A Permanent Cure Of such serious diseases as Scrofuls Old Sores, Rezema, Ring Worm Ulcers, and all malignant disease having their origin in bad blood can only be obtained through the use Burdock Biood Bitters.

IN NOVEMBER.

In heavy tolds the mourning symbol From stately dome shadowed shrine,

And e'en the tapers in their guard With faint and fitful lustre

The rays that kiss the altar as in feat

Our footfall as we seek the place The sweet-toned music's soul .-All fill with memor

Around us are the tokens of our grie But trembling shadows are the type

Of that great pall of sorrow hanging

Is gleaming near the altar, and its ray Lead on and upward to the light afai

Where we shall meet ne'er to part,

-Ave Maria. "I have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil for Burns, Scalds, Frost Bites, Sprains, Bruises, Sore Throat and pains in the Stomach. I always say it is a regular medicine chest, it can be used in so many different ways.

A Victim to the Seal of Confession.

MRS. D. WILLIAMS,

A True Story, by Rev. Joseph

(Montreal True Witness.); CHAPTER XIII. - (Continued.)

one for them. Do not lose heart, amongst the ungodly. You have visitor rose to take leave. He then which Father Regent did very willingly. What an alleviation it would told everything to his experienced ounsel. But not even was he free to mention a circumstance or ask a question which could indirectly resion. His lips were sealed; he was obliged to bear the whole burden that it was time for the visitor to withdraw. At the same time he laid his breviary on the table and took the prisoner's letters. The Director of the Seminary accordingly bade farewell, after again exhorting him unfortunate priest, who on being left alone, took up the Breviary and Nepomucen's day.

"Saintly martyr! Thou wast! drowned in the waters of the Moldan duty as a priest, Obtain for me the grace to give up my life, or submit to any ignominy rather than violate the sacred obligations binding on

Thus the prisoner invoked the aid of the great saint of Prague, and atrengthened himself in his deterthe martyrdom undergone by that holy bishop,

CHAPTER XIV.

IN THE BUE DE LA COLOMBE

When Mrs. Montmonlin, who had been carried out of the market place into a neighboring house, recovered aide herself with grief. Some com passionate persons tried to comfort her, others contented themselves with staring at her; to all attempts " My son handcuffed! in englody the police I and he a priest !" And kled hands in abame and sorrow, while her grand-daughter stood by

" Poor woman !" said one neigh. bor, "they are honest folk too never a word has been said against

"Sie must have brought up her sion, It will show an effect son rether strangely, if he could at once both upon mether commit such a foul crime," said and child.

"You are right there," a third replied; "like father, like shild."

Soc. and R.oo. all drugglets.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.

able in your judgment," replied the pricet. is proved against the man yet." "It is, take my word for it, otherwise they would not have put the handouffe on his wrists." very much, after all," said another. "She does not even cry, the child has far more feeling." that, I think I should throw myself into the river!"

"Come grandmother, let us go home," said the girl, trying to rouse the old lady, who seemed quite prostrated by the blow she had received. In fact, when she made an attempt to stand up, she fell back on her chair helplessly and hopelessly.

A cab now stopped at the door, and a policeman who had been standing outside all the time, entered the house, saying: "She does not seem well able to walk, so I have got a conveyance for her." "It really is not necessary. She lives only a few steps off, in the next street," was the answer. "We know that. But she is going home just yet, the Superintendent of police has a few questions to put to her first," the man replied. "Ob, she is to be arrested! she is an accomplice in her son's crime!" the bystanders ejaculated, as they fell back in concentration. When Mrs. Montmoulin understood what was going on, fresh energy seemed to come to her. "If going to handouff me too?"

"That will not be necessary at assisted the old lady to get into the cab. Turning to Julia, who hung on to her dress, she said: "Go and a number of home, child, and tell your mother with gold and lace edges." either I shall soon be back, or she Who knows but they will end by mother any money yesterday?" taking you and poor little Charles up too." So saying Mrs. Montclosed the door and they drove off. The child stood erying and looking after the vehicle, until one of the ple you all are! Cannot you tell me neighbors took her by the hand and how much money your grandmother

"There is a nice story for you! The cross is a heavy one. Pray The priests can take that as a text the suspicions of the magistrate. for me, and ask the prayers of thers, for their sermons!" exclaimed one Taking out a pencil be wrote on that I may not fall beneath this of the lowest of the people. "And slip of paper the words: I have got weight," replied the prisoner, as his the old woman there who goes every everything out of the child;" then be morning to Mass and prays to the said; "Well you are a very intellisaints, is said to have hidden away gent little girl. There is somebody in money, four thousand pounds."

