LONGBOAT'S RUN.

The Redskin Started for Toronto at 12.40 To-day.

At 12.40 to-day Tom Longboat, the Indian runner, started from the Waldorf Hotel to run to Toronto, to establish a record for one man between the two cities. He will go over the lake road, which is a little longer than the middle road, and is about 44 miles. It was intended to make the start at 12.30, but there was a delay of ten minutes, while Secretary. Flanagan made efforts to get another touring car to carry a number of newspaper men who desired to follow the redman. Just before the start. Tom smiled one of his longest and widest smiles, while a photographer took his picture. When Lou Marsh gave him the word, he shot up King street at a fast pace and was almost out of sight when the motor car started after him. There was a large crowd on King street, near the starting point, when the Indian started He is expected to reach Toronto about 6 o'clock, although some bets were made that he will cover the distance in 5 hours 15 minutes. Longboat was in bed at the hotel till 12.10.

Among the newspaper men who followed Longboat in the nuto was Pater tablish a record for one man between

Among the newspaper men who fol lowed Longboat in the auto was Peter Spanjaardt, the sporting editor of the Montreal Star. He will return to the city to-night and do some missionary work in connection with the Montreal Star's team race on Nov. 9th.

The Tiger Seconds will play Dundas to-morrow afternoon at the Dundas Driving Park. There will be one change in the Valley Town team, as Mallard, centre scrimmage, has left the town. Morton will be in the scrimmage to-morrow.

Lendon, Oct. 30.—At Newmarket to day the Cambridgeshire stakes, a handicap of 25 sovereigns each, with 500 sovereigns added, for three year olds and upwards, one mile and a furlong, were won by Land League Malua was second and Stickup was third. Fifteen horses started.
