TAIN OF TH The L scribes the meeting bet the Duke and Duchess Queen, directly the ap had been signalized, wall peted platform and av the Duke and Duchess, downingta later of d missily down upon English hoton, the deficie drab colored shadings all lights which require, we are told, on skill in handling, the old-fashioned on skill in handling, the old-fashioned the vivid He n of his youth. He misses the folding of quits impossible plots, and indicate that vece wont if it is avoine his approximation, and all, two characters once deemed it every hove the hero and he The heroine is left as still, says a in the Atlantic, and her functions in the Atlantic, and then in st of all, two

For access this apprehension, and the Duckers immediately after they had alighted, two characters once deemed is every novel when his on and the Duckers of the Royal Family, while the finance welcomes was accorded by the other members of the Royal Family, while the burkers of the Royal Family, while the burkers of the Royal Family, while the burkers of the range o sheit equivocal aspects that would as her buried sitter blushing to the here was sometimes a lamentable olid virtue in this fair dead sister, human weakness that led to her ; but she never talked so glibly n. As for the hero, he owes his sent to the rictons manner in which ters handled him. Balwer strained meanes and our oredulity to the banishment to the riotons manner in which his masters handled him. Bulwer strained our endyrance and our credulity to the unioss; Disraeli took a step further, and Lothair, the last of his race, perihed amid the areal laughter of mankind. But the villain 1 Remember what we owe to him in the past. Think how dear he has be-come to every rightly constituted mind. Aud now we are told, suberly and coldly-by the thin blooded novelists of the day the him blooded novelists of the day the him blooded novelists of the day which him blooded novelists of the day the him blooded novelists of the day of the thin blooded novelists of the day the him blooded novelists of the day enough to be a start in flotion a character whom we feel does not exist in life. Man, we are reminded, is complex, suble, unfashomable; made up of good and ous element predominates coarsely over the magivings, not classified with brutal esse into the virtnour and bed. It is queless to captain to these analysts that the pleasure we take in meeting a character in a book does not always depend on our having known him in the family olicile or encoun-tered him in our morning paper, though, judged even by this stringent law, the rule and exclude from fiction, not only all the Judged even by this stringent law, the villain holds his own. Accept Balsec rule and exolude from fiction, not only a which has not really happend, but a which has not really happend, but a and we should still have studies enough i total depravity to darkee all the novels indristendom. t Balzac's at only all b, but all in truth and and Gagged and a Jowelry Store Plundared.

BARING ROBBERY.

A Danbury, Conn., despatch says: The most daring robbery ever committed in this town took place this svening while on the streets hundreds of people were suirring. Soon after 6 o'clock two men entered larmes' jewelry store on Main street and inquired for a monogram which was proceed a few days before. The only clerk in the store, at the time was Clarence Koox, indured for a hotorist. The only clerk in the store at the time was Clarence Knox. 18 years of sge. As he turned to get the monogram one of the men grabbed him from behind and obted him almost to in-sensibility; the other man forced a gag made of stone, covered with a bandkerchief, into Knox's mouth, and threw him to the floor. The robbers then bound his hands and fest tightly with ropes, and proceeded to ransack the store. Knox, lying help less on the floor, could heat them as they went through the show ond take away. They carefully picked out solid ware, leaving the pisted mnouched. They sconfed diamonds, weithes and other jewelry, valued at be-tween $9,000 and $10,000, from the safe, which was unlocked, and also $700 in THE OONGO FREE STATE.
 The solution of the solution of the tesse and ralico the doorgo State State on ongo State State on the oor the solution of the tesse and shate in oontoristy with the back, and in annually for the serific to annot the oorgo bakes, and in the oor the solution of the tesse the Solution of the tesse the solution of the tesse state on only the solution of the tesse the solution of the tesse state the solution of the tesse state solution of the tesses.
 The oon will baar interest at 3 per cent., and reparted to a com dows, climbing a fence bordering on Dayley street. A cabman was standing mear by. One of the men approached him wish the story that they were medical students, and warted to be driven to Mill Plain, a small town a few miles distant, in all haste, as they had to perform a surgical operation. On arriving at Mill Plain they paid the cabman and started away.

ser. peakled tront, brook tront, river tront, il not be caught between the 15th tember and the lat May. ass and Maskinonge enall not be caught ween 15th April and 15th June. ickerel shall not be caught between April h and May 15th.

