A protest was received from W. R. Brock, president of the Humane Society, objecting to certain clauses of the proposed new dog bylaw, and asking delay in order that the society might have an opportunity of laying its objections before the committee. It was decided to discuss the bylaw at the next meeting, and Mr. Brock will be asked to forward a statement of the clauses offensive to the association. The feeling of the committee seemed to be that the bylaw in its present shape is too arbitrary.

INSURANCE AGENTS MISSING.

Two Employes of the Metropolitan Life Skip With Company Funds.

News reached the city yesterday of the flight of Charles Davis, detached superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company at Chatham, and Thomas McBride, until recently an agent of the same company there. It is not known how much the company is short as the result of their flight. Three securities from new agents of $50 each that had been paid to Davis were pocketed by the couple. The company also received a death claim from the Chatham office, to which was attached a doctor's certificate, and for which the company forwarded to the Chatham office, to which was attached a doctor's certificate, and for which the company forwarded to the Chatham office $190. The physician whose name is attached to the death certificate says he knows nothing about it, and the man reported dead, as far as can be learned, is still alive.
