WALKER

Blow the trumpet, beat the drum, Shout with heart and soul; Election day-has passed once more, And WALKER heads the poll. DEMISON and COCKBURN now Have reached the longed-for goal, And Mr. SMALL feels very large. But WALKER heads the poil.

Let SHEPPARD's friends no longer grieve,
For soon the time will roll;
And the JURY will try the case again,
And with WALKER head the poll.

Friend Harvie missed the voters, Macdonald's in a hole, But still they are our aldermen. And WALKER heads the voll. Though some of you with victory shout,
And some the death-knell toll,
Congratulate each other still,
For WALKER heads the poll.

CURE. Positively cure the most obstinate forms of female weakness. We do so by restoring constitutional health, and by the use of Remedies of our own Discovery which we have found to exert a wonderful growth of the propoductive owners.

ULCERATION of the womb is charac-charge of greater or less amount; if small the accompanying symptoms are not pronounced, but if aggravated great physical weakness is caused, with "bearing down" sensation and a sxed pain in the back and loins.

SPERMATORRHUA, seminal fluid, is almost always the result of self-abuse, and, unless cured almost invariably results in complete or partial impotency, and frequently in insanity and death. The loss often occurs during sleep or at the stool, and even from the slightest cause. Sometimes the escape is imperceptible Indigestion, innutrition, emacration, shortness of breath, palpitation, nervous debility, are all symptoms of this exhaustion. Subsequently the yellow skin reveals the bones, the sunken eyes are surrounded by a leaden circle, the vivacious imagination becomes dull, the active mind grows insipid—in short, the spring, or vital force, having lost its tension, every function wanes in consequence. Martial excesses also cause in same disease.
