Lordship. We know that in your visits to the other parishes throughout the diocese, you have everywhere observed the great progress of religion, and we have here, also, evidences of progress which are eminently satisfactory, even if you have found them somewhat greater in some other localities. We have in this parish ahandsome church and a commodious presbytery, which, owing to the generosity of the parishioners, are almost free from debt. For in response to my appeal, the people paid off a large standing debt which overhung the parish when I became their pastor. We have also a substantial and comfortable Catholic Separate school, in which the education of most of our children is provided for. It has done excellent work in the past and is capable of equally good results in the future.

We cannot indeed boast that our church is possossed of all the rich and beautiful accessaries to Divine Worship which are to be found where the people are more numerous and more wealthy; but it is provided with new the provided for the people are more numerous and more wealthy; but it is provided with the possosse of all the rich and beautiful religion; and the clergy we have a not reported by the provided with we have a not and the clergy we have a not reported whence the people and respectful to religion and

We hope religion will flourish under your wise administration and we know you will have the loyal and faithful co operation of clergy and people in all your undertakings for the advancement of religion; and we trust that the children whom you will confirm to day, will grow up faithful and ex emplary Catholics.

I desire also to inform you that we have in this parish a branch of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association. With my approbation and encouragement, it was organized in 1891 by the Rev. W. Flannery, D. D., then District Deputy, It is in a flourishing condition, the membership having increased slowly and surely, till it now has forty members on its roll. All the membership having increased slowly and surely, till it now has forty members on its roll. All the members are practical Catholics, proud of their religion, respectful, and obedient to the laws of God and His Church and to the clergy, and ready to co-operate in every good work which will tend to the giory of God and the progress of religion. They are especially designed brother and member of the same society, the first pastor and shepherd of the blocess of London.

In conclusion, we respectfully ask Your Lordship's blessing.

His Lordship in reply thanked the pastor and compregation for the sentiments of loyalty to religion which had been expressed, and he was glad to find such a handsome Church and Presbytery here, all in good condition, and a substantial and comfortable school house for the education of their children: in fact a well-equipped parish in every respect.

In connection with the school he said there are certain laws of which he might remind them. Catholics living within the three miles limit of a separate school should send them a condition that they would be almost a shamed to use them as sheep pens.

He was pleased to learn hat they had a good Catholic, and the trustees should here are some people who give all their care should to use them as sheep. pens.

He exhorted the children to be obedient to their parents, pastor and teacher, to avoid cursing and swearing, and another mean vice, lying, which would make them like the devil who is the futher of lies.

Before administering Confirmation he examined the children carefully in Christian Dorine, and expressed himself well pleased with their proficiency. His Lordship then proceeded to administer the sacrament, Mr. Joseph Gibbons being sponsor for the boys and Mrs. Fick, of Delhi for the girls.

After the confirmation His Lordship administered the pledge to those confirmed of both sexes, till they should be twenty-one years of age, and addressed to them some practical advice.

THE SODALITY'S THIRTIETH ANNIVERSARY. Tuesday, May 29th, was indeed a memorable and happy day for the members of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary in connection with St. Peter's Cathedral, London. On that day thirty years before, in the old church of that period, was established, under the patronage of Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception, and St. Aloysius, the patron of youth, this Society which with God's blessing has steadily prospered, working faithfully in order to accomplish the objects for which it was founded and in endeavoring to improve the spiritual and mental condition of its members. The anniversary was taken advantage of as a day of general reunion of the present and former members. High Mass was celebrated at 7 o'clock by Rev. J. T. Aylward, Rector of the Cathedral and Director of the Society, at which the present and former members received Holy Communion in a body. At 7,30 p.m. all again assembled, when the Holy Rosary and the Litany of the Blessed Virgin were recited, after which His Lordship Bishop McKvay addressed the members in an earnest and practical discourse, dwelling chiefly upon the advantages which were theirs in being in a special manner under the loving protection of the Blessed Wirgin and impressing upon the members the necessity of adherring strictly to the rules of the Sodality and of bravely and faithfully performing, in imitation of Our Lady, the ordinary, every day acts of their daily lives. Continuing, he instanced the many ways and means at the disposal of the Sodality to promote the honor instanced the many ways and means at the disposal of the Sodality to promote the honor in the disposal of the Sodality to promote the honor in the disposal of the Sodality to promote the honor in the disposal of the Sodality to promote the honor.

