SOME HISTORICAL ANTIQUES.

The Rev. Thomas Handley Chipman, the fourth, in direct descent, from his immigrant ancestor, was born in Newport, R. I., 1756, and was, therefore, only four years old when his father and mother came to Nova Scotia, in 1760. Whatever of education he received he received in the Province, and his measure must have been very limited, indeed. He assisted his father in conducting his farm labor until his majority, when he commenced life on his own account as a farmer, who of all men most requires a helpmate of the other sex. Mr. Chipman selected from among the very limited number of marriageable maidens then in the province, a Miss Jane Hueston or Hueston, whose father had only a short time before, moved across the basin from Cumberland County to what was soon after to be widely known as the garden of Nova Scotia. By this, his first wife, he had four children as follows: (1) Jane, who married John Morse, (2) Margaret, who married George Treop, (3) John Hueston, who married, 1st, (4) Hopedale Barnaby, (2) Ann Prince, second Johnstone, (4) Ann who married Daniel Lovell. His wife having died he married Jane Harding for a second wife, by whom he had two children, (1) Helen, who married William Randall, (2) Mary, who married George Fitch. Having having deceased he married Mary Briggs, by whom he had four other children, (1) Thomas Handley, who died unmarried, (2) Joseph Wheelock, who married Theresa Charlton, (3) Eliza, who married John Quirk, (4) Samuel Lord, who married (1) Mercy FitzRandolph, (2) Ann Tomlinson, second Schaffer.

We have not had time to get the exact date of the final removal of Mr. Chipman from Cornwallis to this county, but it took place about 1790. He was more or less acquainted with this county and its people before the time of his settling among them, for in the missionary rambles of his early ministry he often came into this section of the valley. On the farm now owned and occupied by Mr. Calvin Corbett, near its west line on the south side of the highway which will be seen an old cellar over which once stood the dwelling in which Mr. Chipman and his family found their first home on arrival here. On this farm he pursued the double calling of farmer and preacher, and on it he continued to live until 1807 or 1808 when he bought the Alden Bass lot in the upper of Mission district, and transferred his home thither. This lot is still owned and occupied by one of his grandsons—Mr. Frederick Miles Chipman, one of our most skillful and enterprising farmers and orchardists. Here he died about fifty years ago, beloved by his own denomination and respected and esteemed by all others. As a preacher he was characterized by much earnestness and considerable ability, though without the rhetorical training necessary to the "rightly dividing the word."

Let us now turn a moment to his male descendants. His eldest son, the late John Hueston Chipman, who married Hopedale Barnaby, of Cornwallis, by whom he had four children, (1) Brooks Watson, who married Mary Woodbury, (2) Rebecca, who married Arthur Dodge, (3) William Hueston, who married Elizabeth Dodge, (4) Sarah, who died unmarried.

Brooks Watson Chipman, the oldest of these children, had by his marriage four children: (1) James Edward, who married Sophia Lavinia Fowler nee Chipman, (2) Brooks Watson, Jr., who married Catherine Harris, (3) Mary, who married Josiah Rockwell. Of these the two eldest sons constitute the firm of Chipman Bros., merchants, Halifax, and John, the youngest son resides in Lynn, Mass. Joseph Wheelock Chipman, second son of Rev. Thomas Handley, and who married Theresa Charlton, had two children only, (1) George S., who married Lavinia Morton, and (2) Robert Handley, who married Charlotte Morton. The former of these resides in Massachusetts, the latter in Middleton, who ranks among the most intelligent and successful farmers and fruit growers in the county. Samuel Lord Chipman, youngest son of the late Rev. Thomas Handley, and who married (1) Mercy FitzRandolph, (2) Ann Tomlinson, second Schaffer, was the father of seven children, (1) Phebe Jane, who married George Shaffer, (2) Lavinia Ann, who married (3) James Albert, who married (4) Thomas Handley, who married Elizabeth Tupper, (5) Amanda (deceased), who married George F. Hielop, (6) Mary Eliza, and (7) Frederick Miles, who married Annie Fisher. The eldest of these sons is a well known merchant of Halifax, and the others are well known and respected farmers in the township of Annapolis. The other branches of the Chipman tree who have found a home in this county will be traced in another article at a future day.

