On Sunday afternoon, February 26th, Bishop Greer visited Holy Rood Church, New York, and confirmed a class of nineteen, presented by the rector, the Rev. Dr. Stuart Crockett. One-half of the class were brought up in the church and the others came from the Protestant denominations, and one from the Roman Church. This parish is about to build a very large, handsome church.

His Grace the Archbishop of York recently made some frank criticisms of the Church of England in a speech which he made at Sheffield. Churchmen, he said, must not rely upon establishment and endowment as an excuse for being less self-sacrificing than Nonconformists. The Church had suffered from its respectability in the past. It must take off its frock coat and go into the world in its shirt sleeves. The distinction of class in the Church must be got rid of. He complained that Churchmen did not take enough lead in industrial and social affairs. He would like to see Churchmen lead in trade unions and all political parties and in municipal matters.
