

Lawrencetown.

F. E. Wheelock, of Yale, is home for the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shafner are visiting at Sydney. Miss Bertha Newcombe is the guest of her parents for the holidays. Mrs. J. N. Morgan and children, of Crossburn, are visiting friends here. Mrs. W. E. Hall and children are guests of Mrs. B. Prince and friends. Haying is progressing and a better crop is being harvested than was expected. We had a terrific rain and thunder storm here on Friday night, also on Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Jones, who have been visiting Mrs. E. L. Hall, have returned to Bridgetown. Mr. John Hatt, of Inglisville, lost his house and most of the furniture by fire on Saturday evening. Mrs. M. Longmire and children, of Somerville, Mass., are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller. Dr. L. R. Morse has gone away for a six months medical course, and Dr. W. R. Morse has charge of his practice. Don't forget the Band Concerts on the Island every Monday evening. These are free to everybody and a good time for all. Mrs. Irving Doane, of Dorchester, Mass., Mrs. Charles Prince and Miss Marshall, of Gloucester, Mass., are visiting in Bridgetown. Roy Balcom and sister, Miss Nellie leave today for Boston, the latter for a few weeks visit. The former will remain there, having a good position offered him with his brother, R. G. Balcom.

Belle Isle

Miss Woodworth, of Waltham, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lyle. Rev. George Freeman, of Cambridge, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Howe Ray. Miss Bessie Kent, of Tupperville, spent last week with her aunt, Mrs. Alexander Fraser. A heavy thunder storm passed over here on Monday afternoon accompanied by much needed rain. Farmers here have commenced to get their hay. On the upland the crop is very far below the average. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bent, of British Columbia, spent a few days of last week with their uncle, Mr. I. D. Gesmer. Mrs. Arthur Burns, accompanied by her niece, Miss Annie Withers, of Dorchester, Mass., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick W. Harris. A large number of brothers, their wives, and immediate relatives and friends of Mrs. Frank F. Bent gathered at her home on Tuesday, the 13th. A most sumptuous tea was served on inst., to be with her on her birthday. The lawn. A most enjoyable evening was spent. Ice cream was served to her guests before the evening was spent. Numerous tokens of affection and regard were left at her home.

Halifax.

Miss Shaw, of Wolfville, is spending a few days with her cousin, Mrs. Percy Neily. Mr. Harry DeLancey, of Boston, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Uniake DeLancey. Mrs. Grant Parker, of Los Angeles, California, has been spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Abner Morse. Miss Leta Brown, of the Roosevelt Hospital, New York, and her father, Postmaster Brown, of Bridgetown, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Whit Ruggles. The Nictaux Baptist Church will celebrate its centennial this September. Already the committees are busy making definite plans for an instructive and entertaining program. Rev. C. H. Haverstock spoke to a very large audience Sunday morning, his subject being "The Model Husband." Next Sunday morning his subject will be "The Model Wife." Owing to the dry season the hay crop is very light and the strawberry crop much shortened but the rain of Friday night will be very beneficial to the raspberries and all hoe crops. Miss Mary Chipman entertained the "Ready Workers" last week and served supper on the verandah. If peals of laughter are indicative of merriment surely all enjoyed a jolly good time. This week they will meet with Mrs. Avard Nelly. There never did and never will exist anything permanently noble and excellent in a character which was a stranger to the exercise of resolute self-denial.—Sir Walter Scott.

Annapolis.

