SEND GIFTS TO THE MEN AT THE FRONT

Princess Mary Chapter Forwards Christmas Packet for Each Local Man.

Most enterprising are the members of the Princess Mary Chapter, I. O.
D. E., of Strathroy. This week a large consignment of Christmas cheer was shipped by them to the 27 members of the Twenty-Eighth Regiment, now stationed on Salisbury Plain.
Each man was remembered, the gifts, which comprised a warm pair of socks, cigarettes, tobacco, a pipe, packages of gum, chocolates, dates and figs, being wrapped in separate parcels, addressed personally and labelled with Christmas tags.

At a meeting held on Wednesday a letter was read from Lieut. Fritz Robinson, son of Rev. and Mrs. Robinson, of Strathroy, stating that the men needed mitts, wristlets, put particularly "sox, sox, sox." The chapter intends providing constantly to provide these and kindred comforts for the men from the Strathroy district. Mrs. Duncan Rios is the president.

LOCAL COUNCIL SALE
HELD YESTERDAY

Many Gift Purchasers Gathered at Home of Mrs. Boomer.

Quite a large number of ladies availed themselves of the opportunity to purchase pretty Christmas gifts at Mrs.
Boomer's drawing-room sale, held at her home yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the Local Council of Women. A number of handsome watercolors brought from England by Mrs.
Boomer, elicited much admiration, and many old bits of china and silver found a ready sale. Many of the ladies present were much interested in the "Made in London" pads, issued by the London Industrial Bureau, and distributed during the afternoon.

Among those helping were: Mrs. Walter Bartlett, Miss Wheeler and Miss Burwell, articles from England; Miss Bullen, Miss Macbeth, watch committees; Mrs. Harry, Mrs. Robinson (Strathroy), aprons; Miss Isabel Armstrong, Miss McMillan, fancy articles; Miss Mc-Donald, fancy work; Miss Wald, cakes and short-bread; Mrs. Edge, assisted by Mrs. Niven, Mrs. Robinson, Miss Macbeth, and Miss Harris, tea-room committees.

CYNTHIA GREY'S MAIL-BOX

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letters can be answered privately.]

Getting His Supper.
Dear Miss Grey—I saw in Friday's paper that "A Reader" asked for the words of "Uncle Ned." I am sending them, and would like to ask a few questions also.

1. Can any reader give me the words of the song, "In the Little Old Log Cabin in the Lane?"
2. What days did the following dates come out: March 1, 1892; January 6, 1894; April 23, 1896; February 28, 1897?
3. I will not ask the old, familiar questions, as I have just scribbled this while waiting for my husband to come for supper. Thanking you in advance, CHESTNUT.

Ans.—1. Referred.
2. Tuesday; Friday; Thursday; Monday.
3. Call again, Chestnut, some time when you are not in such a hurry.

His Christmas Gift.
Dear Miss Grey—As I have taken great interest in your column, and my first time to come to you for advice, I would like to be proper for a young lady to give stationery to a young man as a Christmas gift?

2. Is it proper for an engaged lady to sing with a young man?
3. What would take walnut stain out of blonde hair?
4. Hoping to see this in print soon, and sueces to your page. GERTRUDE.

Ans.—1. Yes, quite.
2. I think you will just have to let it wear off. To put a little salt of tartar in the washing water might help some.

What D. C. Means.
Dear Miss Grey—I would be ever so thankful if you would kindly answer the just one question. What does Washington, D. C., mean? I know what Washington means, but I can't understand what the D. C. stands for. Thanking you in advance, I am yours, CHAPPEE.

Ans.—The initials "D. C." after Washington stand for "District of Columbia"; the letters are placed after the name of the American capital to distinguish the city from Washington Territory.

Many Songs Received.
We have received from "T. O. H." not only words but music of "Carry Me Back To Tennessee," asked for by Mrs.
Singer for use at a concert. Will the latter please send me her address and a stamp, so that I may mail this at once? It would simplify matters, and save time, if readers asking for songs in this way would inclose me their address when making the request.

Additional copies have also been received from "F. A. S." Words of "Uncle Ned," "Carry Me Back To Tennessee," "Peggy," "Brown Eyes," "Brown Eyes," "Peggy," and "Barney McCoy" are sent by "Brown Eyes," "Peggy," "Subscriber." To all, we are very grateful.

