JANUARY

MISSIONER—Will your pass book?

NESS—Yes. I have a MISSIONER—When July 27th, 1922, I left St. John's.

NESS—I left St. John's.

MISSIONER—I am interested in the account of the account.

NESS—One June MISSIONER—I am in that. Can't you see?

NESS—I can't see because the book is at that date.

MISSIONER—Can you pass book find the account? If you have a book to show funds or not?

NESS—No. You got from the Bank, books.

MISSIONER—So I don't know whether to meet the cheque.

NESS—You would your own records.

MISSIONER—With records. So that not show whether or not?

NESS—I say that it is not possible to pay particular day, or month, your account.

MISSIONER—If you from the books could any other source?

NESS—You could go at the Bank.

MISSIONER—Have you from the Bank account was overdrawn.

I have not.

Then why were you were not overdrawn?

NESS—Because with a credit balance at the 25th July.

MISSIONER—But I told me just not overdrawn at all.

Well, I did not know I was out of town, and on the last day a credit balance.

MISSIONER—A good upon contradiction.
