As we noticed in a short paragraph in the Courant of Friday, the Rev. J. Anderson, late of Canada, was inducted on Thursday to the pastorate of the parish of Alvie, vacant by the death of the late Rev. Mr. Macdonald. There was a large attendance of the congregation. The members of Presbytery present were : Rev. Dr. Thomson, Inverallan; Rev. Messrs, Mackenzie, Kingussie: Grant Cromdale: Bain, Duthil: Forsyth, Aber nethy; and Macdougall, Rothiemurchus. The Rev. Mr. Bain, Duthil, preached in Gaelic in the forenoon, and the Rev. Dr. Thomson in English in the afternoor from Psalm xi. 3. 4. At the close of his discourse, the rev. gentleman put the usual questions to Mr. Anderson, who answered them. Dr. Thomson then addressed the pastor and people on their respective duties. At the close of the services the people had an opportunity of welcoming their new minister by shaking hands with him on retiring from the church.

THE DINNER.
