"IRISH REPUBLIC" PARADE.
NEW YORK, March 17.
New York had the most impressive St. Patrick's Day parade in its history to-day, when many thousands of Irish sons and daughters marched in review before Eamon De Valera, President of the Irish Republic. It was purely an Irish Republic affair. The green, white and yellow Irish tricolor was in evidence everywhere, while the old Irish flag of green, with the harp of gold was carried by only one delegation, that of the Tipperary Men's Organization. Costumes of green, white and yellow were worn by a battalion of the young women of Friends of Irish Freedom. For the first time in any St. Patrick's Day parade there appeared a large delegation of Protestant friends of Irish Freedom. A delegation of Hindus, representing friends of freedom for India, was another feature.

PURELY PATRIOTIC MOTIVES.

BERLIN, March 17.
After holding the reins of power for less than five days, Dr. Wolfgang Kapp, self-appointed Chancellor and dictator, has retired from office and control. He resigned to-day, and an official communication explained that the chancellor considered his mission fulfilled when the old government decided to meet the most essential demands addressed to it. He was also moved to this action by the extreme necessity of the Fatherland, which demanded union against the dangers of Bolshevism.

THE SENATE'S PROPOSAL.

WASHINGTON, March 17.
Hastening to clear the way for final action on the Peace Treaty, the Senate to-day choked off a St. Patrick's Day debate on the Irish question by tabling a proposal to declare by reservation that Great Britain should proclaim Ireland free.

SIMS AND THE U. S. NAVY.

WASHINGTON, March 17.
Unity of command of the Allied and American naval forces overseas, similar to that which afterwards obtained on the Western Front, was recommended by him to the Navy Department as early as July, 1917, but was not approved. Rear Admiral Sims to-day told the Senate Committee investigating the navy's conduct of the war. The Admiral said that efforts to direct a large force of American ships and men by cable and letter from a point three thousand miles away, gave too many opportunities for misunderstandings of messages, and for their interception by the enemy, whose secret service proved itself to be extraordinarily efficient, he said.

FORTY-FOUR KILLED.

LONDON, March 17.
Forty-four persons have been killed in Essen, according to an official British telegram.

OUT OF THE LIMELIGHT.

COPENHAGEN, March 17.
The Berlin correspondent of Frankfort Zeitung says that Kapp and Von Luettwitz have declared their unconditional retirement as a result of the negotiations, and have transferred the government to Vice-Chancellor Schiffer. Gen. Von Hulsen has taken over command of the troops.

"TOMMY" ON THE JOB.

THE HAGUE, March 17.
Reports received from Heerlen, Holland, which is on the frontier of Allied occupied German territory, says that Spartacans hoisted the red flag and deposed the Mayors at Halle, Westphalia, and Schlags, Rhentish Prussia, but British troops have restored order and reinstated the Mayors.

NOTHING DOING.

BERLIN, March 17.
When asked to-day regarding a report that the Kapp Government was negotiating with the Entente, Dr. Kapp, the spokesman, who met the correspondents, intimated that there had been informal discussions, but said there were no "binding negotiations."

THE TURKISH SITUATION.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Mar. 17.
The occupation was carried out under the guns of a formidable Allied fleet anchored in the Bosphorus, the British dreadnought Benbow being moored at Galata Quay with her guns trained upon Stamboul. Another man of war faced the arsenal on the Golden Horn, while all other warships in the Bosphorus were standing by with their decks cleared for action. Except in the instances stated, however, there was no resistance to the Allied forces as they carried out orders for the occupation of the historic capital of the Ottoman Empire. The population, in fact, showed little alarm, nor was there any signs of panic except in one section of Stamboul, as the commanders of the Allied troops brought their forces ashore. These forces included four thousand bluejackets and marines from British warships, and contingents from forces of all the Allies represented here and Indian detachments, having Moslems on their rosters, were amongst the troops taking part in the operation. Consequently military and naval palms had been made for carrying out the Allied measures and precautionary steps taken. Last night a number of Turks and other persons, who were regarded as possible disturbers of the peace, were arrested, including the commander of the tenth Turkish division. The walls of Constantinople have been placarded with a proclamation by Major General Henry F. Wilson, of the British troops declaring that anyone committing any act that threatened the safety of the Allied forces, would be tried by court martial and sentenced to death, or such other penalty as the court might fix. A flutter that occurred in Stamboul as the troops marched in was on the part of shopkeepers near the War Office, where a clash occurred. They closed their shops in their first fright, but speedily reopened them. The Allies believe their measures have proved ample for the maintenance of security and order in Constantinople, and consider it questionable whether even the so-called Nationalist forces in Anatolia are in a position to attempt anything serious. The Allied High Commissioner here has issued a statement declaring that the Allies have no intention of destroying the authority of the Sultan, but wish to strengthen his powers. It also says the Allies will adhere to their intention not to deprive the Turks of Constantinople, but that they may be compelled to modify their decision if massacres and disorders continue. The Allies have occupied Ministries of War and Navy, and have assumed control of all posts, telegraphs and telephones, which have been temporarily suspended. Shipping movements have also been suspended.

