Jiu Jitsu Killed Her.

Evidence Resulted in Warrant for Arrest of Lawyer Gibson, Who Was Taken Into Custody in New York.

New York, Sept. 12.—Burton W.
Gibson, lawyer, whose client, Rose Menschik Szabo, lost her life, supposedly from drowning, while boating with him on Greenwood Lake, N. Y., on July 16th, was taken into custody to-day in his office here charged with murder. He issued a statement asserting his innocence and declared there had been no struggle.

The warrant was based on evidence given before Judge Royce by Dr.
Shultz, coroner's physician, that there were tricks of jiu jitsu whereby Mrs. Szabo could have suffered a sharp blow in the throat which so affected the nerve as to close her air passage, thereby making it impossible to breathe. There was no water in her lungs. He demonstrated to the judge to prove this.

Last night Gibson's house was surrounded by detectives who used auto search lights to illumine the surroundings. Gibson came to this city this morning trailed by private detectives and a squad of newspaper men. As he walked through the streets to his office a crowd of several hundred people followed him.

Archbishop McDonald Dead at Montreal.

Montreal, Sept. 17.—The Most Rev.
Ronald McDonald, Archbishop of Cortuna, (in partibus infidelium), formerly Bishop of Harbour Grace, Nfld., died at the infirmary of the Nunery here at 3 p.m. The late Archbishop was born at Maryvale, Antigonish, in 1835. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1859, and was a professor in the St. Francis Xavier College for two years. In 1862 he became pastor of the newly organized parish of Pictou, and there he remained until his consecration as Bishop of Harbour Grace in 1881. On his retirement from the diocese of Harbour Grace on account of ill health six years ago, he was made Archbishop of Cortuna. Since then he resided at Pictou. On last Wednesday he arrived in Montreal for special nursing and surgical treatment, and was admitted to the infirmary of the Grey Nunnery, where he passed away.
Father Roderick MacDonald of Westville, N. S., is a brother of the late Archbishop.

Gentlemen,—I was badly kicked by my horse last May and after using several preparations on my leg nothing would do. My leg was black as jet I was laid up in bed for a fortnight and could not walk. After using three bottles of your MINARD'S LINI-MENT I was perfectly cured, so that I could start on the road.

Across Greenland From West to East

Copenhagen, Sept. 13.—Greenland has been crossed for the first time from west to east over the barren ice by the Swiss Expedition under Dr.
Deuervain, joint director of the Swiss central Meteorological Institute, who is now at Reykjavik, the capital of Iceland. All the members of the party are well.

Members of the expedition started from Jakobshavn, in Danish Northwest Greenland, and marched for three months over the ice wastes. They made the east coast on August 2nd, ten miles from Angnassalik, which was their goal. Many valuable scientific results were achieved.

The greatest height of the inland measured 2,500 metres, but the party saw higher peaks and discovered mountains on Christian IX Land, nearer the east coast.

Dr. Deuervain will hold the material he has collected until he is able to make comparisons with the results of the Danish expedition under Capt. J.
P. Koch, which will cross from west to east in 1913, but by a more northerly route.

the most popular and successful Cough Medicine we

Not Recovered.

The bodies of the three fishermen named Moulton, who were drowned at Pouch Cove on Thursday evening, have not been recovered. Yesterday the heavy sea that prevailed prevented efforts being made in trying to raise the dead bodies from the bottom.
To-day the water is smooth and the search is being continued by a party of men from the settlement of Pouch Cove. The D. P. Ingraham will go to the scene this afternoon bringing along a diver to scour the bottom.

McMurdo's Store News.

SATURDAY, Sept. 21, 1912.

Cook's Cofectant will accomplish everything that any ordinary disinfectant can, and in addition to this it is more economical to use than any other in popular use. As a germ destroyer it ranks very high, being much stronger than ordinary "sary" disinfectants, which it resembles in many ways, but with a less unpleasant odor.
Cook's Cofectant is largely used by the Public Health Authorities in this city, by whom it is regarded with favour as a purifier and disinfectant.
Price 35c. a tin; the contents of which will make twenty gallons of good, strong disinfecting fluid.