Miss Georgie Roop is the guest of Miss Sadie Ridgway, of Halifax. Mrs. Budgell, of Boston, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. James E. Crowe. Miss Barlow, of St. John, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. F. M. Dargie. Mrs. Shaw, of Cobalt, is on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Corbett. Miss Nell Davidson, of Boston, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Edwards. Miss Ethel McLaughlin, of Lunenburg, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. deBlois. Miss Fannie Odell, of Halifax, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Griffin Odell. Miss Lottie Perkins returned Monday from a visit to friends in Lunenburg County. Mr. Hyde arrived Saturday from Boston and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. McCormick. Mr. and Mrs. Coulton, of Brooklyn N. Y., arrived at the Hillside House to spend the summer months. Mrs. Cowan, of St. John, and Mrs. Schumway, of Philadelphia, are the guests of Doctor and Mrs. Horstall. Andrew Morris, of Weymouth, was a guest of D. Owen on Thursday last and Reg. Jones, of Weymouth, of Rev. H. How. Miss Melville, of Boston, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. Fullerton, left on Monday for a short visit to Lunenburg County. Mr. W. J. Shannon arrived from Rothesay, N. B., and has been spending the week with Mr. A. M. King at Rest Cottage, Lake La Rose. The Salvation Army Band of New Aberdeen consisting of twenty-five skilled musicians held forth in the Academy of Music here last evening. J. J. Ritchie, of Halifax, spent Friday and Saturday morning in town and left Saturday afternoon to join his family who are summering at the Millford House. A Fancy Sale and Tea will be held by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church in aid of the Manse Fund, on the grounds around the Church on Thursday, July 29th. The Misses Redmond, of Salem, Mass., who have been regular visitors for some years past, arrived here on Friday and will spend the next two months as guests of the Hillside House. The many friends of the Rev. D. H. Simpson, pastor of the Baptist Church here, will regret to learn that he has decided to accept the call from New Germany and has notified the churches here to that effect, his resignation to take effect in September. Rev. H. How dedicated, on the 18th at St. Mark's, Perotte, an oak lectern given by Messrs. W. B. A. C., in memory of their father, Rev. J. J. Ritchie, M. A., for a quarter of a century the devoted rector of his native parish. The lectern is tastefully carved and bears a brass plate duly inscribed.

Hampton.

E. B. Foster is enjoying new potatoes of his own raising. Shirley Munro, of Lynn, is stopping a time at Mrs. Brinton's. The fine showers that have recently fallen have greatly refreshed the crops. Roy Brooks, who has been in Lynn for some time, is at home. He was accompanied by his cousin, Willie Snow, son of Edgar Snow. Charles B. Mitchell, of Everett, Mass., has come home. We regret to learn that his eye-sight has failed to such a degree that he was unable to work and was forced to retire from business. The Rev. Gilbert Bent and wife, of Salem, Mass., are guests at the home of Mrs. John E. Farnsworth. The reverend gentleman, although eighty-four years old, is hale and hearty and looks as fresh as a boy. (July 14th.) Fish at present are very scarce. Just a few straggling salmon. The steamer Ruby L. landed a carload of flour last week for John Titus and others. Our visitors are arriving. There are large parties here nearly every day and a goodly number stopping to enjoy the sea breezes. Mrs. Griffin and daughter have been guests at Mrs. A. J. Foster's, for a few days. Mrs. Tolan's house is occupied by a Bridgetown party. Improvement is the order of the day in our village. The homes of John Titus and I. B. Snow look fine in their new coats of white. J. B. Templeman, J. E. Farnsworth, and Mr. Curry have also been using the paint brush.

Bear River.

