Oklahoman Offers to Withdraw If Editor Can Prove Charges.

Chicago, Sept, 21.-The following letter was given out tonight by Gov. Haskell, of Oklahoma:

William R. Hearst: "Sir-You are stating in speech and press in substance, that in 1899, when Attorney-General Frank S. Monnett, of hio, had several cases pending in the supreme court of that state against the Taxpayers are hereby notified that the second installment of taxes is due and payable on or before 30th September, 1908, and any portion of said installment unpaid after that date will be charged 5 cents on the dollar percentage. The collector will be in his office to receive same during business hours and the collector will be in his office to receive same during business hours, and the office will be open on the nights of the 28th, 29th and 30th September, from 7:30 nothing. You, as a newspaperman, may and should desire a reputation for the conficient of the conficien mand that those who accuse me stand forth and make their proof. You know that a suit against you for civil dam-

Court's Investigation.

"For the purpose of settling forever this infamous slander which you are circulating in your newspapers and on the stump, I now propose that a committee of five or any three of them, composed of the editors of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, the Chicago Journal, the New York World, the Indianapolis News and the St. Louis Republican, be selected to hear you and me under oath, and all other evidence they may desire, as to the truth of falsity of your charge at the earliest possible moment, and render their decision to the public in writing. Should this committee find your harge sustained, I shall withdraw from all connection with the present Presidential campaign. "Should the verdict be against you, as I know it will be, there need be no other penalty than the public contempt due every assassin of character.

C. N. HASKELL.

TYPHOID IN MONTREAL

Fifty Cases Have Been Reported the Last Week. Montreal, Sept. 22.-It is announced by the health authorities that typhoid fever is epidemic in Montreal. Fifty cases have been reported last week. and the average number of cases is five per week. The cases are spread all over the city, and every ward is represented. The health authorities are as yet unable to give a reason for this outbreak. The Oireachtas, or great festival, held annually at Dublin, is the climax of a system of miner local festivals held throughout the year all over the country. Partly social and partly educational, they serve the double purpose of keeping alive the spirit of the league and of resurrecting the gay and festive