In conclusion His Lordship asked those present to remember in their prayers all the Sodalists who had died during the past thirty years, after which he imparted a special bissing to the members present. The Act of Consecration to the Slessed Virgin was recited in unison by the Sodalists, led by the Director, after which Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given by Rev. Father Egan, This being concluded Rev. Father Egan, This being concluded Rev. Father Aglward addressed a few words of congratulation to the Sodalists, after which he remarked that he wished to publicly thank them for the many good works they had performed in the past, especially in deraying the expense of erecting and procuring the beautiful altar of the Blessed Virgin which was an ornament to the church and reflected credit on the zeal and self sacrifice of the members of the Sodality. He also thanked them for their donarion the previous evening, towards the "Improvement Fund," of $59.99 in gold. In memory of their thirtieth anniversary. HOUSE OF PROVIDENCE PICNIC.

The annual House of Providence picnic given in aid of this institution, which has to care for nearly two hundred helpiess and intim people from all over the diocese, will be hold on Dominion Day, July 2nd, on the gramme that is being prepared, already contents some thoroughly up-to-date features and promises to excei the meritorious entertainment furnished last year. Father Donovan has the management of the picnic again.

The pupils of Loretto Academy gave a muscial and literary entertainment in their lecture hall last evening. They have a reputation for giving entertainments of rare merit, and the one last evening surpassed any of its predecessors, and was a treat in every particular. There was a very large attendance, and Bisho p

Dowling, Dean Harris, St. Catharines, Rev. Fairber Cummings, Brantford, and all the Roman Catholic clergy of the city were present, The following young ledy graduates were presented with medals by His Lordship: Miss Nora MacSioy, St. Catharines; Miss Florence O Neils, Rock Island, Ill., Miss Annie Mahony, Hamilton; Miss Catharine Cummings, Hamilton; Miss Catharine Cummings, Hamilton; Miss Annie Cruicksmank, Hamilton: The programme was of considerable length and included the following: Chorus, "Praise Ye the Father," grand march, "Tannoauser," planos and orchestra, Misses Florence O'Neil, Annie Kavanagh, Agnes Cherrier, K. The elocutionary work was of a pretentious character, and the instructress, Miss M. J. Hunt, is entitled to the highest praise for the excellent showing of her pupils.

Miss May Mills; Earl of Leicester. Miss May Luttrel; Paulet, Miss Lillie Walsh; Earl of Shrewsbury, Miss Annie Mahony; Lord Burleigh, Miss Annie Cruicksanak; Melville, Miss May Morin. It was prettily costumed, and the performers acquited themselves creditably. Miss MacSloy is deserving of special mention. She combines a handsome stage presence with real histrionic talent and infused a dramatic strength into her impersonation worthy of a Modjeska in embryo. At the conclusion of the last number the pupils assembled on the platform and sang "God Sava the Queen" right leyally, after which Bishop Dowling spoke a few words of commendation and announced that to day would be a holiday for them. Rev. Dean Harris also said a few kind things about the pupils and their entertainment.—Hamilton Times, May 3lst.

LORETTO'S GREETING TO HIS LORDSHIP BISHOP DOWLING.

Loretto's greeting to His Lordshir, Bishop Dowling, on Monday eventing was a brilliant event. Though the invitations were limited, the large basement of the Church of Our Lady, at Guelph, was almost filled by an audience oughly artistic character of the entertainments given under the direction of the Ladies of Loretto makes 15 always a readily accepted privilege for the music-loving people of the city to respond to the invitations. Probably not in years have the pupils of the convent given an entertainment so consistently incitioning in its every detail, and so happily reflective of the excellent training afforded by that institution.

His Lordship Bishop Dowling was escorted to the basement by Rev. G. B. Kenny. S. J., Rev. Chancelior Holden, Rev. Father Fennessy, of Berlin; and Rev. Father O'Loane, S. J., and Rev. Father Donovan, S. J., of Gueiph.

