carried to Toronto, it was a pleasant change to-night to the quietude of the art gallery and the subdued voices of men, women and children engaged in the admiration of such works of art as no other city of the Dominion possesses. The Art Association gallery was mangurated to-night by his Excellency and that this metropolis contains of wealth. fashion and culture. The building, which is a new one and constructed especially, foliage in Phillips' Square, one of the most round sum of money, toward erection pur-poses. There had been a lamentable tor-por in art circles prior to that, the old Art Association having fallen very much away in both spirit and money. But this munificent bequest was not to be neglected, especially as Mr. Gibb. doubtless with a knowledge of his fellow-citizens' peculiarities, had limited the time during which the ground and money could be availed of. A committee was struck t year and, with generous inducements in the way of subscription privileges, succeeded in rolling up a large membership. Sir Francis Hincks was entrusted with the presidency in order that he might successfully manage the finances. Lord Dufferin fully manage the finances. Lord Dufferin made a fine contribution of money to the fund last year and others followed his example. The result was that the splendid edifice was rapidly constructed and imme-diately upon its completion the third por-Gibb's bequest was carried into effect. and legendary art be forsaken and you turn to the nature living and moving around you, the features of the able men who guide your destinies, the faces of the fair women in this country, and then the wonderful wealth of natural scenery in your great rivers, in the foaming rush of their cascades, with branching maples, towering pines, and scenter cedar tops; in the fertile farms, not only in this neighbourhood, but in Ontario, and in the savage rock scenery of the Saguenay, you have spbjects equal to any in Europe. And I do hope that in the sourse of time your native artists may make these scenes as well known as are the pictures and scenes of Europe, and in this way art may tend to increase the prosperity of the Dominion. (Applause.) It only remains for me to declare this exhibition formally opened, and I hope the successful labours of the president, vice-president, and other gentlemen who have done so much to foster this institution, will be appreciated by the public. (Loud applause).

The ground, which is very valuable, was donated by the late Beniah Gibb, with a warmly shook hands with the members of the managing committee and her Roya Highness extended a similar favour. The Vice-regal party then withdrew.

CONTRIBUTIONS BY HER ROYAL HIGHNESS Besides her official, the Princess may be said to evince a professional, or more strictly an artistic, interest in the exhibition. One of the pictures that has attract ed the most attention is that painted by herself, and it must be said that its intrinsic merit is quite equal to the reputation of the royal artist which had preceded her across the Atlantic, The subject is a triplet enclosed in one handsome frame. The central panel is entitled "A view of Glen Shira," well known as among the most picturesque bits of the wild Inverary land-scape. The giant shoulders of the hills, scarred here and there by obtrusions of scarred here and there by obtrusions of granite, are thrown up in bold relief against one of those elevated skies to which we are accustomed in Canada, but which are seen in Scotland only when a storm has poured its fury from the sea through the gorges, rolling the vapour from its nostrils like a steed that has lost its rider. In quiet contrast is the repose of the plain or meadow in the foreground whose solitude is broken by no figure, either of shepherd stretched upon the rocks, or cattle grazing in the shouldn't glover. On either side is in the abundant clover. On either side is an upright panel containing studies of trees as they stand on the same mountain side. The giants are seen from near, one Gives Me Rest and a Good Appetite.

MANSFIBLD, OHIO, Dec. 14, 1878. Mr. H. R. Stevens : DRAR SIEVERS:

DRAR SIE,—I have been afflicted with Rheumatism for twenty years. I heard a great deal about Vegetine, and was recommended by a physician of this city to take the Vegetine. I was so that I could not walk. Also had a terrible swelling in the leg, and I was cured by the Vegetine. Before taking Vegetine I was restless, and could not sleep Since taking it, it has given me rest and a good appetite. I can highly recommend it for what it has done for me.

MISS E. A. VANTILBURG.

Canker in the Stomach.

18 DANA PLACE, BOSTON HIGHLANDS. 18 Dana Place, Boston Hiehlands,
May 15, 1875.

Friend Grose—In reply to your inquiry as to the merits of the "Vegetine" which from your representation I was induced to use in my family, I will simply state that for years my daughter has been badly afflicted with Canker in the Stomach rendering her life merely an existence. I could find no remedy that would meet her case, until at your suggestion I tried the Vegetine. This, to my great surprise, has proved efficacious, and I may say remarkably so, as she is now in the enjoyment of rude health. If my testimonial is of any value to the proprietor, I can cheerfully and conscientiously recommend it in cases of this kind, as I have given it a thorough trial.

I remain, yours truly,
GEO. R. WILLIAMS.