Pickerel shall not be caugin between April 6th and May 15th. No one shall buy, sell or possess any of he above named fish which have been anghe or killed during the closed seasons or shall they have in their possession fish filich have been caught by uplawful means at any time. It is not lawful to catch or kill any of the above named fish by means of spears, grapple hooks, negogs or nishigans at any

me. No one shall fish for, catch, kill, buy,

WERE AFTER BARGAINS. of J

igh ; two doesn't it," says the intending pur channe. "Wall, I don't know," mays the other, holding the towel up at full langth and system it actitoally. I got ano quite as good for 57; oents at White. "You did ?" "You but it was don't as the waitr and

FROM. REAL LIFE.

ONLY A BLIGHTED LIPS.

Just a folded little old woman on hady side of 60, living with a little ar old girl in a single upstains room i amilton seamens, and sking out a arions subsistence by soling odds at of amiliwarce, which she corries instar Abbey.

THE SUNDAY NEWSPAPER STABLET-TENNART.

TAL OF DAZZLING

ion of the Explorer's Nuptials Prespyration Onnote: For some many the size of the congregations in the way hurches has been gradually diminish and in looking about for the cause some of gentleman desided that it way of London and Paris Getting En oited Over Its Merits. WE VERY REMARKABLE EXPERIMENT

CEBOSENE GAS EXPLO DANGER OF BYPNOTISM:

ors of L

FIRE ADDS ITS HO of last

mer and Can

Loss of Life.

self or possess the young of any first shorts mamed. Fishing by means of nets or other ap-parates is prohibited. Fines-Every offender squines the above provisions is liable for each off more to incur a fine of not more than $20, besides all costs, or in default of payment to be im-prisoned, and she fine may be collected by distress; and half of the fines goes to the procecutor, all materials, implements and appliances used and all fish had in contra-vention of Finherics Act may be seized and conflucated on view by any personbydelivery to any misgistrate.

It is just as well that the Carnival held in Toronsto lass week turned ont a farce.
 It is just as well that the Carnival held in Toronsto lass week turned ont a farce.
 It is just as well that the Carnival held in Toronsto lass week turned on a farce.
 It is just as well that the Carnival held in Toronsto lass week turned a the genome optimism of farce or the constraint of the carnival held in the performance. As matters stand we have been to sarrival businese.
 Bapposing if had sneedeed of what use faing accept the faw who were interested in the display have been to any human being accept the faw who were interested in the mould the display have been to any human being accept the faw who were interested in the display have been to any human being accept the faw who were interested in the display have been to any human being accept the faw who were interested in the display have been to any human being accept the faw who were interested in the display have been to any human being accept the faw who were interested in the display have been to any human being accept the faw who were interested in the display have been to any human being accept the faw who were interested in the display have been to any human being accept the faw who water interested in the display have been to any human being accept the faw who water interest in the display have been to any human being accept the faw who water interest in the display have been to any human being accept the faw who water interest in the display have been to any human being accept the faw who water interest in the display have been to any human being accept the faw who water interest in the display have been to any human being accept the faw who water in the faw have a display in the display have been to any human being accept the display have been to any human being accept the faw who water in the the display have been to any human display theto actin the display have been to any human display the displ