BREAKING THE MEAT COMBINE.

NEW YORK, Mar. 17.
According to the Globe to-night, the British Govt. is now offering New Zealand and Australian sheep in New York at thirteen cents a pound wholesale, against the prevailing wholesale price of twenty-four cents, and is taking orders for lamb at sixteen cents per pound, wholesale as compared with thirty cents a pound the prevailing wholesale prices.

NEW HOME FOR WILHELM.

THE HAGUE, Mar. 17.
A Royal decree issued March sixteen, says the place to be allotted to former Emperor William of Germany, as his residence, will form part of the province of Utrecht, and that it will be fixed later by the Government. The decree was in connection with an announcement to the Allied Premiers regarding their recent note concerning the one time monarch.

MAINTAINING THE STANDARD.

LONDON, March 17.
Introducing the naval estimates in the House of Commons to-day, Walter Hume Long, First Lord of the Admiralty said the Government was firmly adhering to the traditional policy that the British navy should not be inferior to the navies of other Powers. Then alluding to the U. S. as the only country whose navy approached that of Britain in strength, he said that the idea of competition in armaments between U. S. and Great Britain was repugnant, adding, "We hope and believe that if there is any emulation between us it is likely to be in the decision of reducing that ample margin of naval strength which we alike possess over other Naval Powers. This is a tradition of British Naval policy."

DEATH RATHER THAN DISGRACE.

LONDON, March 18.
Rumors are current in Berlin that Dr. Wolfgang Kapp, Head of the Reactionary Government, set up in Berlin last Saturday, whose resignation was announced yesterday, had committed suicide, according to a despatch to Exchange Telegraph Co. from Amsterdam. The reports were received by telephone in Amsterdam from the German capital.

ARREST ORDERS ISSUED.

PARIS, Mar. 18.
Orders for the arrest of Dr. Kapp, who assumed control of German Governmental affairs in Berlin last Saturday, General Von Luettwitz, his military Lieutenant, and other leaders in the Reactionary revolution were issued by Gustave Noske, Minister of Defence in the Ebert Government last night.

AT ALL COSTS.

THE HAGUE, Mar. 18.
Dutch correspondents in Berlin say that the railway directors have shown their sympathy for Ebert, by ordering that despite the strikes and other difficulties, deputies must be transported to Stuttgart for the meeting of the National Assembly. Report also states that a bill will be introduced in the Assembly at Stuttgart proposing, not only personal punishment, but confiscation of property in cases of revolutionists in the future. The bill, it is declared, is to be retroactive and will therefore affect Kapp and other conspirators.

HOLDING THEIR OWN.

COBLENZ, Mar. 18.
(Associated Press.)—A telephone message received yesterday from an American at Leipzig said the conditions there are very bad. Fighting, in which machine guns are being used, was proceeding, food was growing short and water had been cut off. Government troops were still holding their own against the revolutionists. The message said there were many foreigners in the city attending the fair, but that there had been no casualties among them.

WILLIE IS O.K.

WIENENGEN, Holland, March 18.
The Dutch torpedo boat, which arrived here Monday, presumably to guard former German Crown Prince Frederick William, departed yesterday by order of the Dutch Government. Frederick William, who is thoroughly informed of the progress of events in Germany, is greatly interested and seems nowise perturbed at the falling fortunes of the Kapp Regime. Yesterday he boxed with the son of Burmaster Perserom, who was a good match for him, but much younger. No special guards have as yet arrived here. The former Crown Prince is quite free to move about the Island. He reiterated that he would like to return to Germany sometime but not under the present circumstances.

BUILDING ACCIDENT.

MONTREAL, March 18.
Three men were killed, six others were seriously injured, one of whom may die, when a concrete building being erected for the Singer Mfg. Co. at St. John, Quebec, collapsed yesterday afternoon, and buried under the debris about a dozen men.

SOME SHOOTING.

A party of gentlemen at a hotel were telling stories one night of famous shots and how many quail, partridges, ducks, and other birds had been killed at a single discharge. After listening to what seemed a wilful exaggeration by different narrators a stranger who was present volunteered his experience of his only use of the fatal double-barreled gun as follows: "I went into the field one day to try gunning. The only game discovered was an immense flock of crows. I should say there were 10,000 in the flock. Slowly I crawled up to them, and when not more than four rods away the crows rose in a solid mass. I fired both barrels, and how many do you think I killed? Different guesses were made by the party, ranging from twenty to 100. "Not one," said the
