

NO REMEDIAL BILL THIS SESSION

Possibility of a Commission Being Appointed.

TO REPORT AT A FALL SESSION. The Cabinet Discussed the Draft of the Bill.

FAILED TO AGREE UPON DETAILS. Quebec Conservatives Dissatisfied at the Delay.

Official Intimation That the Ontario Wing Has Scored a Victory Will Be Made on Monday.

Ottawa, July 5.—The desire to know the result of the deliberations of the Cabinet to-day was as keen as ever on the part of members.

It was freely expected that an official announcement would be made in both Houses to-day; but, as will be seen from what follows, it has been deferred until Monday.

The Premier's Statement. In the Upper House, Hon. Scott said: "The session is drawing to a close, and many members are anxious to know if we are to have any important legislation, and particularly with regard to the Manitoba school question."

Mr. Mackenzie Bowell replied: "I think I shall be enabled to give the House definite information upon the particular point to which the hon. gentleman has alluded at the turn of the opening of the session on Monday."

Mr. Scott: "Do I understand that the Government have not yet decided upon the legislation with regard to the school question?"

Mr. Mackenzie Bowell: "I do not think I gave any intimation as to whether they have decided or not. I said I hoped to be able on Monday to give the House definite information with regard to the course which would be followed by the Government."

Legislation Deferred. In the House of Commons, Mr. Laurier brought up the matter as follows: "I beg to remind the leader of the Opposition of his promise to make a statement to-day in regard to the school question looking forward with much interest."

Mr. Foster: "I did not make a definite promise that I would make a statement to-day. I said I might make a statement, but I am not sure that I will do so."

Mr. Laurier: "That is the last. (Laughter.) The Premier's statement is looked upon as confirmatory of the fact that Remedial Legislation is deferred."

A Deadlock in the Deliberations. The reason for this is not difficult to see. It is in the nature of a deadlock, and it is one which is likely to last for some time.

Remedial Bill Discussed. The Canadian, which is a weekly paper, has published an article in which it is stated that the Remedial Bill will be passed at once on this principle.

The decision of the Ministry not to bring down a Remedial Bill this session is regarded as a distinct victory for the Ontario wing of the party.

Quebec Conservatives Dissatisfied. The decision of the Ministry not to bring down a Remedial Bill this session is regarded as a distinct victory for the Ontario wing of the party.

It is significant that soon after the decision of the Government became known, straight party division was called in the House, and several Conservative Conservatives abstained from voting.

BURNED HIS WIFE AS A WITCH

Superstitious Michael Cleary of Clonmel Believed His Wife Concocted With Fairies—He and His Relatives Tortured the Woman to Exorcise the Witch, Whom Her White She Keated to Death.

Dublin, July 5.—Michael Cleary, living near the Town of Clonmel, was convicted to-day of manslaughter in having burned his wife, Bridget Cleary, to death last March.

The court deferred sentence. Cleary believed his wife was bewitched, and upon the advice of Dennis Gancy, the "family doctor," and in the presence of her father and a priest, he burned her.

Cleary claimed that it was not his wife, but a witch that was bewitched. He had a long and bitter fight with her, and she was finally killed.

The principal Crown witness testified: On the night of March 14, accompanied by his wife, he went to the house of Michael Cleary and Bridget Cleary, his wife.

When we arrived close to the house we met Mrs. Johanna Burke, and she inquired how Mrs. Cleary was. She said they were giving her some herbs.

Then she saw her husband give her some liquid in a spoon, and she heard someone say it was herbs. She was held down at the time by force, and one of the others held her hand across her mouth.

Burned Over the Kitchen Fire. A man on each side of the bed kept the body swaying about the whole time. She screamed horribly, and they cried out: "Come home, Bridget, Bridget, my dear, my dear, my dear."

Mrs. Cleary was a "witch," and endeavored to send her out of the house. She was held down, and she was burned to death.

He then stripped her, and after she had been placed over the fire by him, she was burned to death. He was convicted of manslaughter.

Accused of Keeping Company With Fairies. A woman named Burke, who alleges that she was kept in the house of the Clearys while the murder was being committed, gave a circumstantial account of the barbarous treatment to which she was subjected.

She was subjected by her husband and some of the men who assisted him, to a conversation which she heard between the murdered woman and her husband, in which he accused her of having kept company with fairies.

She had answered his questions, and put her back on the bed.

AN EXPECTANT BRIDE ON HIS WEDDING

Hints Got Nowack to Impost a Wife For Him, But Before Her Arrival Married Another.

Berlin, Ont., News, July 4. At the Division Court on Tuesday held by His Honor Judge Chisholm, a somewhat unusual case was heard.

It was an action brought by a man named Nowack, living in the western limits of the town, against a man named Hints of Lexington. The case arose in this way.

Hints became a widower some time ago, and was very anxious for some one to take the place of the first Mrs. Hints.

Nowack had a widowed sister-in-law in Germany, and suggested to Hints that she would exactly fill the bill.

It was agreed that she should be married, and that Hints should pay for the expenses of the wedding. Nowack's sister-in-law was to be met by Hints at the altar.

The money was borrowed for the occasion, and the wedding was held before the Old Country widow could get home. The bride was a young widow, and had a young son.