Recipes From Samaria.
Dear Miss Grey—Here is my recipe for a Christmas cake, which we like and which is splendid to keep moist.
One year I used the last of mine (made five weeks before Christmas) the 1st of July, and it was lovely and moist.
1 lb. raisins (cut in two), 4 lbs. currants, 1 lb. citron peel (cut fine), 1 lb. almonds (blanched and cut fine), 2 lbs. flour, 2 nutmegs (grated), the same bulk mace, 1/2 pint brandy, 1 teaspoonful of essence of lemon, cream butter and sugar well, add the beaten yolks, then the stiffly-beaten whites; put all flour and fruits and peel together, beat well; beat all nuts and brandy.
I also send a recipe for good carrot pudding (without eggs): One cup grated carrots, 1 cup grated potatoes, 1 cup yellow sugar, 1 cup chopped nut, 1 cup raisins, 1 cup currants, 1 1/2 cups flour.

Dear Miss Grey—This is the second time I have visited your columns, so I hope you won't think me bothersome. In Tuesday's issue, Mrs. S. quoted some words of a song, entitled "The Miner's Dream of Home." I am forwarding it to you. It is very pretty.
1. Have the songs, "He Isn't a Marrying Man" and "My Old New Hampshire," been sent in yet? I have them, and if any of your readers would like them, would be pleased to send them.
2. What would be a nice gift for a boy friend of about 18 years for Christmas?
3. Can you tell me what Beverly Baine means by saying: "Don't be a wall-flower?"
4. What would be a nice gift for one's mother at Christmas; not too expensive?
5. Is a girl of 20 too young to be married? How often should she hear from her fiancé in a week who is away from home?

Hoping I haven't bothered you too much, and that I shall see you in the next issue (the answers). You must be a very lovely person, Miss Grey, and I am an ardent admirer of your column.
Wishing you a happy Christmas, I remain, PERDITA.

Ans.—1. Thank you for sending the verses. I had long ago mentioned them published.
2. I have suggested "the same old things" so often I am almost ashamed to suggest them again. A calendar, tie-handkerchiefs, book, picture, muffler, these are acceptable gifts.
3. Surely you know what a "wall-flower" is. The next time you go to a dance and see a number of girls sitting around, painfully hopeful, but lacking partners, then you'll understand the aptness of the term.
4. Many mothers prize some little adornment for the home more than anything else. A unique vase, an old plate, jardiniere, or bit of bric-a-brac, is often welcome; or if you want to be very practical, a nice linen towel or two, a centrepiece, or new bureau scarf, might be just what she desired. If your mother is fond of pretty things for herself, a fancy chain, jeweled comb, bit of new lace, or silk bag for her fancy-work, would be nice. Any of these may be purchased for a dollar, or less.

5. Depends upon the girl's circumstances, and a few more things. Some girls at 20 are sensible enough and mature enough to be married; others are not. Once or twice, I suppose, or even three times.
Yes, I am fearfully loveable—ahem!

Raylins On the Wane.
Dear Miss Grey—I am inclosing the words of "Uncle Ned," asked for by a "Reader." I also wish to thank "X. Y.
Z." for sending "Sweet Violets," and see it in print soon.

Please tell me if the raglan sleeves are going out of style.
2. What would be a nice Christmas present for a little girl 2 1/2 years old?
Thanking you, I am, GOLDIE.

Ans.—1. As you will have noticed, the song has appeared since your letter was sent.
2. Fashion advances say that they are out on the wane, and that the small armhole with set sleeves will prevail as spring draws near.
3. A tiny gold ring would no doubt delight the kiddie; or how about a nice "ruggie" Teddy Bear? A pretty dress length, or a pair of dainty stockings, or cosy house slippers would be nice gifts.

A Moth Remedy.
Dear Miss Grey—I would like to get a remedy for moths. Perhaps if you published a letter something like the following it might bring some answers that I could try.
"Will anyone who knows of a remedy for moths please let me know through the Woman's Page of this paper?" I find many of the letters sent to you very helpful, and I think your page of the paper is very interesting. Trusting I will receive an answer soon.

Ans.—Now for suggestions from our readers. No doubt many of them have fought with moths, and for "R. L.'s" benefit, they tell us how they may be overcome?

Another Admirer.
Dear Miss Grey—I am an other admirer of your page. I thought I would write and ask you if the lotion you recommended for the chapped hands would be good to use on the face also—the one with the tragacanth. The winds chap my face as well as my hands. What a nice page you have, many useful recipes. I have tried some, and they are good. I have ventured to send an old song. It is a great favorite of mine.
DARK-EYED SUSAN.

Ans.—Neither lotion contains anything harmful; I do not see why either one should not help the face. Better wear a chignon veil when out of doors, driving or walking. It is a great protection. So glad you find the page helpful.
Thanks for the song. Will publish it some day before long.
