Sixty Buildings Destroyed by Fire at Nome With Loss of $200,000.

Fatalities and Accidents Claim Several Victims in and About Seattle.

Rumors of Pending Purchase o Bellingham Bay Line by the C. P. R.

Fire at Nome the night of September 13th destroyed sixty buildings, causing a loss estimated in the neighborhood of $200,000. It did not wipe out the larger wholesale and retail district, as at first reported. The litt hell and small buildings were designed.

The visit of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy to the coast has revived rumors here of the sale or contemplated transfer of the B. B. & B. C. to the C. P. R. It is stated here that the president of the Canadian road will either meet the executive officers of the local line or their tenrescentiatives.
