ARE YOU INTERESTED IN GREENWOOD?

A Meeting Called of all Those Interested in the New Greenwood Cemetery—Everyone Should Attend

Every person who has any interest whatsoever in Greenwood Cemetery is urged to attend a public meeting in the Neighborhood Theatre at 7.30 on Monday, August 28.

At this meeting the committee in charge of the improvements in the cemetery will give a report and it will be of interest to everyone who has a loved one buried on the hill, and to everyone who has a spark of pride in the town. A particular invitation is extended to those living outside the town, whether far or near, but who have a real interest in the cemetery, either by reason of having friends buried there or through a desire to stand loyal to their old home town.

The movement for improving the cemetery was started in May, receiving its greatest impulse through an article appearing in The Observer. The town council appointed a committee to look into the matter and soon afterward a number of interested citizens met and it was resolved to organize under the provincial law the Greenwood Cemetery Association, Limited. The permanent committee in charge consists of R. J. Fots, chairman, H. H. Hatfield, W. B. Nixon, G. B. Nixon, A. F. Campbell, J. E. MacCollom and Fred H. Stevens. The committee purchased a lot of land from Charles Bradley and another from W. P. MacMullin, at a cost of $1100, and men have been at work all summer under the competent direction of William Curtis, who gives his services entirely free, so that the old burying ground has been completely transformed. From its previous state of dereliction and decay, it now has the appearance that those who are buried there are not forgotten, and the general impression a visitor would receive is that the thought of a Resurrection is not an impossible or an unreasonable one. Most of the graves are well cared for and many new stones have been erected this year.

It is the intention of the association to have a permanent caretaker who will keep the premises in neat condition, caring for all graves alike whether they be of the rich or poor. So far there has been no campaign for funds to carry the work on and as stated, land purchases have amounted to $1100, while George F. Burt has donated a block of land which he owned. Other expenses to date amount to about $400 more.

The object of the meeting on Monday is to call together those who are interested, and sufficiently interested to contribute to the general funds of the association. There will be a number who will gladly subscribe $100 or possibly $200, while there will be others who may not be able to give more than $1, but all should come and do their share. Those living out of town who cannot attend, but who wish to be in with the others may remit their contribution to Fred H. Stevens, secretary treasurer. Between now and Monday all who have an interest in the grave yard should make it a point to visit the place and see what development there has been.

Don't forget the meeting on Monday evening. Be there!

MASONIC MEMORIAL SERVICE AT BATH
The members of Carleton Lodge No. 25 F. and A. M. to the number of fifty met on Sunday afternoon at their large room East Florenceville, and proceeded in a body to the United Baptist church at Bath where a fitting memorial service was held for their late brother and friend Daniel B. Secord. Rev. G. O. Howlett of Andover was orator for the day. Following the church service the members proceeded in a body to the grave of the late brother, and held an appropriate ritualistic service and placed a beautiful Masonic wreath on the last resting place of the brother. The choir from East Florenceville furnished music at the church and a male quartette composed of Bliss McIsaac, 1st tenor, John McIsaac, 2nd tenor, Geo. Smith, 1st bass and Frank Tompkins, 2nd bass, sang during the ceremony at the grave.

CHRISTIAN WORKERS' CONFERENCE

A Christian Workers' Conference was held in the Methodist church at Woodstock, Tuesday to Friday, Aug. 15 to 18. Morning sessions 8.30-11.45; evening, 7.45-9.15. Afternoons for recreation at Island Park, where the popular game of "Volley Ball" was thoroughly enjoyed by all who participated. The ladies of the Presbyterian, United Baptist, Reformed Baptist and Methodist churches furnished splendid picnic suppers for all. It was voted unanimously to ask the M. R. E. C. to provide for Woodstock next year a "Summer School of Methods," the same as at Sackville and Wolfville, with a regular course of Teacher Training, with diplomas given for those completing the course.

THE POTATO OUTLOOK

The digging of potatoes for market has not yet commenced and up to the present there is absolutely no market. In Aroostook county potatoes are being sold for 70 cents a barrel and since it is necessary to pay nearly a $1 a barrel duty there is no hope of New Brunswick potatoes getting into the States until the price reaches $2 or more a barrel. This is not likely to be the case.

The yield of potatoes in the upper St. John valley will hardly be an average crop. In many fields one disease or another has made its appearance which will cut the yield very considerably. It is not likely that digging for market will commence under two or three weeks and both farmers and shippers are living in hope of a favorable Cuban market.

BECAQUIMAC BRIDGE BEING REPLACED

The steel superstructure and concrete floor of the highway bridge across the Becaguimac which was carried from its foundation and badly bent and twisted in the fire of June 22, is being replaced by a crew of workmen employed by the Dominion Bridge Company of Montreal.

