WAR DANGER HAS PASSED

French and German Difficulties Have Been Smoothed Over.

London, Sept. 23 -All danger of Franco-German war over the latest Moroccan entanglement is known in government circles here this morning to have passed, with the despatch late last night, concerning France's repl to Germany's last note concerning England has been kept minutely in

Are Not Pleased. It is not to be supposed that either France or England is pleased at the necessity for making concessions Germany. Nor, then, indeed, it is un derstood is German particularly grati

England and France feel, on the one side, that Germany forced itself capitalists who are enormous creditors of the Fatherland, to force a Teu tonic default on its securities, amount ing to many millions of marks, on setlement day next Tuesday. Germany will neither receive large a share of influence as it desired in order to embarrass President Taft's dition owing to the political unrest before next election. Many Americans who did not believe in the benefits to this country of such a pact, are now huffed at what may be called Canada's rebuff. Their pride is hurt. As a consequence, I think it likely that there will be further attempts at tariff legislation, and as a result of the busi ness depressions caused by American attacks upon American financial and ommercial institutions now further stirred by the failure of Canada to pass the pact, I look forward to period of business depression in America lasting clear up to election time.
