Wedding at Bridgetown.

Medding at Bridgetown.

A very pretty wedding came off at the Baptist church this morning at 11 o'clock, when Miss Cora A. Healy, second daughter of Mr John H. Healy, of this town, was united in marriage to the Rev. M. C. Higgins, (Baptist), lately stationed at Michigan, but now on a visit at the home of his father, Prof. D. F. Higgins, of Acadia College. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. F. M. Young, assisted by the Rev. T. A. Higgins, pastor of the Baptist church at Wolfville, and uncle of the groom. The bridesmaid was Miss Rose Healy, a sister of the bride, and the groom was supported by his brother, Mr Frank Higgins. The beautiful edifice in which the impressive ceremony took place was handsomely

The soil is of great fertility and the atmosphere moist. The satives are savange and said to be cannibals.

A noteworthy fact is that the northerly pertion of the group appears to have been claimed by Germany, the aggregate are under German control having been estimated at 9,000 square miles. The Germans do not appear, however, to have couning an important channel of traffic. Nova Scotia knows a good thing when it sees it, and already the Evangeline announced at Brisbane on July 28th, met with no apposition in Berlin.—Ez.
