Because Victoria Day, a public holiday, falls up on Saturday next and because the business men and citizens generally desire to observe Monday, May 26th, instead of Saturday, Mayor E. A. Miller has proclaimed Monday as the public holiday and requests the citizens of the town to loyally observe that day. It will be well to note however, that the Post Office and all the banks will be closed on Saturday.

accepted with regret by the bandmen.

A NEW STORY

We begin a new serial story in this issue of The Express. One we can recommend to our readers "The Bride of the Manor," by Bertha M. Clay.
All the world loves a lover, and thousands of readers prefer a good love story to anything else they can get in the way of reading matter. This new story is full of action and is highly entertaining. True, it is a love story, but of a type that is wholesome and totally different from the cheap romantic fiction one often finds these days. In our selection of stories published in The Express we endeavor to give our readers variety, and while this story is entirely different from the one just completed, we are sure you will enjoy it. Read the first chapters this week.

FAMILY ATE TOAD STOOLS— BOY DIED

Sad Fatality at Eden

Wilfred Simes, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simes, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Harry Simes, about a mile west of New England, or a few miles from Eden, at midnight, on Monday, after suffering agony for some hours, the result of being poisoned from eating what he supposed were mushrooms and which proved to be toad stools.

Thinking to have a treat the family made a meal of the toad stools and shortly after were taken violently ill.
Doctors Hoover, Atkinson, and Bennett, of Tillsonburg, and a trained nurse were called and did all they could to save the lad's life. His parents were also both terribly sick. Mr. Simes was much better on Tuesday and Mrs.
Simes is improving.

The funeral of Wilfred Simes will take place on Wednesday afternoon to the Eden cemetery.

Aylmer's Football Team played their first Horton Cup game at St. Thomas on Wednesday afternoon last, with the Caledonians, which resulted in a draw 2-2. The second game was to have been played at Aylmer on Wednesday but owing to injuries of some of the "Caley's" players in a game on Saturday last the game has been postponed until Wednesday, May 28th. Aylmer's team played a good brand of football and should win their second game in the series which will necessitate a game with the St. John's Rovers they having defeated the United Vets in a game on Monday night last by a score

The boys showed up well considering the very short time they have had to spend in drill on account of the very late spring and continued wet weather.
Then too, the inspector's visit is rather early, but nevertheless he expressed himself highly pleased with the drill, physical exercises, target work and general appearance of the Corps. Principal D. N. McGregor, instructor, is to be congratulated for he certainly had to work under difficulties this spring.

sand canton crepe gown, shoes and Miss Mable Carter also of Yarmouth Heights, who looked very pretty in a gown of grey canton crepe. William Cowie, brother of the bride, supported announce another musical service on the evening of Sunday, June 1st. Our satisfactory hour to lovers of good music, while the pastor, Rev. Mr. Ash-propriate bible reading for such an event. On this occasion, the choir will not be assisted by outside talent, but

At a meeting of the Quarterly Official Board of St. Paul's Church last week, a most gratifying report was received regarding the financial condition of the church. Last summer improvements to the building were made to the extent of $10,000, all of which has been provided for, and in addition the current expenses have been met in full, with a surplus in the treasury. St. Paul's is now a co-operative church, the Methodist and Presbyterian congregations worshipping together, an arrangement which is proving entirely satisfactory to both. H. L.
Stratton as re-elected to the office of recording steward and the following stewards were elected: Messrs. Huntley, Holland, D. H. Connor, C. Bowen, Wooster, Caverly and Caven. The $200

Scott was turned over to the building fund.

day
When one we loved was called away.
His memory is as dear today as on the day he passed away.
Too dearly loved to be forgotten.

Safe in the Shepherd's bosom, White as the drifted snow, Is the little Lamb we miss from our household here below.
Inserted by parents and grandparents.
