TEN THOUSAND CHILDREN READY FOR GREAT PICNIC

Huge Sports Program Arranged For Picnic

picnic, and appetites have been known to smash all known records when a lunch basket is opened in open air. Mother, too, has memories of outings and she knows that the family larder takes two or three days to recuperate after the youngsters have raided it before skipping away to the frolic. But mother is sure to be as generous as usual this year when the annual nool picnic rolls around. Parents are advised that an abundance of food snecessary for the success of the 1924 outing, which will be held on Friday HAVE SPLENDID TIME

The big alluring lunch baskets are to be sent to the various city schools a time to be announced later by the principals. And then they will be placed in the hands of trusty janitors, who will take good care that every one is sent to the park at the appointed time Friday morning. The instructions of the teachers should be followed closely in the labelling of baskets, so that all will arrive at their right destinations. The sports program,

UNWANTED IMMIGRANTS ESCAPE THROUGH WINDOW

Halifax, June 4.-Complications were added to the problem of unwel-come Italian immigrants who have been held at the port for some weeks pending findings of the federal boards of inquiry, by the disappearance yesterday of three Italians from the party, who escaped from the deten-tion quarters and are now being sought by the police.

The three who are missing made their escape by climbing through a window and they took all their baggage with them. It is believed they started for St. John and efforts are being made to apprehend them there.