Miss Eula Benson is dangerously ill. Mr. Frank Gehu went to Boston on Saturday last. Mr. F. B. Miller arrived from Boston on Saturday. S. S. Bear River sailed for St. John on Tuesday. Mrs. Globe and children are visiting her mother, Mrs. Hetty Potter. Mr. Coleman Anthony went to Round Hill on Thursday. Mr. Edward Troop arrived from Boston on Wednesday last. Mr. Killam, of Beverly, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. M. Delap. Mrs. Ida Benson is visiting her mother, Mrs. Sophronia Nicholl. Mr. and Mrs. Heming, of St. John, are guests of Mrs. J. H. Yorke. Mrs. Haines returned home to Lynn on Wednesday last. Schr. Neva sailed for New York on Friday loaded with lumber by Clarke Bros. Mr. George Savary is visiting friends after an absence of some years. Miss Hattie Reed is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Benson. Schr. Florence E. Melanson sailed for Lynn on Monday loaded with lumber. Mrs. Pollock and six children are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Harris. Mr. Horace Moore arrived from Boston on Saturday and will stop with his sister, Miss Lizzie Moore. Rev. Arthur Archibald arrived on Tuesday to join Mrs. Archibald and daughter. Mrs. Daniel and son, of Paradise, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Harry Marshall. Master George Alexander arrived Thursday on a visit to his grandmother, Mrs. S. Vroom. Miss Lizzie Moore arrived home on Saturday last and will occupy her residence during the summer. Miss Daisy Milligan is spending her holidays with her mother, Mrs. Frank Jones, at the Bear River Hotel. Mr. William Moore, New York, and Miss Jennie Moore, St. Paul, are the guests of their sister, Miss Lizzie Moore. Mr. Joseph Harris and wife, of Marblehead, arrived last week and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Harris. Mr. Carmon McClellan arrived from Newton Centre on Saturday and while here will be the guest of Mrs. R. I. Anthony. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson and Irvin, who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Lovitt, returned home to Halifax on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rice and son, Thomas, drove from Round Hill Saturday and spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Cordelia Rice. Mrs. James Harris returned from Boston on Friday last. Mrs. Harris informs us that she had a good time and saw lots of the city. The sudden death of Mrs. Annie Berry, wife of Obed P. Berry, took place on Sunday night, at the age of 58 years. She leaves to mourn her loss a husband and two daughters, Miss Hattie, living at home, and Mrs. C. E. Raymond, of Beverly, Mass., who, with her little son, arrived on Saturday to attend the funeral. Interment at Mount Hope cemetery, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Lockward officiating.

STE. CROIX COVE.

Mrs. John Phinney is spending a few days with relatives here. Mr. Edwin Hall and sons are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hall. M. C. Foster, B. A., recently left for Truro, where he intends taking a course in physical training. We were pleased to see our old friend, Mr. Melbourne Brinton, of Clarence, with us on Sunday. Miss Ethel Phinney, of Lawrence town, after spending a few days with Miss Sadie Hall, has returned home. Mrs. Emma Brown, accompanied by Miss Robbie Brown, spent a few days of this week with Mrs. William Hall. Mrs. Herbert Burke and daughter, Inez, of Keene, N. H., arrived here on Wednesday to remain for the summer months with Mrs. Burke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Foster.

West Paradise.

Vaughn Balcom, of Lynn, is visiting his uncle, Mr. Norman Longley. Mrs. Harding Morse is visiting relatives in Deep Brook. Service will be held in Evergreen Hall, Sunday afternoon.

Port-Wade

Eva M. and Lizzie V. Burke are spending their vacation with parents here after a sojourn of one year in Malden, Mass. It is expected that a nice delegation from our Division will attend the Temperance Picnic at Smiths Cove, Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swett, son and daughter, of Marblehead, have been visiting the past week at the home of John W. Snow. Mr. J. Cochran, of St. John, and Major D. Wade, of Granville Centre, were guests of Watson Anthony on Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Joseph Choates and child, of Lynn, are home with her mother, Mrs. (Capt.) Johnson, for a visit with her and other friends. Teams are in waiting the landing of the ferry boat "Port Wade" each day, looking for the home comers which are fast numbering up. Mrs. Lawson Keans, of Lynn, with her two children, are visiting with her mother, Mrs. G. Johnson, and sister, Mrs. Arthur W. Chisholm.

Lower Granville

Farmers busy haying. The crop is below the average. Mrs. James Holmes and child came from Boston on Monday. Miss Leta Eaton and Beatrice Calnek sailed for Paradise on Friday to spend a week. James Morrison, senr., and Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. Leonard Morrison and child, Mrs. Reuben Conly and child, Mrs. Berice Choate and child, Mrs. Rena Thomas and child, and Miss Moulton came from Boston on Wednesday, crossing from Digby on the "Port Wade."

Granville Centre.