During the past week traffic over the main trunk road of the St. John valley has been entirely held up by the rebuilding of the bridge, and tourist travel and trade in general has been seriously inconvenienced. No notice was given that the bridge would be closed other than a few words marked in blue chalk on a small piece of board, and the result has been that every day cars have come down to the bridge only to find that it was necessary to go back three miles to Simonds, ferry or twelve miles to the Florenceville bridge.

On Saturday night the workmen quit without making any provision against the possibilities of cars or other vehicles coming to grief by driving directly into the stream, which would have been a straight drop of twenty feet or more. That evening no less than twenty cars were held up and after dark a stranger from Fredricton, drove merrily forward and just escaped going into the water, which probably have been a tragedy. The road was not barricaded and no lights were placed to prevent an accident. Soon as the town authorities heard of the condition they hastily prepared a barricade and hung lanterns thereon. Who ever is responsible for this neglect, which might have proved criminal, should be brought to task.

VALUABLE CATTLE POISONED

Out of a herd of 20 Holstein cattle pastured four miles from town on the Houlton road, 11 were found dead on Friday morning from poisoning and four are missing, presumably having wandered into the woods and died there. The cattle belonged to Harry Rogers, who is about to open a meat market here. Sheriff Foster, Deputy Sheriff H. V. Moores and Chief Kelly are investigating the case and it is thought the evidence secured will warrant an immediate arrest.—Press.

CHAUTAUQUA BEING GREATLY ENJOYED

This is Chautauqua week in Hartland, Florenceville and Woodstock and in all places the entertainments are meeting with hearty approval and genuine appreciation. The big tent was erected at Hartland on Monday afternoon and the program that evening by the Dunbar Quartette and Bell Ringers was heard to the great pleasure of all. Tuesday afternoon and evening gave the lovers of classic music a real treat. Miss Hughes' marvelous soprano and the wonderful technique exhibited by Mr. Bawden captivated the hearts of those who love the best there is in music. In the evening the Great Lakes String Quartette rendered music that enthralled the large audience, and although it was expected that a program so purely classic would weary a large proportion of the audience, such apparently was not the case. Yesterday's program by four artists amply sustained the quality of the preceding events. On Monday evening Mr. Poole's lecture and that of Mr. Norwood last evening were inspirational, educative, and highly interesting withal. This afternoon and evening the White Hussars, a large musical troupe, will be the entertainers, and this event is being looked forward to as something that will readily strike the popular fancy.

Tomorrow night "Turn to the Right" will provide a full evening's entertainment, while perhaps the most popular of all will be "Buckler's Jubilee Singers" on Saturday night.

On Sunday at 3 p.m. there will be a religious program in the big tent under the direction of the local pastors. Superintendent Reeves will be the speaker and the Dixie Jubilee Singers will give a musical program entirely suited to the occasion. No admission fee will be charged for this program and the general public is invited. An offering to defray expenses will be taken.

Hartland Chautauqua just failed to go over the top from a financial standpoint. The guarantors have been compelled to make good just a trifle more than the cost of a season ticket for each. It is earnestly hoped that the present enthusiasm will be deep enough to engage a return of Chautauqua next year.

GREEN-HAMILTON

A very pretty but quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton, Greenfield, at four o'clock, August 9, when their only daughter, Vida Gertrude, was united in marriage to Sperry L. Green, Summerfield, by Rev. G. A. Giberson, uncle of the bride.

Miss Hamilton who was unattended was very attractively gowned in a dress of blue silk with the conventional veil and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Miss Ella Giberson of Bath, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march.

Only the immediate family and close friends of the bride and groom were present at the ceremony and at the wedding supper, which was at once served and the happy couple left by auto on their honeymoon to Pittsfield and North New Portland, Maine.

The bride is one of Carleton county's most popular teachers and the very efficient organist of the Methodist church at Summerfield. The groom is junior partner of the enterprising firm of Gideon Green & Son, Summerfield, and also a member of the choir as cornetist.

On Friday evening, August 18, on the return of Mr. and Mrs. Sherry Green many friends assembled at their home and Rev. D. R. Chown of Florenceville on behalf of the Methodist Church and Sunday School, presented them with a silver tea service as a small token of their esteem.

DISASTROUS FIRE AT JACKSONVILLE

Shortly after midnight Friday night fire broke out in the barns of Wm. P. Kimball (the old Joseph Harvey homestead), on the Jacksonville road, burnt the barns, which were full of hay and grain, three horses, sheep and hogs and other cattle. The fire spread to the house and the barns of Tabor (the old Charles Emery homestead) and destroyed these with all their contents with the exception of the furniture, which was saved. The loss will be very heavy.

Mr. Kimball had light insurance, but The Observer is informed that Mr. Tabor carried $5000.