Local and Other Matter. Canadian Pacific Railway has reached 76 1/2 in London—the highest rate it has yet arrived at. To G. H. Dixon's for Choice Candies, Nuts, Oranges, Lemons, Figs, etc. 11. Postmaster Dodge has our thanks for a copy of Deider's Almanac for 1890. He has them on sale. Shipments of Opium from Hants County for the current year amount to 131,000 tons to the 8th inst. A SPLENDID ILL—Get John Lockett's prices on all kinds of goods before you spend a cent. A new mineral spring has recently been discovered near the well known Poland, Me., spring, and is attracting considerable attention. It is situated in North Raymond. In connection with this announcement it is proper to state that the owners of mineral springs in the United States will apply to the present Congress for the placing of such a duty on foreign mineral waters as will secure the home markets for the sale of the home waters. The man so well known to the world as Emil Rey, is a native of Sils, in Austria, whose true name is Schuetzler. He is a surgeon by profession, and served in the Turkish army in that capacity. He accompanied Gordon in 1878, who made him head of the administration of affairs in Central Sudan, where he used all his powers in the endeavor to suppress the slave trade there carried on. It was his regard that Stanley's last African expedition was planned.

I have acquired my second lot of Saco and Uster Cloths this season, and will clear out the balance at great bargain. Call and see before purchasing elsewhere. Overseas at a great discount. J. W. Rockwell. Passenger cars will be placed on the Nova Scotia Central railway before Xmas. The cattle shipments from Canada to England this year have been considerably greater than in any preceding year. The Malaga Gold Mining Company realized 215 tons of gold from their mine, being the product of November's labor. Don't forget the Oyster Supper and Tea at Middleton, which takes place on Thursday, the 19th inst. Our oranges are sweet. Xmas stock, including novels, stationery, patterns. Parlor newspaper pockets very attractive. McCormick. The Band Concert which was held in the New Court House, on Tuesday evening, of last week, was a success both financially and otherwise. A large flock of wild geese passed over the suburbs of the town on Monday evening about 7 o'clock, westward bound, but they westward we cannot tell. The S. R. Monticello is expected to resume her trips across the Bay at the beginning of the new year. She has been put in thorough repair for the winter service. Digby is going for an Exhibition building and a drill shed under one roof, and has taken steps to apply for subsidies from both the Local and Dominion governments. One lot of oranges, 170 do. McCormick. A week ago this evening a heavy storm of rain with thunder and lightning, passed over the south-western portion of the county, during which a barn, the property of Anthony Ord, of Greywood, was struck by the lightning and completely destroyed, killing a cow which was stabled in it at the time. This was an unusual storm at this season of the year. To Correspondents—"A Reader," and other correspondents whose favors we value highly were received too late for this issue though they reached us on Monday. The usual holiday demand upon our columns makes space a scarce article just now. They will be attended to next week. The Crown murder trial, in Chicago, is over, and the verdict and sentence of the jury is before the county. Bege was acquitted and discharged; Kunze was found guilty of manslaughter, and sentenced to 3 years in the State prison, and Coughlin, Sullivan and Burke were sentenced to life servitude in the State prison. The Clana-Gael are in tears. A SAD EVENT.—Mr. Wm. Ristino, of Waterville, Kings County, has suffered an irreparable loss in the sudden demise of his only child—a little girl of fine promise—presumably of diphtheria, and just a week following of his wife, of the same fall disease. The husband who is thus left alone has the sympathy of the whole community in his affliction. The remains of both wife and daughter were brought to this county for interment. Looking into McCormick warehouse—not without—we found a full supply of children's toys, toy books, a fine selection of fruits of all kinds, plush work, horn work, and a thousand and one other articles of use, and suitable for Xmas gifts. We were astonished at the cheapness of his stock. Mothers and all contemplating the pleasant act of making gifts should call at McCormick's before buying elsewhere. SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Monday afternoon, while employed in cutting wood in the door yard, Mr. Robinson, who resides on the Church road, met with a severe accident in the following manner. His axe caught in a clothes line nearly over his head which changed the direction of the blow he intended for the billet of wood, so that he received the blade of the axe just over the right eye-brow, cutting a groove through the bone. He was rendered temporarily insensible by the force of the blow, but surgical assistance being recalled he recovered his senses. His wound was dressed by Dr. DeBlois, and he is said to be doing as well as can be expected. The turkey supper and fancy sale which came off in Victoria Hall, on Monday evening, under the direction of the ladies of St. James Church, was a complete success, and too much praise cannot be given to those who had the arrangements in charge. The turkeys—nine in number—were delicious, being well cooked and served; the chickens were tender, and the bread and sandwiches were all that an epicure could desire, and ample justice was done to them. The sale of fancy articles was fairly good and not all were sold. One good feature of the affair was the abundance of the good things provided. The net proceeds amounted to $62. SOUV. ACT DONE IN CLEMENCY.—On the 29th November, Inspector Irvine, of Grandville Ferry, with constables A. E. Parker, Daniel Sprowl, and Captain Zwicker, went to and searched the house of Edward M. Berry, of Clarendon, in which they found a barrel containing some liquor. This they seized and placed in the custody of William V. Vroom, Esq., for safe keeping until the day of trial. On Dec. 9th, Mr. Berry was arraigned on two charges of violation of the Canadian Temperance Act, and being convicted in both charges was fined in the sum of fifty dollars for each offence. The liquor seized was then turned into the gutter by order of the magistrate. Port George Gleannings. The vessels have finished their work here this season, at least. The powers that be seem to have forgotten that we need a wharf or that we have been promised one. We heard whisperings that the work was to be done by contract. David Jones has taken the contract, and is persevering and determined in his work. A bar of sand and rocks is being constructed that will very soon protect the dock from even a bad boistering if. This wharf is to be used as a stevedock platform, and will be found rather shaky and even the stoutest plank will very soon be washed away by the quicksands of time and tide. An object was seen coming over the water on Saturday, which some thought might be the prominent wharf, the realization of their hopes, but it proved to be only a lumber saw that had been towed. Finding no harbor here it was squatted on the rocks and the Admiralty Court will probably "sit on it." The Rev. Mr. Locke has been holding a series of special services here for the past month. Mr. Gilbert Rosch who has been ill for over four years was last week taken to Boston for medical treatment. He was accompanied by his son-in-law, Mr. Wm. Foster, who has just paid a flying visit to his old home. Mrs. Nissen and son have returned to their northern home. Miss Nissen remains the winter in N. S. The young people of the village are preparing for an excursion to Santa Clara home, to leave by special limited train over the great Arctic R. R. from Woodsworth's Hall, on Xmas eve. As the music is choice and the object a worthy one we trust it will be patronized.

