Agrarian Organ Adopts Conciliatory Attitude in Discuss. ing Question

Fleet Not Being Strengthener With View to Embarrass Great Britain

Nevertheless Must, of Course, Reckon With Possibilities of Conflict

(By Carl Waldemar) Berlin, Aug. 24 -In a leading article The Deutsche Tageszeitung, the or ministers and the strengthening of the British navy have made but little in pression in Germany, as hardly new idea is advanced in them a nardly any fresh development re It is immaterial, says the organ, that the statements made ab and against Germany were of a mor riendly character. Germany has reckon with the fact that England ontemplates the possibility of a co flict with Germany, although this con is not desired and nothing wil be done to bring it about

English Attitude It has been stated in the British parliament with gratifying clearness it adds, that England will regulate the size of her navy according to that of Germany, and little importance ne soft and straw nats.
