THE ROYAL CRADLE

The Cradle Used for Children of King George Same As Used For Late King Edward and His Heirs.

The late King Edward was always fond of children. His grandchildren were immense favourites with him. When, early in the morning, he would walk over to York Cottage, where his private and special apartments were, he would spend some hours in the garden, smoking his cigar and watching the children at play, entering into their enjoyment with obvious delight. Queen Alexandra was as "great a child as any man" and his delight was unbounded when the news of the birth of the young Prince of Wales was announced to him.

The first cradle was to resemble the cradle Queen Victoria and her children used. The cradle was made of the old-fashioned mahogany and the cradle and its contents were sent to the Queen's Mother, the late Queen Alexandra, who was the first to use it. The cradle was made in the city of York, in the factory of the late Mr. J. H. B. Smith, who was the first to make cradles for the Royal Family.

HUGH MCKENNA, Esq.

St. Stephen, N.B., Jan. 17th, 1911. "I wish to tell you of the great good 'Fruit-a-lives' have done for me. For years I was a martyr to Chronic Constipation and Stomach Trouble. I tried numerous doctors and all kinds of medicine, but nothing would do until I decided to try 'Fruit-a-lives' by Mr. McCready of St. Stephen, and am pleased to say that I now enjoy excellent health. 'Fruit-a-lives' are the best medicine made, and I strongly advise my friends to use them."

THE LIGHT-HOUSE KEEPERS STORY

FROM the lighthouse at Lobster Cove Head, Bonne Bay, Newfoundland, Mrs. W. Young sends her experience of Zam-Buk. She says: "I suffered with eczema for seven years and to my great delight Zam-Buk has cured me. The disease started on my breast, and spread until it extended over my back. The itching and burning—especially when the affected parts were warm—was terrible; and yet when the eruption was scratched or rubbed, it turned to hard sores and caused great pain. I went to a doctor and tried various prescriptions, but seemed to get no benefit, so tried another doctor. Again I got no relief, so tried a third doctor, and then a fourth.

"Seven years is a long time to suffer, and I had got used to the thought that I never would be cured, when I saw a report in the Family Herald, telling how beneficial Zam-Buk was in cases of skin disease. I bought some Zam-Buk, and from the use of the very first box I saw it was going to do me good. I persevered with it, and the improvement it worked in my condition was really wonderful.

"It eased the irritation, stopped the pain, and the sores began to dry up and disappear. In short, I found Zam-Buk all that was claimed for it and within a very short time it worked a complete cure in my case. Since that time I have recommended it for several other cases, and in each it has proved its wonderful merit.

What Zam-Buk Cures: Eczema, Urticaria, Blood Poison, Piles, Cold Sores, Chapped Hands, Scalp Sores, Bad Leg, Fevers, Children's Eruptions, Cuts, Bruises, Scalds and Burns. All druggists and stores sell at 50c box or post free for price from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Refuse worthless substitutes.

AMONG THE TOWNIES

From about 10 o'clock Mr. Fiedler, the proprietor of the Victoria Cafe, was seen upon his knees and gazed at a woman sitting on the opposite side of the fireplace, what an extraordinary case!

"What is that?" asked sweet Mrs. Fiedler, as she looked back in her chair to the woman who was sitting on the floor. "Why—a report here of a ship that was wrecked near Terra Nova, where the cannibals are, you know. The Fiedlers killed and ate the natives. It appears, however, that the cannibals were the survivors of the wreck."

"The fact, I should have thought, would have preferred to eat the natives. They are so much more tender than men, aren't they?" "What I don't know, it seems, according to this account, that the two men they ate had nothing on but flannel shirts and linen trousers, which the cannibals munched up with delight. The one woman that they ate was a white squaw."

BRIGHT AS AN ORATOR

John Bright was the greatest orator Ireland saw during the nineteenth century, an age and a country where oratory reached the heights. To hold such place he must out-top Gladstone, the great; Disraeli, the brilliant; Palmerston, the witty; Cobden, the wise; Parnell even, with whom he is closely associated. His speeches are still read, and readable today, by those who rejoice in the lovely phrasing which keeps them literature where they were speech.

Augustine Barril tells his address of the unveiling of the statue to Richard Cobden, one of the greatest orators of English speech, and again, he after breakfast speech in response to Lloyd Garrison in 1867, "perhaps the most beautiful speech ever made in the English tongue on a public occasion."
