

iniquity of us all. God is calling us to return unto Him, retrace our steps, until we shall again walk in the paths of righteousness. God strengthen us to obey Him and trust Him for abundant pardon. "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him, and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon." Thus saith the Lord: "I have called thee by thy name, thou art Mine." As our Saviour calls your name, are you not thrilled with its pathos? Are you not melted with the depth and obedience of Calvary love? At the remembrance of His dying agony for you, are you not pierced to the heart? And when He whispers loving, comforting and sympathetic words in the silent night watches, and you listen to His precious invitation, "Come unto Me all ye that labor, and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest," can you resist the pleading love of Calvary? "Cast thy burden upon the Lord and He will sustain thee."

"You who are hedged in by untoward circumstances, seeing the sea before you, and the mountains forbidding retreat, and no escape, let me say, 'Stand still and see the salvation of God.' His mercy will provide a way even though it be through the flood, and while to lead you in the way there may be no banner of fire nor pillar of cloud, our Father will lead you out of bondage into the freedom of His abundant grace."—Rev. Warren Hathaway.

For His name's sake, dear reader, His love shall be unfailing, His vigilance sleepless, His faithfulness unchanging, His love for you through eternity passing knowledge. We shall never outgrow our need of His guidance and Christ will not abandon us half way.

"Though foes assail me, yea, within without,
Harass my soul, and hurl my joys in dust;
No forceful fear nor fraud of treacherous doubt
Disarms my buckled trust.