"Four thousand pounds t Nay, that would tempt many a poor man.
But how badly they managed it, to be caught red-handed," said an old

"No doubt they thought no one would dream of accusing a priest of such an act, and traded upon that," observed another. "And, you see, they will do nothing to him, whereas one of us poor devils would have had to put our necks under the knife stand here!" the other rejoined. This is a free country and justice proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive, on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

EOD LIVER OIL

If you will put from one-fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk. if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emul-

"Now do be a little more charit- will be done, were he ten times

"Look, here comes the old lady's granddaughter," exclaimed a kind-hearted neighbor "The hearted neighbor. "What is to become of those children if first their grandmother and then their mother s put in prison?"

"They must go to the almshouse or they will be placed in an orphan as far more feeling." age like my children," said another of the bystanders. "They are better off than here." "Det the child pass," the former speaker rejoined. "Don't fret, Julia, if they take your mother away, you and Charles shall come to my place. One or two more do not make much difference." The child, passing through the little shop, where children's underclothing, besides knitted erseys, vests and stockings were exposed for sale, was about to enter the small parlor behind where her mother was usually at work at sewing or a knitting-machine, a pane of glass in the door enabling her to see when she was wanted in the shop. feet. "By whom? My God, what a But instead of ber mother, Julia calamity!" found to her terror, an agent of police seated in the shop, who stopped her and asked her if she were Mrs. Montmoulin's granddaughter? "Yes, sir but my mother's name Jardinier. Please let me pass, have something to tell my mother. "Wait a moment. So you are Miss Jardinier, and the clergyman at Ste.

Victoire is your uncle?" "Yes, sir, and the bad people say he has done something very dreadful, " Now my good lady, I quite believe my son is said to be guilty, no won- and they have taken him to prison, der that people should have a poor and poor grandmother too. And it is opinion of me," she said. "Are you all a lie; my uncle is a priest and a even know how your mother had come very holy man !"

> "Yes, he gave me a prayerbook and a number of beautiful

There now, what a kind uncle you have. Did he not give your grand . Yes, grandmother brought a beads for her last night." "Look there now, what pious peobrought home yesterday ?" goodly number of people had assembled, curious to see what would she had not had so much money in into custody."

CHAPTER XIII.—(Continued.)

"Oertainly, I will see what can be long for them. Do not lose heart, leaving two of his men or cities. The whole affair soon got his for our Lord, innocence user, abroad, and almost all were inclined to believe the worst, only a few said she did with it."

"Bless me! And what did she do with it all?"

"She went in the afternoon to old Mr. Levy and paid him what she owed him. I do not know what else to believe the worst, only a few said she did with it."

The constable had learned enough from the unthinking child to confirm there with your mother, but we will see if you can go to her. He then detective glanced at it, and said

" One moment. I shall have done and addressing the mother of the children, who sat opposite to him pale but composed, he said ! "It is no use denying facts any longer, my good woman. Your little girl has told

"What has she told you?" inquired

The police agent then repeated all that the child had divulged. His suto Levy, to see if the statement could Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Straw-

"Indeed, it is a misunderstanding." he cried. For God's sake do not put me to the disgrace of being arrested The sum in question was nothing like as large as you imagine. Mother rought at most about twenty pound with her, and it is quite true that for are we had not had so much in the

"Wby did you not mention this

"You asked if my mother did rith her when she came home yester inen, which wanted repairing. In fact I do not know why I should be al.," she added indignantly, " we are onest people and have never defraud

d any one of a penny. "Pray do not excite yourself," re ned her interrogator. I never ac posed of somehow, and your mother is under suspicion of having brought

"Mrs. Blanchard's money!" cried e woman, aghast. "True, it was rother received the twenty-pound ote; it was a present from her, mother pounds. Only yesterday, the very day Mrs. B'anchard was in the Presbytery at Ste. Victoire.

the Fires. Hard life the plucky fireme lead; out in all sorts of weather—losing sleep, catching column and straining their backs. Hard to have strong, well kidneys under such conditions. That's why firemen, policemen and others, who are exposed to her, are so often troubled with

