Doukhobor Lands Thrown Open and Unoccupied are Again in Great Demand

Yorkton, Dec. 27.-When the Doukhobor lands were taken up here in the terior gave those fortunate enough to secure a quarter section, six months quarter. This time expired on Monday and another rush took place for the lands then unoccupied. In order to get into the office this morning, some of the men spent a December

Several of those who entered the strenuous rush last summer and paid $10 for a quarter worth two or three thousand dollars have thus lost what they fought for. The department would show no leniency to anyone in respect to these lands and those who were not on their quarter when the time expired lost it.