The Nova Scotia Central railway will be opened for travel on the 23rd inst.

He was once a tractor on the P. E. Co., and once represented Pictou in House of Assembly, and no man in that county was more respected than he. William March, eldest son of John March, of Pelton View, Annapolis, N. Z., died in the hospital at Pictou, on the 29th October, aged 68 years. He was an older brother of the Rev. S. C. Baptist minister, at present in Lunenburg. Mr. H. M. Wilkins, pastor of St. Paul's Church, Fort Fairfield, Me., and late rector of the Episcopal Church in Annapolis, has commenced his labors successfully. We hope the rumor that the ladies have already held a fancy fair in aid of church funds. Mr. Reginald Bishop, of Hound Hill, has recently bought a number of Holstein-Friesian cattle. He deserves much credit for his enterprise, and it is to be hoped that success will attend his efforts to improve the horned stock of the valley. The Rev. H. D. DeBlois, grand chaplain of the Grand Lodge of A. F. and A. M., of Nova Scotia, will preach on St. John's (29th inst.) a sermon in St. Luke's Church, Annapolis, suitable to the occasion. The same gentleman is expected to preach in Victoria on the 23rd inst., on Xmas day, at 11 o'clock a. m. Dr. A. B. Cunningham, of Annapolis, has said his mare, "Annapolis Girl," to New Brunswick, and she is expected to give the Canadian Sporemotes of two weeks ago in speaking of our friend the Doctor: "Our Annapolis friend is one of the most successful breeders in the Maritime Provinces, and anything he has in his stable is always worth owning." Miss Rose Winniet, once a resident of this place, where she is much respected and esteemed, arrived in town last week, and is at present a guest at the dwelling of Mr. John McCormick. We hope the rumor which says that Miss W. is intended to marry all winter in town may prove to be true, and that we may be permitted to renew an acquaintance with "Aunt Lavinia." Mr. Roderick McDonald, manager of McGuire's mine, Whiteburn, was in town a day or two last week. He showed us a detailed statement of the gold taken from that rich mine during the three years and six months that he was worked, by which it appears that the mine has produced over a hundred ounces, worth twenty dollars, and eight thousand dollars, have been already secured to the owners, and this result has been gained by the use of a five stamp crushing mill only. The mine will not be opened this winter. James J. Fellows, of bygonophites fame, and financial agent of the province of New Brunswick, we regret to hear, is suffering from illness, in London. Mr. Fellows is a native of this county, and was born within two miles of this town. It is not appreciated that his present illness is a very serious one, and the appended passage is a letter to a friend which reads as follows: "Owing to ill health I have been ordered away from London for complete rest, so I think, you may let my friends know, if necessary, that they may suffer no disappointment in asking my assistance here." Mr. G. H. A. Goodwin, formerly of this county, has recently accepted a position in the advertising department of a leading Los Angeles newspaper. As the music is choice and the object a worthy one we trust it will be patronized."