C

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

Mother in-law - Why is Jane in the Queen Victoria's First Trouble. One of the earliest troubles—parhaps the first erampled roseles I in the the queen's royal couch —was the proposed diaminsh of her bed chamber ladies on the fail of the Melbourne ministry. Bir Robert Feel and the Duke of Wellington tried to persuade the Melbourne ministry. Sir Robert Feel and the Duke of Wellington tried to persuade is some level as her lords, but the Queen would have nome of is, and wrote the famous letting to Lord Melbourne, in which abe esid : "They wanted to deprive me of maide i they wiebd to treat me likes girl, but I will show them I am Queen of England." The Elizabethan ring about these words has echoed down the years until to day, and Her Majesty has novor failed to remember, and to make others remember, that above and before all else the "Queen of England."—Lady's Pic-torial. Mother.in.law — Why is Jane in the Bon.in.law.—We had an argument this morning over a trivial affair. M.in.law.—We had an argument this morning over a trivial affair. M.in.la.—Tell me abont it. S.in.L.—I said the winters were grow. ing less cold and the summers less warm for less cold and the summers less warm to be sold and the summers less warm to be sold and the summers less warm to be sold and the summers less warm winter I would know better. Then I gave sold is summer and hang out clothes in winter I would know better. Then I gave sold at Well, I don't care !" I saked her to judge by the weather itself, and abe said. "Well, I don't care !" I saked her to judge by the burst into tears and said to was a brate, and she has been sulking ever since. Bigotry in the Bighlands. There is still a great deal of bigotry she is "Queen of England."-Lady's Pic-torial. A Missionary Murdered. A Rockford, Ind., despach easys: Letters received here from Parsis give details of the murder of Mrs. John L. Wright, an American Fresbyterian missionary, at Balmas, Westorn Persis, in April. A native school tescher, half American and half Byrian, killed her with a dagger in her own home in reverge for her disolarge from her employer. Mrs. Wright was a bistorian, and was beautiful, well educated and accomplished. Her fasher was a teacher of Ancient Syriao in American colleges. She was married to Mr. Wright four years ago. They were in this contry last year. Wright was a native of bho. The mur-deress is in contody.

Wight Wight Argent is no castody. The dude deem i say "Good day." He mays " Run along, Chawlie." -We are all content to be called sinners to long as the parson does not descond by particulars.-Terre Haute Empres. -It appears that Alhan's mother was a Scotchwaman, and the prime domme is therefore very fond of Scotland, where she is now taking a holiday. It was generally method in Montresl, the Herald says, that she was entirely French-Ganadian.

inhestand, and the Duke of Fife a diamond cross. After the coremony in the abbey had been concluded, a platform which had been erceted for the convenience of guests col-lapsed, and several persons who were ait-ting or standing upon its were bruised more or less severely. The Town of Denbigh, Wales, the birth-splace of Mr. Stanley, was gaily decorated with flags in honor of the explorer, and at the hour set for his marriage all the ohurch d bells rang out merrily. The mayor sent a congratulatory message to Mr. Stanley on heah of the otilizans.

old all states and the

behalf of the citizens.
BIOTOUS STRIKERS
Attack Workers and Seas to Contractor-Osmin shot.
A West Superior, Wis, deepstoh of the old wasse of S.1.75 a dry. Bat 2007 be naded here to day by the men scoepting the old wasse of S.1.75 a dry. Bat 2007 be strikers this morning proceeded to the work or 12th street, where do men were and a fight ensured. Contractor Station onto me man on the arm with a shovel. The strikers then charged but and the street is the strikers there the exit is water.
The best shot 13th street, where do men were and a fight ensured. Contractor Station onto me man on the arm with a shovel. The strikers then charged but and the street three blocks away, besting him with olube the distince and the street with revolvers of the dist stone of station and the distrikers then charged, but Anderson halt in drote of special police argived the strikers were the disterson's like and Anderson and in the base of the strikers was made to provide the strikers was made to the strikers then charged, but Anderson halt is ground. When Mayor Patterson and big ground. When Mayor Patterson and the street. To only the 50 well known of itsens were wated. To only the 50 well known of itsens were wated. To only the 50 well known of itsens three block a ward, how in the strikers were the charged, but Anderson halt is force of special police argived the strikers were the charged, but Anderson halt is force of special police argived the strikers were the strike to waterson's like is 15.93, us that Pasten world. The weak is some angle cake in the particy, a new tim that T made to day. "" Whilem, stid Mrs Bizby from the stoo ing 't there is some angle cake in the particy, a new tim that T made to day. "" Were call that in the street arging the statict to har husband, who the shot is also noome of it without thinking." " And " The weak is noome of it without thinking." " And " The weak is some of it without thinking." " And " The state Hard. Street the weak is a Breight and Passenger Trains Collide. A Birmingham, Ala, despatch says: A collision between a freight and passenger train on the Louisville & Nashville Rail-road occurred this morning, 40 miles south of here, in which is is reported five persons were killed and one injured fashly. None of the passengers were killed, or seriously injured. The passenger train had orders to take the siding at Clear Out station for the extra freight, but is the order was not obsyed, and a mile beyond the station the trains came togethere in ad expo ord. Both engines were smashed to pieces. "Aht" exclatimed Fangle, "T begin to smell & rat ?" "Where?" screamed his wife, jumping on a chair. "I acknowledge to corn," said the hen, "but it sticks in my orop." Make its too hot for a fanfarende, take is a con a did to keep cool. "How did you enjoy your vacation?" "Oh, I had a great time. Couldn's go to work when I got back, I was so broke. "The Oneen has withdrawn her prohibi-

