Mounted Rifles Do Not Get the South African Gratuities.

Ottawa, Nov. 26 .- A dispatch from Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain to the Governor-General makes it clear that the Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Regiments of Canadian Mounted Rifles will not receive the South African medal or the special war gratuity. The dispatch reads as follows: "My lord, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your dispatch of Aug. 22, transmitting a copy of an approved minute of your privy council the subject of the bestowal of the South African medal and the payment of the war gratuity to the members of the 3rd. 4th, 5th and 6th Regiments, Canadian Mounted Rifles. I have to acquaint you, for the informa-tion of your ministers, that I have subtion of your ministers, that I have sub-mitted the question to the consideration of the Secretary of State for War, but that he, after careful consideration with his military advisers, has decided that no relaxation can be made of the date limit-ing the grant of the medal or war gratuity. I have to add that this rule has been adhered to in the case of all the imperial troops who landed in South Africa after the 31st May, and of the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th battalions of the Australian Commonwealth Horse. Everyone who wants coal ought to place their order at the very least a full week ahead. One of the factors incidental to making it so difficult to get coal here is that the dealers in the larger cities are paying as high as a dollar a ton price to have their orders filled first, irrespective of what order they were received in. Trades and Labor Council Won't Discuss Referendum.

The Trades and Labor Council did al! that they will do with the referendum when they met last night and passed the following resolution:

"That as long as the present monopolistic system of production and distribution is maintained no prohibitory law will have any appreciable effect the trunk on her body. upon the amount of poverty existing at present, and which is caused by the trust organizations of society monopolizing all the natural opportunities of acquiring wealth." Beyond this the council will not interest itself in the campaign. Their decision was unanimous, and raised no argument. They contended that there would be men in London's labor ranks who would vote for either side, and that consequently it was not the council's duty to discuss the matter either one way or the other. They considered that this was their only course. The street railway have for the past' few weeks been using their fenders as a rest for their advertising bill-boards. This was a dangerous course to pursue, the council thought. They believe that if anyone was struck by a fender these boards would decrease their chances of safety. A motion was accordingly framed asking the city clerk to look into the matter.

The council received a gratifying report from the organizing committee, to the effect that since the last meeting three new unions had been formed and the organization of five more is pro-said that at least ten men stood and watched the body carried 200 yards before it sank, and not one moved a hand to attempt a rescue. The little llow was a son of William Cowan Wellington street. The body of James Irvine, an old man, was found in the canal near the Laurier bridge yesterday. Irvine had been released from fail two days ago, having served a term was between 70 and 80 years of age.

LADY'S NARROW ESCAPE. St. Marys, Ont., Nov. 26. — While Mrs. Dale, of Blanshard, wife of Prof. William Dale, was driving home Monday, her buggy was struck by a freight train on a crossing about two miles from town. Mrs. Dale escaped without serious injury; the buggy was knocked to pieces, and the horse was so badly used up that it was found necessary to shoot it. Mrs. Dale, who so narrowly escaped death, is a daughter of Rev. Dr. Ryckman, of Brockville.

CAR REPAIRER KILLED. St. Thomas, Ont, Nov. 26.-Locomotive Foreman Davis, of the Wabash, made a ghastly find in front of the depot yesterday morning about ten minutes to seven. He was going to work, and had his attention called to a dark object lying on the main line alongside the platform. Davis went to the spot and discovered the body of William Davis, car repairer, lying across the north rail, his head resting on his hands between the rails, and blood flowing from a wound in the abdomen. The unfortunate man was removed to the baggage-room, but life

Hesperia, Mich., Nov. 26. - As Walter Knickerbocker, 80 years old, living at Mena Creek, 11 miles east of Hesperia, sat smoking Sunday night, he saw the curtain behind him on fire. The flames spread rapidly and he, being an invalid, succeeded in getting only a part of the way out. His wife, aged 68 years, was in the barn, and ran to the house to get a trunk upstairs containing $300. She got part way out when her husband heard her say: "I am smothered." This was the last heard from her. Two neighbor boys, 11 and 12 years old, ran to the house. One held a board over the other to protect him from the flames, while they rolled the old man over and over and got him out of the burning building. Knickerbocker will die. The remains of Mrs. Knickerbocker were found in the burned building, part of
