

A Hair Dressing

Nearly every one likes a fine hair dressing. Something to make the hair more manageable; to keep it from being too rough, or from splitting at the ends. Something, too, that will feed the hair at the same time, a regular hair-food. Well-fed hair will be strong, and will remain where it belongs—on the head, not on the comb!

A System for Keeping Young

"Here is a summary" writes Harriet Martin in the NEW IDEA WOMAN'S MAGAZINE for September, "of a number of rules that can keep the busiest, the most beautiful, the plainest, the cleverest, the stupidest woman young all her life: Have a conscious determination to keep sweet mentally; a determination to use your brains, few or many as the case may be, to develop them in every possible way in order that your increasing mentality as the years pass may show in your countenance; have a determination having developed your brains, so to use them that your words and actions may be sensible and therefore suitable to your time of life, and that your dress may evidence a fitness of taste in keeping with your general good judgment. Having thus attended to the only part of your life over which you really have the responsibility, await events, never attempt to hurry them, remembering that 'thy fate is hurrying after thee'.

The reason that so many jokes are made about woman's age lies mainly in her strong dependence on her looks. Men, vain as they are, are vain more of their strength than anything else. Strength does not fade as do woman's charms, such as delicate beauty and slenderness of form. So the men getting on in life have the advantage. Just as the women in their looks—face and figure and dress—learn how to become more, rather than less, attractive, the joking will cease."

The Delineator for September

THE DELINEATOR for September is packed with good reading matter for everyone. She woman of fashion will find much of interest in the many pages devoted to dress, millinery and neckwear; and those who are otherwise inclined may derive a great deal of pleasure and entertainment from the literary features provided in this number. Barry Pain, the well known humorist contributes the first chapter of "The Diary of a Baby," a story that promises to be one of the brightest and cleverest this author has ever written. Everyone must enjoy the observations of this precocious baby, and follow with amusement its budding career.

The Williams' delightful story of a motor-boat and its jolly crew in Holland is continued, and those who admire the two famous authors of motor stories will learn much of them from their personal side in an article contributed by John Harvey. There are short stories by Ellis Parker Butler, Tudor Jenks, an article of practical value on "How Not to Spoil the Hair," by Juliet Marion Lee, a specialist in this line. Housewives will welcome the advent of M. Jean Marie Deveaux, a celebrated authority on cooking, as culinary editor of the magazine. A feature of special interest in this department is "The Culinary Dictionary," giving the meaning of the terms used in cooking and menu-making, which is to be continued from month to month until completed, and along with a series of "Favorite Recipes of Famous People" gives a distinct originality to these pages. The home-builder will get splendid ideas in W. H. Wilkinson's illustrated article, "An Old House Altered," and in Alice Kellogg's article on "Furnishing the House; treating of dressing the bed." And for the children are stories and amusements well calculated to keep the brains and fingers busy.

Mr. Hayes, President of the G.T.R.
