"Why Our
Milk Macaroni
is so Delicious"

The first thing you notice about this New Milk Macaroni, is its rich flavor. It is so different from the ordinary imported Macaroni. Because—Catelli's is made only from the famous Semolina flour and milk. CATELLI'S Milk Macaroni has a richness, a smoothness, a bright clear yellow color, entirely different from the dull insipid uninviting imported kinds. Catelli's Milk Macaroni is so rich in gluten that it never breaks up in boiling, but retains its form and consistency perfectly. Ask your Grocer. This accounts for its wonderful food value—its flesh and strength building properties. Eat more Macaroni—Our book tells how to prepare it in more than a hundred different styles. ### Preacher Gets M. M.

Rev. Chas. F. Davis of Freshwater, a probationer of the Methodist Church, now serving in France with the 8th Canadian Field Ambulance, has been awarded the Military Medal for his work as a stretcher bearer in recent fighting. Mr. Davis is a son of Mr. Ebenezer Davis of the above town. He spent two years as a Methodist probationer stationed at Charmanville and Sound Island, respectively. He was taking a course at McGill in Theology and Arts when he enlisted. He has served 27 months in France and done splendid work in the battles of the Somme, Arras and Tynes.—Sydney Record, Aug. 12.

This great restorative feeds the nerves back to health and vigor. It restores the energy and vitality that is necessary to success and the healthful enjoyment of life. You are mentally tired. The strain has been continuous. The supply of nerve force is running low. You cannot leave for a long rest in the country, and it is therefore necessary that you have assistance where you are. Help awaits you in the form of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

More Hun Coddling.

Birmingham District Committee of the Workers' Union has sent to the Prime Minister and Mr. Barnes a resolution protesting against petrol being used for conveying German prisoners about the city when many of our own returning from the front are obliged to wait at the stations from midnight until 5 a.m. before getting to their homes.

Up to Christmas a number of motor-cars drove home soldiers arriving on leave late at night, but petrol permits were then withheld and the work stopped.

In spite of the appeal of the Lord Mayor and others, permits are still unobtainable.—Daily Mail.

German Who Sank Lusitania Is Dead.

London, August 10.—Lieutenant Commander Schwelger, who commanded the submarine which sank the Lusitania, is dead. His death occurred in September 1917, but has only been admitted by the German Admiralty, according to reports received here.

Last September Schwelger, in command of the U-boat 38, was in sight of Heligoland, with another submarine. Both U-boats submerged and the other commander felt a chain sweeping along the side of his boat and believed he had run into an unknown British mine field. A terrific explosion under water followed. The second boat rose rapidly and signalled for the other. There was no reply. A vain watch was kept for the U-88 and she has not been heard from since. There is little doubt, the reports say, that she sank.

Hints For Housewives.

Broad, flat-bottomed, light-weight pots and pans are the best to use, as they heat quickly.

When cooking haricot beans add salt to the water first, and they will cook in a third of the time, and will not need to be soaked overnight.

Lamp-wicks soaked in vinegar some twenty-four hours before being used will give a clearer flame and a steadier light than those not so treated.

Rub the kitchen grate every day with a pad covered with an old piece of velvet. If you do this it will very seldom need a thorough cleaning.

It is a bad practice to put burnt saucepans in soda water to soak, for, although this removes the burnt portion, it makes the saucepan liable to burn again when it is used. A better plan is to fill it with salt and wash, leave a few hours, then bring slowly to the boil. The burnt particles will then come off without any trouble.

And the Worst is Yet to Come

The Episcopal Visit To Grand Falls.

His Lordship Bishop White, arrived from Botwood by the morning train, on Tuesday, Aug. 13th, accompanied by his Chaplain, Rev. A. G. Bayly, and Rev. M. K. Gardner, Incumbent of Botwood.

Grand Falls had united to pay respect to the distinguished visitor, and a principal feature of the decorations was an electric device, "W. N. F. L. D." near the Church, which, at night, could be seen all over the town.

His Lordship was met at the train by the Rector, Rev. H. V. Whitehouse, and the representatives of the congregation, where an address of welcome was read, and presented to him. He was then escorted to the residence of E. H. Breen, Esq., who had kindly consented to act as host, during the Episcopal visit.

In the afternoon, the Bishop and suite motored round the town and vicinity, and a welcome opportunity was afforded him of viewing the magnificent scenery on the River Exploits. Two very impressive and dignified services were held in the tastefully decorated Church, the chancel and transepts being consecrated, and the sacred rite of Confirmation administered to thirty-five candidates.