Mrs. J. W. Parker, of New York, is the guest of Mrs. Henry Troop. Miss Venie Rice, of Bridgetown, is the guest of Mrs. Frank R. Troop. Miss Annie Benson, of Amesbury, Mass., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. M. D. Bent. The social held under the auspices of the Baptist Church realized the sum of $28.00. Miss Frances Withers, of Brookton, Mass., is spending her vacation at her home here. Mrs. Gilbert Shaffner, of Lower Granville, spent last week with her daughters here. Misses Leta Eaton and Beatrice Calnek spent last week in Paradise, guests of Miss Vera Longley. Misses Mary Tanch, Lena Withers, and Lennie Eaton have gone to Poland, Maine, for the summer. Miss Winnie Bogart has returned to Halifax, after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stacey Bogart. The friends of Major David Wade are glad to see him around again, after being confined to the house for several weeks with la-grippe. Mr. and Mrs. George Hutchinson and children and Miss Maude Bent, of Boston, are spending the summer months with Mrs. Samuel Bent. Misses Ethel Eaton, Rose Longmore Bessie Troop and Esther Gilliat are taking the course in military drill at Truro. Mr. J. W. Tanch is taking the same course at Halifax.

North Williamston.

Service here on the 25th at three o'clock by Rev. Mr. Hart. We are pleased to report that D. M. Charlton is able to be out again after a severe illness. Miss Vivian Annis, of Nictaux Falls, spent a few days during the past week at H. C. Marshall's. R. Moore arrived home last Thursday from Oclecheater County. Mr. Moore's many friends are always pleased to see him. Rev. Mr. Leek, of Round Hill, paid Mr. and Mrs. Oliver DeLancey a short visit on the 18th. Mr. Milten Gibson and niece, Miss Annie Marshall, of Dalhousie, have been recent visitors at Mr. DeLancey's.

HOW'S THIS?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm. WALLING, KINNAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Clarence.

(July 14th.) Mrs. N. B. Foster is visiting friends in Bridgetown. Miss Florence Mabee, of Halifax, is visiting at H. G. Wilson's. Mrs. Eldon Marshall spent last week visiting at Karsdale. Miss Flossie Chute has returned from the Truro Normal School. Miss Skinner, of Weston, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wilson. The Misses Edith and Irene Jackson have gone to visit their aunt at Digby. Mrs. G. A. Wotton, of Wilmor, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lorenzo Elliott. The Misses Evangeline Elliott and Addie Chute attended the examinations held at Bridgetown last week. Mr. Mills and Miss Maud Caswell, of Granville Ferry, were recent visitors at Mr. S. N. Jackson's. Miss Fannie Sutherland, of Truro, is also visiting at Mr. Jackson's.

Albany.

The Misses Bessie and Hettie Fairn are spending their vacation at home. Miss Cynthia Oakes, of Nictaux Falls, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oakes last week. Mrs. Letitia Illsley, of Billtown, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitman; also of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Prentiss. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Oakes, of Kingston, N. S., and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Whitman, of Torbrook, visited relatives in this place on the 3rd and 4th. Mrs. Frank Dunlap and children, accompanied by her mother, went to Prince Albert this week to attend a meeting pertaining to the "Baker Fortune." Mrs. Rufus Sheridan and her little son, Carl, also her sister, Miss Richardson, all of Framingham, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Sheridan. Rev. and Mrs. M. B. Whitman and family are expected to visit his parents on Monday, 19th. They will spend a week here on their way to their new church at Lockeport, Shelburne County.

Port Lorne

Mrs. Charlotte Anderson is visiting relatives in Dalhousie. Miss Nora Anderson, of Bridgetown is visiting her cousin, Miss Eunice Anderson. S. S. Ruby L. makes her annual cherry excursion to Bear River Saturday, July 24th. Service, Sunday, 11 a. m., by Dr. C. Goodspeed, of Paradise. Sunday School at 2.30 p. m. Misses Mildred and Edna Brown, of Winchendon, Mass., are spending a few weeks with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown and little daughter, Charlotte, of Winchendon, Mass., are visiting relatives of this place. Mr. Oscar Phaneuf, of Massachusetts, who has been spending a few days with his grandmother, Mrs. Phineas Banks, returned home Friday. Harold and Murray, sons of Capt. S. M. Beardsley, of Halifax, are spending their holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Anthony.

