

- Twain, Mark—continued
 sent to the Sandwich Islands, 46-47 lands in New York, 49
 works for the Alta, 50
 life on a paddle steamer, 51
 a celebrity, 52
 publication of The Innocents Abroad, 53 and the publication of the Quaker City letters, 54 leaves the West for ever, 55 buys a share in the Buffalo Express, 56 meets the girl he marries, 57 courts Olivia, 58
 and his 'parents-in-law,' 59
 'settles down,' 60
 royalties on The Innocents Abroad, 61
 and The Innocents Abroad, 63
 his unfinished projects, 63
 his wife's censorship, 64
 the success of his marriage, 66 and the setting of his work, 67
 his hand 'fettered,' 68
 and words altered by his wife, 70
 deaths in his family, 71
 and Howells, 72
 entertained in England, 73
 and billiards, 75
 journey to Scotland, 76
- Twain, Mark—continued
 success in London, 77
 and Tom Sawyer, 80
 a household word in America, 81
 'a citizen of the world,' 82
 and Huckleberry Finn, 83 and the German language, 84
 'big deals,' 85
 in Canada, 86
 and the past, 88
 and American literature, 91
 interest in publishing, 92
 and lecturing, 93
 and after-dinner speeches, 94
 and Charles Dickens, 95
 'a great speech of,' 96-97
 a tragic occasion, 98
 'and the elders,' 99
 and General Grant, 100-101
 publishes General Grant's Memoirs, 103 and the reception of Connecticut Yankee, 106
 a family trip to Germany, 110 and the Kaiser, 111
 and Edward VII., 111-112
 financial disaster, 113
 and his brother, 115
 and his children, 116
 his expenses, 118
 his bad investments, 119