London, Ont., started to fight. The constable was attracted by the crowd of spectators, and as he proceeded to investigate the crowd vanished and the two contestants took to their heels. Both men ran up Jarvis street, the constable in full pursuit. At the corner of Jarvis and King streets he caught Devine. Not satisfied with this, he determined to arrest the other. He handuffed Devine to a telegraph pole and then went off in pursuit of Gilbault, who by this time had secured a lead of several blocks. The constable, however, captured his man many blocks down King street. Knowing that the prisoner would be safe at the corner of King and Jarvis streets, he summoned the patrol and placed Devine in the wagon. The sight of Devine tied to the telegraph pole attracted a large crowd of people, who for many minutes were not able to account for the novel situation. Even the street cars stopped on account of the crowd, and it was many minutes before the traffic was restored.

These three mixed at home in a few minutes, work wonders with any scalp. Try it just one night and see. Get from your druggist 2 oz. Lavona, 6 oz. Bay Rum and half dram Menthol Crystals. Dissolve the Crystals in the Bay Rum and pour in an eight-ounce bottle. Then add the Lavona, shake well and let it stand for an hour before using. Apply it by putting a little of the mixture on a soft cloth. Draw this cloth slowly through the hair, taking just one small strand at a time. This cleanses the hair and-scalp of dirt, dust and excessive oil, and makes the hair delightfully soft, justrous and fluffy. To stop the hair from falling and to make it grow again rub the alling and to make it grow again rub the falling and to make it grow again rub the lotion briskly into the scalp with the finger tips or a medium stiff brush. Apply night and morning. A few days' use and you cannot find a single loose or straggling hair. They will be locked on your scalp as tight as a vise.
