ATHENS, AUGUST 27, 1902.

THE HONEY CROP

There is to be a honey famine this year, and also the land is to be simply flowing with that delicious product of the busy bee.

PRODUCE OF THE FARM.

Canada's export of wheat, according to unrevised figures, amounted for the last fiscal year ending June 30, to 36,446,537 bushels, valued at $26,410,101.

neighbors are awakening to an appreciation of the Canadian potato which appears to find a ready market in the U.S. and Cuba.

WHAT EDITORS SAY.

"Strike for your altar and your fire," they said on that historic day.

Canada is showing wonderful enterprise in self development.—Boston Herald.

Gen. Buller is worth £2,000,000. He is a soldier of fortune.—Ottawa Citizen.

Anything that keeps young people from marrying is bad for business if not for morals.—St. Thomas Times.

Why is it that a girl who would rather dance than eat generally marries a man who can't dance at all.—Montreal Star.

The present generation of Boers have had all the fighting they want and the next will have forgotten nearly all about it.—Toronto Globe.

If this coal strike keeps on, it looks as if people will have to keep warm this winter playing ping pong.—Montreal Star.

By walking from California to Toronto a newspaper circulation agent has cured himself of consumption.

Hamilton is becoming more and more and more the chief manufacturing city of Canada, and Ottawa is becoming more and more the chief small-pox centre.—Hamilton Herald.

Canadian imports in July were nearly the same in amount as in July, 1901, but Canadian exports—our sales abroad—were two and a half million dollars greater.

Two weeks ago a painter on a scaffold in Trenton, N. J., fell asleep and he's asleep yet.

If we were asked to describe the most miserable man in the world we would point to the one with plenty of money and nothing to do; no place to fill, no mission to serve; his only object to gratify his own selfishness.—Cincinnati Post.

I don't think it makes any difference way you or the other how free we make litigation. Men that want it'll have it to look at or to croak, and them that don't really want it never will get it.

In the ordinary course the new government general will be appointed next July and the public of Canada have eleven months in which to insist—the word is used a wisely—on the appointment of a first class man to fill the position.

At the palace cheese factory Mr. R. Kelly and son are turning out some 24 cheese a day, and first class at that.