DOAN'S Kidney Pills Mr. John Robinson, chief of the fire department, Dresden, Ont., says:

'Prior to taking these pills I had kidney trouble which caused severe pain in the small of my back and in both sides. I had a tired feeling and never seemed to be able to get rested. However, I commenced the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, and after taking three boxes am completely cured. I have now no backache or urinary trouble, and the tired feeling is comtrouble, and the tired feeling is com-pletely gone. In fact, I am well and strong."

cried Mas. Jardinier, springing to her

"By whom? Do you mean to say you do not know by whom?" "Merciful Heavens! It cannot be that my brother is suspected—" "You have soon hit upon the right person," answered the detective coldly regarding the unhappy woman, who wrung her hands in grief and horror. As soon as the first outburst of sorrow was over, and she resumed her seat. her tears still flowing, he continued: there was no complicity on your part in this deed, and that you did not by the money she brought from Ste. No doubt it is all a lie, I think Victoire yesterday. But I require present," the constable replied, as he so too, I dare say he often gave you you to inform me at once what has become of the remainder of the sum. If you do this, I will not be hard on you; if you do not, I shall be obliged to have you taken to the police station, I give you two minutes for resobbed the poor woman. "It is all of money home yesterday that she a terrible mistake! The mere idea moulin entered the cab, the police had got from uncle. A good pious that my brother could be guilty of man took his seat opposite to her, lady gave it to him; we all said our such a crime, and that my mother would lend herself to such deceit is would ever believe it of them.'

"I shall only be too glad, if you and your relatives succeed in clear-

"Whatever will become of my poor

MISCELLANEOUS. Pain Ceased First Day.

Mrs. Mary O'Dell, 262 Dunn Ave. Coronto, says: She used Millburn's Rheumatic Pil's for a severe attack of Rheumatism and she got relief from pain after taking the remedy one day,

FALL IN LINE. Hep, hep to the right ! Ready, boys, for the figh: !

At break of day An' slay 'em left and right ! Hep, hep to the right Companies form for fight Cock your guns,

Ye patriot sons, An' slay 'em left and right | Roam, ye patriot's roam Over the salt sea foam. An' the men who make

The war will shake Hands with you and stay at Lome Getting overheated and catching cold often brings on Cramps and Colic berry give relief from pain and quick. The only kind of a nail that a girl Can drive and hit it plumb" he cynic began, and the chorus howled, "Is the one that grows on her thumb !"

TO TAKE OUT MACHINE GREASE, --Cold water, a teaspoonful of am monia and soap, will take out mawould not answer on account of Minard's Liniment Cures Carget in Cows.

The Crow of Croup.

"Now we always keep this remedy in the house, as it excels all others for the

B. B. B. Banishes Blemishes.

There is no other remedy equal to B.B.B. for making the blood pure, rich and red, and the skin clear and smooth. Here's proof from Bertha J. Tozer, North Esk, N.B.

go I took an attack of nervousness. I got so bad I could not sleep and lost my appetite and was very weak and miserable. I was taking different kinds of medicines but seemed to be getting worse. A friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, I did so, taking in all four bottles. As a result I sleep well, have a good appetite, my face is free from pimples my skin clear and my health is in every way perfect."

MISCELLANEOUS.

A MATTER OF CHOICE. They do a heap o' talkin' Bout the man behind the gun They're always singin' o' the deeds

This man has bravely done. We're all proud of this bero, Who bears the battle's brunt-But I'd rather be behind the gun Than standin' out in front.

1'd rather squint along the sights Than to be squinted at ; I'd rather see the breech-block Than the muzzle-tell you that

More fun in bein' hunter Than the object of the hunt-So I'd rather be behind the gun -Than dodgin' round in front. In fact to put it plainer,

I wouldn't like to be Out where the other fighin' men Could get a shot at me ; And just about the moment The shootin' was begun,

I'd like to be ten miles behind

The man behind the gun!

C. C. RICHARDS & CO.

DEAR SIRS,-A few days ago was taken with a severe pain and contraction of the cords of my leg, and had to be taken home in a rig. was unable to put my foot to the Picking hour from the first application I was able to walk, and the pain entirely

You can use my name as freely as you like, as I consider it the best emedy I have ever used.