A Level Grossing Tragedy. A Binghamton despatch says : A special train on the Southern Contral road, carry-ing Superintendent Titus, struck a coartage outsining five ladies as the grade around a two miles north of Orego about 6 o'oloos the sensing. Three of the women, Mrs. Cleveland, widow of ex-Bheriff Cleveland, of Tiogs county ; Mrs. James Bhay, and Mrs. A. Whitmarch, were instantly killed. They were thrown filty feet from the train by the force of the collision. Mrs. Beahan all Mrs. Van Dazer were saught on the pilot of the locomotive and carried nom the intenget that they will recover.

A Word for your Canary.

A Word for your Gamary. Don't put him in the hot sun or cold draft. Let him have a little mirror for company cocasionally, and don't let the sun or gas reflect in it to daze his eyes. Don't keep him on dry bird seed. No bird in the world would live on snoh sinf it he could help it. Give him fresh water every day; orambs of bread cocked in milk; egg. littice, chickweed. Let him fly about the room cocasionally. Treat him just as you would like to be treated if you were a mary. You may be a canary bird your-self some time.

And 1870, as estimated from the second secon 1,006,009 500,185 5 86,076 117,114 92,829 191,418 71,440 109,199 105,059 79,577 33,260 3,066 100 753 82,546 20,030 53,180 35,092 50,840 33,579

uluth, Minn.....

80,473 44,533 12,025 12,854 6,093 23,536 28,604

Yankees After a Cattle Market.

Self some time.
 References Required,
 Mr. Hightone-My dear, you must send that new girl away as once. She is not fit to have around.
 Mre. Hightone-I will, just as quick as I to have around.
 Mre. Hightone-I will, just as quick as I to have around.
 Mre. Hightone-I will, just as quick as I to have around.
 Mre. Hightone-I will, just as quick as I to have around.
 Mre. Hightone-I will, just as quick as I to have around.
 Mre. Hightone-I will, just as quick as I to have around.
 Mre. Hightone-I will, just as quick as I to have around.
 Mre. Hightone-I will, just as quick as I to have a t

Very Hard to Gredit. A Dublin despatch says: Intelligence has been received here of a horrible affair at Ballyneale. A man named John Hart, living at that place, murdered his mother and than chopped her body to pieces. When the orims was discovered Hart was found lying beside the remains sating a portion of them.

A woman can do more harm to a rival by praising than by maligning bar to warran's their restrictions. Targe Shoes Have Come. The observing pedestrian as the hour of the fashionable promenade will notice that sither women's fast have grown larger or that shey wear shees much larger than than their feet. Undoubtedly the laster supposition is correct. The long, slim foot is the stylish shape. The aranged-up, motity knockles have gone out,--Ohicago Heraid.

12