Hill's Pills are growing in popularity. They are a good medicine for common liver and stomach troubles, and for constipation. Price 25c.

Teachers' Union Dissolved

French Government Compels Dissolution Because of Anti-Militarism.

Paris, Sept. 12.—All but one of the teachers' professional unions or syn-dicates have voted to disband. The Paris union refused to disintegrate and the Cabinet to-day decided to prosecute it for violation of the law of 1894.

The government ordered the unions to dissolve because the congress of teachers societies in August approved anti-militarism.

Orders of the Day

Dean Pigou gives a few reminis-cences of Doncaster, where at one time he was vicar. Among the stories he tells is this, concerning one of his curates. He went to see an old woman with whom visiting had perhaps been overdone. She at once accosted him. "So you are the new curate, aren't you?" "Yes," he replied. "Well, just you sit down on that 'ere chair."

It was a three-legged stool of most uncertain standing. "Now, I'll tell you 'what you does when you comes to see me. You sit on that stool. You then read me, mind, a short Psalm.
Then you give me a shilling, and then you can go."

On Second Thought.

BY JAY E. HOUSE.

We do not understand the psychology of the crowd. The crowd always cheers Dixie and tries to sing The Star Spangled Banner. If the crowd must sing, it should sing Dixie and merely cheer The Star Spangled Banner.

It can be said of nearly every rich man that he did not make his money raising Angora goats.

Tip to the men: When your hair starts to go it doesn't say, "au revoir." It says, "good-bye."

The political party that is delayed in transit seldom arrives.

Formerly much was served to the public only at hotels and restaurants.
Nowadays about half the newspapers retail it to the readers.

A young man who was reared in our town, and who comes home on a visit every summer, is an actor on Broadway and gets $350 a week. Surprising as it may appear, his old neighbours are not much concerned about his art. Instead, they put in most of their time speculating as to what he does with all that money.

When a hotel advertises that its terms are "reasonable" it might just as well advertise that its food is poor and its service bad. That's the way people who travel interpret "reasonable terms."

The standard of public behaviour probably is higher in a small town than it is in Heaven.

The men out ahead of the shows do pretty well, but the best press agent is the girl who has an out-of-town friend coming to visit her.

As the Salvation Army interprets it, marksmanship is the ability to hit the head of a drum with a silver bol-lar.

PERCIE JOHNSON

Favors Slang in School.

Seranton, Sept. 7.—Simple and everyday slang as an aid in education was warmly approved by Prof. J. C.
Stone of Montclair, N. J. "The teacher's first aim should be to hold the interest of a child," he said, "and the use of so-called 'high brow' English is often out of place in the school room. Use slang! It touches the spot and arouses the child spirit in your pupil. I wouldn't give two cents for a teacher who doesn't use slang—that is, children's slang—to her class. I always did when I had charge of a class room."

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mrs. Thos. Haynes, accompanied by her grandson, Master David Steele, left for Boston by Tuesday's express to visit her son and daughter residing there.

Mr. Edward H. Williams of Harbor Grace, who has been visiting the city the last fortnight, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams, Sprinkles St., returned home by last evening's express after spending a most enjoyable time.

He Did Not Count

When the new boarder went into the dining-room and sat down, there was only one other person at the table.
The new boarder had a kind heart and thought he would be affable. "I suppose you've boarded here for some time?" he said to the other man. "Yes; quite a while." "How is it? Any good?" "Yes, pretty fair. I have no complaint to make." "Landlady treat you decent?" "Well, perhaps I ought to—and then he hesitated. "Oh, never mind, old man," said the new boarder. "That's all right. I'm on I never had a landlady that didn't treat me A1 yet. It's all in the way you handle 'em. See, I'll bet I can live here a month on end without being asked for a shilling. Watch me banter her when she comes in. Before this time to-morrow she'll be telling me her family history. Poor old girl!

She looks as if she had her troubles.
Probably got tied up to some John Henry, who was about man enough to shoo chickens out of the yard, and that's all. My name's Smith. Let's see, I haven't heard yours, have I?"
"No—no, I believe not. But it doesn't matter. I'm just the landlady's husband."