The programme opened with a chorus, "The Dance," rendered with fine spirit by the choral class. Then came an address of welcome to His Lordship—a very fine piece of composition, read with much taste and expression by Miss Bertie Doran.

"Sartorio's En Avance" was rendered as an instrumental duet on four pianos by Misses A. Becker, N. Barrow, A. Beechie, I. McQuillan, N. McKenzie, G. McAteer, F. Carroll, A. McKenzie, It was a creditable performance for such small children, the whole selection being played as if on one instrument. Miss Mildred Campell's vocal solo. "Robert toi que J'aime," was a most enjoyable number, rendered as it was with the fine musical perception which characterizes her work, whether vocal or instrumental, Miss Campbell will always be a favorite with a Gueiph audience. A Ballad of War was the title of a recitation by Miss Marie Schmuck, a young lady who has on more than occasion delighted the guests at Loretto's festivals by her fine elocutionary at tainments. On Monday evening the little lady showed that with her maturer years her ability as a reader is showing natural artistic development.

This young singer has a voice of great range and wonderful flexibility. Miss Edith, Stevenson's recitation, "Song of Miss Edith, Stevenson's recitation," Song of of great range and wonderful flexibility.

Miss Edith Stevenson's recitation, "Song of the Market Place," was splendidly given, and the chorus, "The Revel of the Lelaves," was very enjoyable. An instrumental duo, "Beilsario," played by Misses R. Patton, E. Keleher, M. Callahan, and B. McQuillan, again served to demonstrate the high order of training received by the pupils. It is a difficult number, but in every respect, in touch, technique and expression, its rendition was artistically satisfying.

Mrs. Martin-Murphy, of Hamilton, teache Mrs. Martin-Murphy, of Hamilton, teacher of vocal music at the convent, needed no intro duction to the audience. Her magnificent voice, over which she has such easy and perfect control, never sounded to better advantage than in her solo, Summer," into the spirit of which she entered with true musical fervor. The Living Age versus the Nations was a fine spectacle and a delightful performance. The Living Age boasts of her supremacy in Art, Science and Literature, proclaiming her greatness, notwithstanding all assertions to the contrary; when the different nations step forward and maintain that if the Living Age is great, she is indebted to them for the eminence she has attained. The characters were taken by the following young ladies:

THREE GOOD THINGS.

We once heard a man say that th three best things in the world were the flowers, the laughter of children and the lives of the poor. But he w a visionary-and a poor man which a greater crime! Still there was tru in his words. Flowers, sunwashe are pure : the laughter of children the echo of angel voices : the life the poor is a tragedy worked out broad, heroic lines.

A NEW CREED MAKER.

A certain reverend gentleman Manchester, England, named Da McLure, has entered the cree making competition. His form of belief is at once simple a comprehensive, and will meet, dou less, with considerable favor. He it is: "I am a downright g High, Low, Broad, Evangelical, Ca olic Churchman." This will co mend itself to the exponents of the ferent shades of Anglicanism and go far to allay discontent and disord When the irrepressible Kensit ma his appearance the Dean can dispe himself as a Low Churchman, when the adherents of Ritualism, wh has been described as a club wit spring-opening attachment, honor with a visit, he may make merry v the toggery and phraseology of High Churchmen. It is delightf simple!

BOERS AT TAMMANY.

Some English editors waxed ceedingly wrathy over the recep accorded to the Boer delegates by T many Hall. Mr. Croker and the tlemen who guide the destinies of celebrated organization were held to the scorn of a righteous public way that would do credit to screamiest republican sheet. We wonder why! Accepting opinion that an Englishman's science is in his stomach, we can as the lapse from his imperturbable st ity to a fit of indigestion. They d surely imagine they have the mor of the entertainment of interes strangers, and again the Boers coul rely upon being dined and wine London. Why be unduly jealou Tammany? They who have Garibaldi and Mazzini and taken to their liberty-living arms sl not characterize the giving of official refreshments to three Boo an infamous crime.