On Wednesday morning, His Lordship was accompanied over the Mill, and in the afternoon a reception was held in the Town Hall, an opportunity being afforded the citizens of meeting the Bishop. The building had been artistically arranged and beautified, and a handsomely coloured electric device expressed the hearts of the people. "Welcome to our Bishop." At the end of the reception, His Lordship expressed his appreciation of the kindness and courtesy of Grand Falls in a few well chosen words.

The Bishop left for St. John's by the night train. Altogether the Episcopal visit was greatly appreciated and the citizens of Grand Falls did their best to make the Bishop's stay a pleasant one.

The members of the Reception Committee acknowledge their deep sense of obligation to the A. N. D. Co., for their extraordinary generosity and cordial co-operation.

The Back Aches

Possibly you do not realize that this indicates derangement of the kidneys. Neglect usually means the development of Bright's disease. You know how dreadfully painful and fatal that is.

There is quick relief for the kidneys in the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. This medicine is known in the great majority of homes as the greatest of regulators.

A Word in Season.

Editor Evening Telegram.
"Dear Sir,—I would crave space as an ardent admirer of the grand old game, to make a few remarks, as to last Wednesday's match. Cricket, they say died out, but I am of opinion that it was killed. Last Wednesday's match is a sample of how the killing was done. The game was advertised to begin at 1.30 p.m., and those of us, who are ardent fans, and who arrived at St. George's Field at the appointed hour, were not at all impressed, nor even interested, in the spectacle presented by those who were then preparing the ground. It was not until well in to 2 p.m. when the game began. Now I am not writing this in a spirit of fault finding, but only to show why it is that Cricket has died out. If the ground could not be got ready in time why was the game advertised for 1.30? True, when the game did start, it was pretty good, when one considers that all the players are a bit rusty, a fault which a little practice would remedy. I am glad to hear that another game will likely take place next Wednesday, and I sincerely hope that it will. The good old game is not dead. All it wants, is to be played, and our city can put in the field two or three elements that can give a good exhibition of the noble game. Let us have the game next Wednesday and every Wednesday until the holiday season closes. I am quite sure if the ladies who are connected with some of the war funds, would take this matter in hand, a goodly sum would be secured for a worthy object.

Trusting, Mr. Editor, that those interested will take the remarks I have just penned, in the spirit in which they are written, and hoping we shall have the pleasure of seeing a few more games before the season closes, I am, yours etc.,

Only a Letter.

A printer once made a prospectus for a gold-mine—speak the truth by accident, for it read: "Issue of one hundred thousand shares at one pound each." The writer meant "shares" of course, but it was true as it stood.

An Irish paper some time ago in the course of a very laudatory article on the late Mr. John Rodmond described him as "The greatest thief Ireland had known since O'Connell." The compositor had lifted a "t" for a "c," that was all.

In the days before the Liberal and Tory truce, the Conservative organ of a big provincial paper got a nasty stranglehold on the chances of the Liberal candidate at the bye-election, and all through a single letter of the alphabet! The Liberal paper was describing a Tory meeting; and in the course of the article it said: "The arrival of the candidate on the platform was greeted by the great uplifted snouts of the entire audience, the ladies making themselves particularly prominent."

But probably the climax was reached in the case of the Archbishop who was credited with saying "he had been on the drink for a month," when he had only said "brink."

Milady's Boudoir.

HOW TO HAVE PRETTY ANKLES.

Pretty ankles are a rarity and not the rule. It is a pity too as nowadays a woman's ankle is quite prominent because of the short skirts and low shoes mode of dressing.

If you want your ankles well shaped don't stand on the sides of your feet. If you have any inclination to do so, your feet need more support than your shoes are giving them. Get a pair of arch supporters and wear them until the inclination no longer exists.

Further corrective treatment includes a twice daily foot bath. Bath feet in tepid water upon arising. Use a pure white soap, dry the feet quickly with a soft towel, and if there are any calloused spots on heel or sole rub them with a piece of pumice stone.

At bed time sponge the feet with clear warm water to which a little powdered borax has been added. Then let them soak in cold water for from fifteen to twenty minutes. Rub briskly with a coarse towel and repeat the alcohol application.

Unique Cricket Match.

On St. George's Field this afternoon a very unique cricket match is to be played. The contestants will be the ladies against the gentlemen, and as the former have mostly all played abroad on their school teams, an interesting contest is expected. An admission fee will be charged, and the ladies will serve refreshments. The proceeds will be devoted to Jensen Camp.