Personal. A convention of the Liberals of the County, it is reported, will be held shortly after the new year, for selecting candidates in their interests. The Moschelle social, held at that place on the 5th inst., was a success—$50 having been realized. The money is to be expended toward the establishment of the debt upon the church. We need to revise our ideas about Russia. Last year she issued 7,427 volumes of publications, while Great Britain issued 4,391, and the United States but 4,831. Germany, however, leads them all with 17,000 publications, and, strange to say, Italy comes next with 10,863. We welcome to our exchange list Wymouth's new paper, the Free Press. It is a great improvement upon it. For a first number it presents a good appearance mechanically, and gives evidence of vigor and newness which augurs success from the start. It is edited by a son of Annapolis parents who has our best wishes for success. ANAPOLIS CO. S. Church Services. On Sunday morning the Baptist pulpit was filled by the pastor, Rev. F. M. Young, who preached an excellent sermon on the obligations of the church towards their pastor. His text was in Exodus, ch. 17, verse 12, which reads as follows: "But Moses' hands were heavy and they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up by his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun." The church in relation to its pastor should hold his position as Aaron and Hur should hold up his hands when they dropped: (1) by their sympathy; (2) by their confidence; (3) by their desire to serve them; (4) by obedience to his wishes as far as they were sustained by the Word of God; (5) by constant and earnest co-operation with him; and (6) by their prayers for God for him. Each of these heads were expanded and their results pointed out in a most suitable and impressive manner. During the delivery of the sermon he made a graceful reference to this journal as being alike useful and profitable to the community, and resorted in excellent style and taste the little poem entitled "Wise," which appeared in its last number. Although not a member of his communion we most cordially wish him a successful pastorate while among us. There was no service in the afternoon in any of the churches in town until 10 o'clock, at which hour service was held in the Providence Wesleyan Church, the pulpit being filled by Rev. Mr. Wright, the pastor. He preached from Ecclesiastes, 12th chap., 13th and 14th verses, which read as follows: "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter. Fear God and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing whether it be good or whether it be evil." The book of Ecclesiastes, he said, was the autobiography of Solomon, whose life was a conspicuous failure notwithstanding all his advantages. It contained some things that were untrue, and some things that were impure, but it must be remembered these sayings were the words of Solomon, and not those of God. The writer had sought happiness in the acquisition of knowledge, in the enjoyment of ease, in the whirl of pleasure, in wine and women, and in all things that come under the sun, and he had been disappointed, and he had been forced, at the last, to speak the greatest truth that had ever passed his lips in the words of the text. He then made an appeal to the youth of the congregation to avoid the course of the great prince if they would hope to find true happiness in this life and to persevere in the next. This sermon was admirably adapted to go to the hearts of all who listened to it, and all seemed impressed with its value and closeness.
