Conversation to the Camp.—If one of our Livery Stable keepers wenter run an hourly stage to the scump, we believe he would coin money. Such a conveyance is much wanted, both by the campersont and those who wish to visit them.

Mass Superise.—Parties having Poultry Vegetables, Fruit &c. to sell will please take notice to Mr.J. J. Wrights advertisement.

The Opprovens' Mass of the 32nd and 33rd is anost sumptonosity catered for by Mr. J. J. Wright, at the Ridge House What the pleasure of lunching there on Monday, and found the following was a standing pun amongst the officers:—"Mr. Wright is the right man in the right place."

volunteer camp that is to be. In emident of the school in Maithandville, under the charge of the talented and energetic cacher, Mr Duff, to the number of 50, with their parents and friends had assembled to their usual summer picnic. They were enjoying themselves immensely in the merry greenwood, in swinging and other exercises so congenial to youth, after which a substantial tea, supplied by the parents, was equally enjoyed. The happy assembly was quite an agreeable surprise to us, and we should always like to stumble on just such another, when out "taking notes." The Maitlandville school is prospering very much under Mr. Duff's ablestiperision, and the gradually increasing number of children attending it is a fair criterion of the growth and prosperity of the village. We hope our beautiful little suburb will keep on growing.

Masento.—The 24th of June is to be celebrated as usual by the Maitland Ledge. No. 112. The installation of the officers will commence at 11 a. m. and probably last till about 2 p. m. Thereafter the brethren propose to pie-mic together at (fall's Point. The baskets supplied by each of the brethren groups, can be deposited on a team, which will leave the lodge-room for the Point at 2 p. m. The presence of all masonic brethren, in the camp or otherwise, who can make it convenient to spend a social afternoon is cordially invited.

KNOX'S CHURCH BARAAR FUND.—The Concert given by Jeanie Watson and Mr. Iardy, assisted by Mrs Simms and Mr Dixie Watson, was a complete success, both as the excellence of the entertainment and wason, was a compression of the entertainment and its pecuniary result. Miss Watson was in splendid voice and good spirits and was greeted with enthusiastic eucores at every piece. Mr Hardy was more fortunate than ea any former occasion, in hitting the popular ear. Mrs Simms and Mr Dixie Watson were both most entirely successful in their renderings of several sougs and were encored. We should have liked to refer particularly to a few of the pieces, but space prevents. The receipts of the evening were $100, 50c.

turn principle and are calculated to both economise the heat and consume the smoke. From the front heater the brine is conveysel to the two other heaters and from these by pipes to the back ends of three pair. The pans are concave and also made of boiler plate. The concave form of the pans enables the salt to be removed by a very simple form of acraper fixed on a pivot, and all three scrapers can be worked simultaneously by machinery which also will pump brino; the needed ateam to be generated in a boiler placed between the furnace and the front heater. Mr Butchart claims that, by his patent, he can economise heat, consume the smyke and save manual labor. ther heaters and from these b

The Jeanie Watson Concert takes place, in Grable's Hall, this (Friday) evening. We need not say more than that Miss Watson, with her rare voice and feeling, among other sangs, all sing such charing compositions as "The murmur of the shell," "Oh, sing me the auld Scotch sangs, "Steer my bark to Erin's fale," to convince the audience of the treat in store for them. Mr. Hardy will render a new solo entitled "Out for a night." Mr. Simas and Mr Dixie Watson have kindly given their aid, and a Goderich audience is always glad to have the opportunity of listening to them. Several of Mr. Duckham's inimitable Concertime performances will also add to attraction of the programme. The musical assistance and hall accomodation are generously given free of charge, in aid of the Baras Fund for the Lequi lation of the debt on Knox's Church. The concert will be an unusually high order, much more than the mone's worth, and we hope there will be of an overflowing house. The present coolness of every evening will allow a large audience to assemble with comfort.

True Saw Principal.—Mr. J. R. Miller lor, on account of his appointment to the office of Gounty Public School Inspector, resigned his position as Principal of the Control School. A special meeting of the Board of Trustees was held on Tuesday evening, at which Mr W. Cumming, presently Principal of the Common Schools, Ingersoll, was appointed in Mr. Miller's stead. The very high character of Mr. Cumming is entimonials led the Board to depart from their usual practice of advertising for candidates.