Springfield.

Mrs. J. F. Bent is visiting friends in Lawrence town. Mrs. W. M. Durling spent Sunday at Kempt, Queens Co. Miss Kate Baker, of Margaretville, is the guest of Mrs. H. C. Grimm. Mr. W. P. Mailman, of Hantsport, is spending a week the guest of his parents. Miss Lelia McNayr, who has been attending school at Round Hill, has returned home. Rev. Josiah Webb spent a few days of last week the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Johnson Crouse. The ladies of the Union Church held an ice cream social in Bent's Hall on Wednesday evening, July 14th. The sum of $17.00 was raised for church purposes. A terrible fire raged in South Albany yesterday, 16th, and destroyed hundreds of dollars worth of growing timber owned by Messrs. Allen Zwicker, Charles Oakes and Joseph Mailman. The fire started from Mr. Harnish's mill.

Margaretville

Miss Nellie Morse, of Middleton, is visiting at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Baker. Rev. and Mrs. W. N. Hutchins were suddenly called to Norwood, Mass., to attend the funeral of his mother, Wylie Gates, of Somerville, Mass., who has been absent for a year, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gates. Claude E. Balcom left for St. John on Saturday to join a company of friends who will spend their vacation camping at Lake Utopia, N. B. Services for Sunday, July 25th.—Preaching, 11 a. m. (Baptist), Rev. H. B. Smith; Methodist, Rev. Mr. Farguhar, S. School at 2 p. m. Mrs. William Cook and sister, also Mrs. Margeson and daughter, Dorothy, of the United States, are visiting Deacon and Mrs. James Cook. J. A. Balcom spent Sunday at Lawrence town with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Balcom, and on his return was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. C. S. Balcom, who will spend a fortnight at Margaretville. Mrs. P. D. Hammond (nee Blanche Harris) and little daughter, Thelma, of Belmont, Mass., and her sister, Miss Ruby Harris, of Lynn, are spending a few weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Harris. A very interesting missionary meeting was held on Sunday evening in the Baptist church at 8 o'clock. Deacon James Cook presiding. The following program was rendered: Reading—Mrs. C. S. Balcom, of Clarence. Solo—Mrs. Murray Lewis. Accompanist, Mrs. Neil Coulston. Reading—Miss Nellie Morse, Middleton. Solo—Mrs. P. D. Hammond, of Belmont, Mass. Accompanist, Mrs. J. A. Balcom. Reading—Miss Annie Stronach. Reading—Miss Ermie Baker. Solo—Miss Haidee McMurtry. Accompanist, Miss George Balcom. A pleasing feature of the program was a recitation by little Thelma Harris, also a duet by Grace and Albie Early whose childish voices were very pleasing to the audience. They were accompanied by their father, Robert Early, as organist. Collection $4.50. The meeting closed by singing "Sweet By and By."

HOT WEATHER GOODS FOR LADIES, MEN and BOYS. Ladies' Wash Suits. Two lines of Ladies' Wash Suits, coat and skirt. These are tailored suits, the fit and finish perfect; colors, Fawn, Blue, Light Grey and Dark Grey stripes; cuts loose or semi fitting. Prices $4.98 and $5.25. Ladies' Rain Coats. Colors, Navy, Brown, Fawn, Green, Light Grey and Dark Grey. Fabricized Silk, Mercerized and Heptonette Coverings; also plain cloths. Ladies' White Blouses. Just opened, these are exceptional value; made for a $1.75 line but we are selling them while they last for only $1.25. Ladies' Underwear, Whitewear, Hosiery. Gloves, etc. Wash Goods. Dainty Muslins, White Goods, Marthorn Suiting, Motor Suitings, Audersen Gingham, Scotch Zephyrs in plain, stripes and checks, Serpentine Crapes, etc. etc. WANTED: Any quantity of tub washed Wool at 22c. per pound. Strong and Whitman. PHONE 32, RUGGLES BLOCK, BRIDGETOWN.