

PILES FOR FOUR YEARS

Only those who suffer from piles can know the agony, the burning, throbbing, shooting, stabbing pains which this ailment causes and the way it wrecks the sufferer's life. Zam-Buk is blessed by thousands who used to suffer from piles, but whom it has cured. One such grateful person is Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor of Greenwood Avenue, Toronto. She says: "For four long years I suffered acutely from bleeding piles. During that time I spent an immense amount of money on 'remedies' and doctor's prescriptions but I got no ease. Zam-Buk was different to everything else I had tried and it cured me. I am grateful for the cure, as I have never had piles since, and I know the cure is permanent."

Another thankful woman is Mrs. A. E. Gardner, of Catelina, Trinity Bay. She says: "In my case Zam-Buk effected a wonderful cure. For 12 years I had been troubled with blind, bleeding and protruding piles. I had been using various kinds of ointments, etc., but never came across anything to do me good until I tried Zam-Buk which cured me! That this may be the means of helping some sufferers from piles to try Zam-Buk is the wish of one who has found great relief."

Zam-Buk is a purely herbal balm and should be in every home! Cures cuts, burns, ulcers, eczema, ulcers, hemorrhoids, itching, cold sores, chapped hands and all diseases and injuries of the skin, etc. All drug stores and stores at 50c box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

FIGHTING FIRE IN CHINA STRANGERS HELP TO QUENCH THE FLAMES.

Travellers Come Upon a Burning Bridge and Find Strange Sights.

Following the main road we found it only thirty miles north-west, to the Fu city of Yuencheo, but several passes had to be climbed, the days were hot, and in spite of the 1,000 or more feet of altitude we were nearly roasted, entirely tired out and looking for a couple of days of rest with fellow foreigners.

Little did we dream of getting the most unusual fire experience that we did, says a correspondent of the Shanghai Mercury. It was a Saturday morning and the first day of the Chinese fifth month or "moon," when everybody must have out a lighted candle and incense for some one, no one knows who if you ask them. It is "ancient custom" and that settles it. We had just crossed the long fourteen span bridge which connects the city with its busy western suburb, called Kiangsi Street, and had noticed blazing candles, one or more in front of each of the 108 shops or booths lining the bridge on both sides.

The bridge and booths seemed to be all of wood, and it was remarked that this looked somewhat dangerous. However, a nice inn was found at the end of the bridge which had a back veranda facing the river and giving a good view of the bridge. As usual with sights seemingly worth it, we took a hands of the six or seven foreigners here. These were all of the German branch of the C. I. M., and we were just enjoying breakfast and telling and receiving all the news when the fire trumpets were sounded.

Soldiers were parading the streets and warning the people that a fire was on, and that they should be watchful. This is doubly necessary here, as so much wood is used in construction, being the cheapest material at hand, and fires get fearful headway and burn out very rapidly. The missionaries, having a pump and hose for self-protection, sometimes go to big fires, where they can be of help.

In this case breakfast was forgotten by every one, the pump and hose got ready, and by this time some one said it was the bridge that was on fire. This being near the personal effects of the writer, and of special interest now, a hurried visit was made, in the wake of the "Gospel Hall Fire Department," and sure enough, there was the great crowded bridge a mass of flames in the centre, where the candles had been thickets, in front of the idol, and there seemed no hope of saving the 100 odd shops on the bridge itself.

THE PUMP AND HOSE were soon to go to work, and did splendid work for their size, but there were three men to manage that, and the writer seemed to be of no use. Hearing that the Hsien Mandarin who should come to such fires and supervise some effective measures was absent on business in the country, and that the two other pumps native owned in the city were not coming, and also noting that there was but one small official helping to quell the fire, and that with only about twenty soldiers, the writer hurried to them, snatched two more pictures of the bridge burning, sent the goods and the coolies into the city and himself appeared on the scene in straw sandals, short clothes, and with a large wet towel wound around the head, held in place by the useful queue. A great fire brigade we all were, not an axe, saw or hardly a pail among us all!

A raid was again made on my friend the innkeeper, and down in the basement a two foot poker was found, while next door we commandeered a small pail from an old lady. The poker was not much for power and the pail was small and lonesome, but a big noise was made on the light woodwork of the four booths (two on each side) we were trying to get out, and the tiles flew as well. The pump and poker inspired the soldiers, and the fire was stopped at the east end of the bridge, to the good wetting of the flooring by the G. F. D.

Where can I get some of Holloway's Corn Cure? I was entirely cured of my corns by this remedy and I wish some more of it for my friends. So writes Mr. J. W. Brown, Chicago.

Merchant—"He was an excellent book-keeper. He kept our books for many years in an exemplary way. I should have kept him at it." Friend—"What did you do?" Merchant—"I made him cashier." Friend—"How did he do in his new position?" Merchant—"Excellent. He kept the cash."