CHRISTOPHER GERRY, Ingersoll, Ont.

A Word of Warning.

There are so many substitutes, nost of them dangerous, being foisted on the public, that we would adame of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is on every bottle

IN MOURNING. "I suppose you want a piece of pie?" said the young housekeeper.
"No, lady, I don't, replied the ramp; "but l'd be t'ankful fur a ole suit o' black clo'es, if yer got 'em. De poor feller wot yer gev a piece 'o pie ter yesterday wuz a brudder o'

Two Warnings.

Losing flesh is one and a backing cough is another. If they come together the warning is a loud and hard one. Scott's Emulsion does some of its best work in just these cases. It prevents consumption.

Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, etc. TO THE PRODIGAL. It may be hard to save your "tin,"

But there is this about it; L's easier to live within Your income, than without it.

WEAK, FAINT FEELINGS. Serious Conditions that Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills can One of the indications of serious heart trouble is the sensation of weakness or faintness that comes on at times.

Sometimes it is simply a disay feeling that passes off, or it may be a state of unconsciousness with hands and feet cold and countenance ghastly pale.

These symptoms indicate a weakened heart.
They are unmistakable evidences of the engine of life breaking Now there's remedy for restoring strength and vitality to weakened hearts and relieving all the distressing symptoms. It is Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Oueen Street

CXXXXXX

W. Grant & Co, Importers nd dealers, keep constantly "I have had pimples on my face and dealers, keep constantly for three years, and about two years on hand a large and choice assortment of the best groceries which they sell at lowest

> Flour, Tea, Coffee. Kerosene Oil,

Fish, etc. etc,

A splendid selection of al kinds of clovers, timothy peas, vetches, imported seed wheat, garden seeds, wholesale and retail.

Having bought the entire stock of Frank Beales LEPAGES OLD STAND, we are now prepared to supply all kinds of Farming Implements. We are also agents for the celebrated Mc-Laughlin Carriage Co., and the Deering Harvesting Co. We have always on hand a full line of ploughs, harrows, cultivators, etc. Repairs of all kinds. Washing machines wringers, and wringer repairs. All these goods are offered at the stock before purchasing elsewhere. W. Grant® Co.

lowest prices. Call and examine our Oueen Street, Charlottetown, P. E. April 26, 1899.

Vinegar.

The pickling season having come around again, we are prepared as usual to supply our customers with everything that they may require in this

We have a stock of-English Malt Vinegar, Cauadian Malt English Spiced Apple Cider

Proof White Wine Vinegar. French Also Turmeric, Cayenne

Pepper, Pickling Spices, etc.

GROCERS.

School Books!

College Text

Books and a large new line of all kinds of School-Supplies

NOW READY.

HASZARD MOORE

Sunnyside.

Barristers, Solicitors, etc. (Late of the firms of Charles Russel A. A. MCLHAN, LL B., O. C P. E I. Agency, Charlottel

Received

OUR NEW

Uvercoatings,

AND-

Trouserings,

Latest designs

-As the price of Woolens has advanced and is still advancing, you will study your own interest by placing your order early. Any goods, we repeat, will be at the adranced price.

WE ARE OFFERING A JOB LOT OF

STITINGS

AT 20 PER CENT. TO CLEAR.

MORRIS BLOCK

STOVES

STOVES ALL KINDS

Fennell & Chandler.

A Large Assortment of Finished Monuments AND HEADSTONES

To be cleared out quick, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.

Agents will tell you they can sell as cheap as you can buy from the manufacturer. Buy from us direct, and we will convince you that this told to effect a sale and make something out of you.

We employ no agents, as we prefer to make all sales right in our shop, where customers can see what they are

Cairns & McFadyen.

June 8, 1898—y

Distinguished everywhere for Delicacy of Flavor, Superior Quality and highly Nutritive Properties. Specially grateful and comforting tolthe nervous and dyspeptic. Sold in quarter ib. tine, labelled JAMES EPRS &

BREAKFAST

Barrister, Solicitor, Notary,

North British and Mercantile INSURANCE COMPANY

Kent Street, Charlottetown.

The strongest Fire Insurance Com-

ASSETS - - SEVENTY MILLION DOLLARS.

F. W. HYNDMAN. MONEY TO LOAN, Queen St., Dec. 21, 1898.