Nickel Crowded Again

The Nickel Theatre was crowded again last evening. The Nickel is St. John's most popular place of entertainment, and the crowd, so there every night. A splendid bill was presented last night. There was the usual Gaumont Graphic, showing the principal events of the world. "The message of the Violin" is a story which appealed to all and was watched with the greatest interest. "The Old Actor" is also an attractive story. Then there were two extremely funny comedies which convulsed the audience. Manager Kleley has a big treat in store for next Monday. It is the celebrated Irish film entitled "Arag-Na-Pogue" which has been seen by millions of people. There are over 4,000 feet of it, and it is in three different reels. We feel certain it will prove as popular in St. John's as it has elsewhere.

Very Suspicious.

The suspicious habits of the new President of the United States recalls a story told in connection with the visit of Prince Henry of Prussia to America.

When the Prince went to Washington the President invited him to a beer-fest, and finding at the last minute that the cellar of the White House lacked the necessary equipment, ten dozen beer-glasses were hurriedly ordered to be hired from a neighbouring hotel, kept by one Ernest Gersenberg.

The glasses arrived just before the guests, and when Prince Henry took the first observation through one of these glasses he saw engraved on the bottom this startling notice: "Stolen from Ernest Gersenberg! Who shall blame the Prince if he looked rather suspiciously at the President?"

The explanation was quite simple, of course. So many glasses had been stolen from the hotel by customers that the good Gersbergs had had the notice engraved on his property so that they might not be made as temptations.

Explosion of Lamp Causes Blaze.

At 10.40 last night, an alarm of fire was sent in bringing the Western and Central firemen to the residence of Mrs. A. Bruce, on Leitch Street. The fire was caused by the explosion of a lamp which Mrs. Bruce was taking from the kitchen to the pantry. The explosion fired the apartment and Mrs. Bruce might have been burned to death but for the prompt attendance of neighbors who came to her assistance. Mrs. Bruce was injured about the face and hands though the burns were not of a serious character and "first aid" was rendered by Constable O'Neill and Mr. MacKlin, of the training ship Calypso. These men bandaged the burns which the woman received. The Western firemen were quickly on the scene and had a stream of water hurriedly on "the hose." A good deal of damage was done. The house, after the fire last night, was cleaned by the police that some vendor of oil, without knowing its nature, was selling kerosene for kerosene. Tuesday night a lamp exploded in the hall of the Bruce residence and the use of mats quenched the flames. It was found that kerosene was in the lamp instead of kerosene, upon examination and the police will thoroughly investigate the matter. If this fluid (kerosene) has been distributed to any great extent about the city, for kerosene oil, a serious menace exists.

Sale of Work.

Yesterday being the anniversary of St. George's Day, the Cathedral Mission Auxiliary held their Sale of Work and entertainment at the Presbyterian Hall. It proved a great success. The sale commenced at 4 p.m. and soon the stall-holders were kept busy. During the afternoon and night tea were served. Rev. A. G. Stamp made a brief address at 8 p.m. followed by a concert to which the following contributed: Messrs. Earle, Summers, Cowan, Baird, Blackall, Miss Aik; recitations by Miss Hanlon and Mr. Watson; an instrumental quartet by Messrs. Peet, Dutoit, Garland and Tucker; and the farce, "Who's Who" in which Misses Langmead, Barnes, Hutchings and Oakley took part. Miss Barnes acted as accompanist. The proceeds will be devoted to the Home Mission Fund.
