THE RACE: When-the flag fell the favorite, Pat Oakley, led. and as he was running magnificently many thought that Mr. Bhields' luck had changed. Bob Thomas, A. A. Gates' powerful gelding, was at his heels, and strung out in the follewing order were Alvin. Sam Morse, Repartee and pladiator. At the second jump Bob Thomas led; Alvin had also passed Pat Oakley and was in second place. Sam Morse was fourth, Repartse fifth and Giadiator last. The old weteran seemed disgusted at his inferior position and refused to take the jump, and ther that failed to cut a figure and did not lish. Repartee went to the front on the back stretch, but Bob Thomas passed him again and maintained the lead to the wire. On the run home Pat Oakley dropped back & offth place and Alvin moved up to third. Bob Thomas came in an easy winner. Re-Partee led the rest of the procession, with Alvin, Sam Morse and Pat. Oakley in the order named. The last horse was the freshest of the lot at the linish.