The cheapest tea to use is not the lowest priced. You can buy tea a few cents a pound cheaper that will make a drink, but if you want an absolutely pure, healthful, cleanly prepared tea use "Salada." It is infinitely more delicious and decidedly more economical than other teas, because it goes farther.

Slick (to Blossom)—"Is this Mr. Bloomer's office?" Blossom—"No. His office is on the other side of the passage." Slick (leaving the door open as he walks out)—"Thank you, sir." Blossom—"Hey! Come back and close that door! Haven't you any doors in your house?" Slick—"Yes, sir; but they all have springs on 'em. Allow me to show you, sir, my patent double-back-action-door-spring. It closes the door without a bang, and will last a lifetime."

HOW MRS. CLARK FOUND RELIEF

AFTER YEARS OF SUFFERING DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED HER.

Pleasant Point Matron Tells Her Suffering Sisters How to be Free From the Terrible Pains that Make Life a Burden.

Pleasant Point, Ont., Nov. 16—(Special).—That most of the ills that the suffering women of Canada have to bear are due to disordered Kidneys, and that the natural cure for them is Dodd's Kidney Pills, is once more shown in the case of Mrs. Merrill C. Clarke, a well-known resident of this place and a prominent member of the Salvation Army. Mrs. Clarke is always ready to give her experience for the benefit of her suffering sisters.

"My sickness commenced twenty years ago with the change of life," says Mrs. Clarke. "My health was in a bad state. Water would run from my head which would make me faint. When I came out of the fainting spells I took fits. I was bloated till I was clumsy. The pain I suffered was awful. It would go to my feet and then to my head. Many doctors attended me, and I tried many medicines, but nothing gave me relief till I used Dodd's Kidney Pills. The first box stopped the fits and seven boxes cured me completely."

Every suffering woman should use Dodd's Kidney Pills. They make strong, healthy kidneys, and the woman who has good Kidneys is safeguarded against those terrible pains that make miserable the lives of so many women.

"Why, during yo' courtin' days dey am always ready to fall on yo' neck, an' aftah de wedding ceremony dey am always ready to fall on yo' pocket-book."

How to Cleanse the System.—Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are the result of scientific study of the effects of extracts of certain roots and herbs upon the digestive organs. Their use has demonstrated in many instances that they regulate the action of the liver and the kidneys, purify the blood, and carry off all morbid accumulations from the system. They are easy to take, and their action is mild and beneficial.

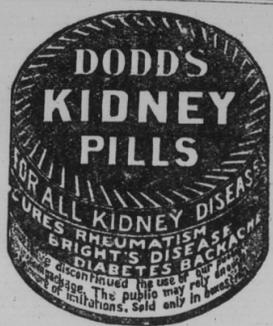

If the appetite of a man were as great in proportion to his size as a sparrow's, he would eat a whole sheep at one sitting.

"A Little Cat'd You Know" will become a great danger if it be allowed to reach down the throat to the lungs. Nip the peril in the bud with Allen's Lung Balm, a sure remedy containing no opiates.

Brushes made of such thin glass fibre that they are like spun silk are used by artists when decorating china.

A cough is often the forerunner of serious pulmonary afflictions, yet there is a simple cure within the reach of all in Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, an old-time and widely recognized remedy, which, if resorted to at the inception of a cold, will invariably give relief, and by overcoming the trouble, guard the system from any serious consequences. Price 25 cents, at all dealers.

A police-sergeant was boasting of the honesty that prevailed in his division. "Why," he said, "you might hang your gold watch on a lamp-post in the evening and find it still there in the morning." "You don't mean to say nobody would take the watch?" exclaimed the listener. "No; I mean to say nobody would take the lamp-post," said the sergeant.

A POOR MEDICO.

"I don't believe in that doctor." "Why?" "He didn't tell me everything I wanted to eat was bad for me!"

A Wide Sphere of Usefulness.—The consumption of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has grown to great proportions. Notwithstanding the fact that it has now been on the market for over thirty-one years, its prosperity is as great as ever, and the demand for it in that period has very greatly increased. It is beneficial in all countries, and wherever introduced fresh supplies are constantly asked for.

Switzerland heads the list of European countries in divorce, the rate being 40 divorces for every 1,000 marriages, France, with 21 per 1,000 coming second, and Germany third with 17 per 1,000.

Teary Down Sighs does not delay storms. Opium-aden "medicines" may check coughs, but the cold stays. Do not trifle; when you begin to cough take Allen's Lung Balm, free from opium, full of healing power.

Medical Man—"Jobson has done the meanest thing I ever heard of; he came to my house the other night, ate a big dinner, got it digested, and then went to another doctor to be cured."

Not a Nauseating Pill.—The expectant of a pill is the substance which enfolds the ingredients and makes up the pill mass. That of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills is so compounded as to preserve their moisture, and they can be carried into any latitude without impairing their strength. Many pills, in order to keep them from adhering, are rolled in powders, which prove nauseating to the taste. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are so prepared that they are agreeable to the most delicate.
